Rally at Pleasant Hill Opens Baptist Revival

guest speaker for this week of revival efforts. Services will be each evening at 7:30, March 27-31. The public is invited.

The Rev. Mr. Gales, graduate of Wingate College, is an outstanding gospel preacher with almost 30 years of experience. During World War II his shipmates affectionately nicknamed him "Deacon Gales." While serving with the U. S. Navy, his preaching ministry extended across the South Pacific and included the Phillipines, the Solomon Islands, Guadalcanal, Bougainville and Leyete.

Since World War II, the Rev. Mr. Gales has served Baptist churches over a wide area in North and South Carolina, from the Sandhills to the mountains. He and his wife now live in the Baptist parsonage in West End. Pleasant Hill Baptist Church is located one mile North of Smithfield, just off the Whispering Pines Road. Special music each evening will add to the enjoyment of these services.

The pastor, the Rev. Max A. Gilmore, and the members of the church extend a warm and cordial invitation to these services.

Holly Mount Pastor Tenders Resignation

Rev. Foley W. Gales tendered his resignation as pastor of the Holly Mount Baptist Church on Sunday night, November 8, after having served the church for almost six years.

The Rev. Mr. Gales has accepted the pastorate at the Unity Baptist Church in Robbins, and will continue to serve as pastor of the First Baptist Church in West End.

The Rev. Mr. Gales will preach at Holly Mount on Sunday morning, November 15. His last service there will be on Sunday, November 22, at 6 p.m.

"I have enjoyed being pastor of Holly Mount," the minister said. "The church has grown spiritually and materially. It has been one of the finest, sweetest churches I have been associated with in my 27 years in the ministry."

The Rev. Mr. Gales added that the church is located in a "very fine community."

Both the Unity Baptist Church and the West End Baptist Church are members of the Sandhills Association. The Rev. Mr. Gales is now residing in West End at the church parsonage.
