BRIAN CLAY DYSON

Dyson to preach at Community Baptist church

Brian Clay Dyson has announced his call to preach and he will deliver his first sermon this Sunday evening at 7:30 p.m. at the Community Baptist Church, located on Langtree Road in Mount Mourne.

Dyson, a graduate of Mooresville Senior High School, is married to the former Dana Barger. They have one daughter Brittany, age three. He has served a tour of duty in the U.S. Marines and took part in Desert Storm. Since August of 1994, he has been a staff sergeant in North Carolina Air National Guard.

The Rev. J.R. Speece, pastor of the Community Baptist Church, and the congregation invite the public to attend this special service.
