Wake Forest Graduate Begins Law Practice

James H. Early Jr. has opened an office at 204 O'Hanlon Building for the general practice of law.

Early, a June graduate of the Wake Forest Law School, passed his bar examination in August. A 1957 graduate of Hanes High School, he attended Mars Hill Junior College for two years and received a B.A. degree from Wake Forest College in 1962.

While at Wake Forest he was a member of Phi Alpha Delta, legal fraternity and Phi Alpha Theta, an honorary history fraternity. He was treasurer of the Student Bar Association.

He is a member of Knollwood Baptist Church.

Early is married to the former Patricia Robinson of Mars Hill. They live at 4130 Student Drive.