R. H. DABNEY

--- professor at Green Hill Academy in Waynesville around 1860-61.
--- professor in charge of Tuckaseigee Baptist High School at Holly Springs, N. C., in 1868. He is called: "Col. R. H. Dabney, whose reputation as a thorough scholar and skillful instructor will insure to the school a liberal patronage."
--- apparently did not continue in this position beyond December 1868.
--- 1860 Federal Census - living in Waynesville, age 31, listed as "Professor", born in Virginia, listed as staying with an innkeeper.