Bro. L. E. Dailey, who had recently completed his studies at the Louisville Seminary came August 3, 1912 to shepherd the flocks of Buckhorne and Roberts Chapel Baptist Churches. He did work at both churches for about 3 years when he re­signed his work with Buckhorne and for a few weeks, was one­half time pastor of Roberts Chapel only. He then took on Mt. Carmel and Kelford Baptist Churches with Roberts Chapel as a field for about 1 year, until his resignation May 5, 1917. After his resignation at Buckhorne he moved to Pendleton, NC, where he, with his wife and wife's mother, lived in the K. R. Maddrey house. He is a good leader and a servant of God. ...
THOMAS MITCHELL DANIEL, LL.B.,
MULLINS, S. C.

"This fellow pecks up wit, as pigeons peck,
And utters it again when Jove doth please;
He is wit’s peddler; and retail his wares
At wakes and wassails, meetings, markets, fairs."

Poet Freshman Class ’06; Associate Editor Howler ’08; Poet Law Class ’08; Glee Club ’09.

Height 5 ft. 6½ in. Weight 125 lbs.
Age 22 years.

Artemus Ward, Uncle Remus, Mark Twain, and Hill Nye all rolled into one when it comes to making quips, jests, or merry jokes. He is possessed of a fine sense of humor, and noting the amusement so many people get out of his antics and stunts, he does his best not to disappoint them. He is “hail-fellow, well-met” and may be heard on the campus or at the drug store cracking the mirth-provoking, smile-producing, side-splitting jests.

His ability as a chorister is manifest in the enchanting harmonies of the Glee Club, and the entrancing nocturnal music of the Black Diamond Quartette. “Tom” is popular among the boys and has made many friends while in college. If we were allowed to name his calling, we would suggest the stage, but

"Who can foretell for what high cause
This darling of the gods was born?"
