The Roy Cables

The Rev. Roy Cable has accepted a call to become pastor of Cooper's Gap Baptist Church.

Mr. Cable, his wife, Reva, and their five year old adopted son will be moving onto the field December 3.

The new pastor attended WNC University at Cullowhee, was graduated from Fruitland Bible Institute, and Southeastern Theological Seminary. His wife is a graduate of Mars Hill Baptist College.

The Cables are natives of North Carolina and lived in Canton for many years. After graduating from Southeastern Seminary Mr. Cable accepted the position of assistant pastor at First Baptist Church, Dublin, Ga. Later he accepted a call to "Marie Baptist Church", Dublin as pastor.

"Cooper's Gap is one of the strongest churches in Polk County," said Supl. Z. D. Baker, "and we welcome the Cables to Polk County and to the Polk Baptist Association".

A service of ordination will be held Sunday night, at Bent Creek Baptist Church for the Rev. Roy D. Cable.

Mr. Cable is now serving as associate pastor and minister of youth for Bent Creek Baptist Church. Before coming to Bent Creek he was minister of youth at Newbridge Baptist Church and also worked with the Billy Graham film ministry.

Speaker for this service will be the Rev. Richard W. Stiles. Mr. Stiles is pastor of the Star of Bethel Baptist Church in Hendersonville, and a teacher at Fruitland Bible Institute near Hendersonville.

A reception for Mr. and Mrs. Cable will follow the ordination service in the church educational building.
Accepts Pastorate

The Roy Cables

The Rev. Roy Cable has accepted a call to become pastor of Cooper's Gap Baptist Church.
Mr. Cable, his wife, Reva, and their five year old adopted son will be moving onto the field December 3.

The new pastor attended WNC University at Cullowhee, was graduated from Fruitland Bible Institute, and Southeastern Theological Seminary. His wife is a graduate of Mars Hill Baptist College.

The Cables are natives of North Carolina and lived in Canton for many years. After graduating from Southeastern Seminary Mr. Cable accepted the position of assistant pastor at First Baptist Church, Dublin, Ga. Later he accepted a call to "Marie Baptist Church", Dublin as pastor.

"Cooper's Gap is one of the strongest churches in Polk County," said Supt. Z. D. Baker, "and we welcome the Cables to Polk County and to the Polk Baptist Association".
Cable, Roy D

Cooper's Gap 1839, Polk
Bent Tree
Buncombe c. 1900
Newbridge 1915 Buncombe
Ordination Service Set

A service of ordination will be held Sunday night, at Bent Creek Baptist Church for the Rev. Roy D. Cable.

Mr. Cable is now serving as associate pastor and minister of youth for Bent Creek Baptist Church. Before coming to Bent Creek, he was minister of youth at Newbridge Baptist Church and also worked with the Billy Graham Film ministry.

Speaker for this service will be the Rev. Richard W. Stiles. Mr. Stiles is pastor of the Star of Bethel Baptist Church in Hendersonville, and a teacher at Fruitland Bible Institute near Hendersonville.

A reception for Mr. and Mrs. Cable will follow the ordination service in the church educational building.

...