Cagle to lead Kennebec revival

Revival services will be conducted at Kennebec Baptist Church beginning Sunday, Oct. 20. Visiting evangelist will be the Rev. Oliver Cagle Jr., pastor of Southside Baptist Church in Mansfield, Louisiana.

Sunday's revival services will be held at 11 a.m. and 6 p.m. Services will continue Monday through Wednesday evenings at 7 p.m. nightly.

Kennebec Baptist Church is located approximately three miles north of Angier, just off N.C. 55 on Kennebec Church Road.

Kennebec's pastor, Dr. Richard Walker, invites the surrounding area to participate in these special services.

Surrendered to preach

Rev. Cagle surrendered to preach the Gospel in January of 1960, 17 months after becoming a Christian. He holds degrees from East Texas Baptist University in Marshall, Texas and Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest.

A United States Marine Corps veteran, Rev. Cagle's five pastorates have been in Texas, North Carolina, Alabama, and Louisiana.

Besides pastoring, Rev. Cagle served as a full-time Southern Baptist evangelist for ten years. His preaching ministry has taken him to 12 different states, as well as to Canada, Jamaica, and Germany.

Rev. Cagle has pastored the Southside Baptist Church in Mansfield, Louisiana for over nine years. During that time, the church relocated in 1993 to a 26-acre site near the edge of Mansfield. Their new complex is valued at over two million dollars.

Kennebec's visiting evangelist and his wife, Betty, have one daughter, Janet Lyn Graves. She is a school teacher in Mobile, Alabama where she and her husband, Brad, reside. Rev. and Mrs. Cagle are proud grandparents of one granddaughter, Tiffany Lyn.

Kennebec's music director, Vanessa McLamb, has arranged for several area church choirs to present special music for each service. Other special music will be provided by Kennebec's Worship Choir and soloists.

There will be a nursery provided during each service for babies and toddlers through three years of age. A special children's worship is planned for the children four and five years old.
Rev. Oliver Cagle, Jr., has been called as pastor at Corinth Baptist Church on Route 3, Nashville, to replace Rev. John Williams who resigned in June to accept duties at a Henderson church.

The new pastor, presently in his first year of studies at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary at Wake Forest, and his family moved into the community during the past week.

Rev. Cagle, 28, graduated from East Texas Baptist College with a B.A. degree following a tour in the U.S. Marine Corps.

The native of Alabama held a previous pastorate in Jefferson, Tex.

Corinth's new pastor has been preaching since 1960 and has held revivals and other services in Alabama, Texas, Florida, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Mississippi, Louisiana and North Carolina.
Rev. Oliver Cagle, Jr., has been called as pastor at Corinth Baptist Church on Route 3, Nashville, to replace Rev. John Williams who resigned in June to accept duties at a Henderson church.

The new pastor, presently in his first year of studies at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary at Wake Forest, and his family moved into the community during the past week.

Rev. Cagle, 28, graduated from East Texas Baptist College with a B.A. degree following a tour in the U. S. Marine Corps.

The native of Alabama held a previous pastorate in Jefferson, Tex.

Corinth's new pastor has been preaching since 1960 and has held revivals and other services in Alabama, Texas, Florida, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Mississippi, Louisiana and North Carolina.

REV. OLIVER CAGLE, JR.
Southern Baptist evangelist for ten years. His preaching ministry has taken him to 12 different states, as well as to Canada, Jamaica, and Germany.

Rev. Cagle has pastored the Southside Baptist Church in Mansfield, Louisiana for over nine years. During that time, the church relocated in 1993 to a 26-acre site near the edge of Mansfield. Their new complex is valued at over two million dollars.

Kennebec's visiting evangelist and his wife, Betty, have one daughter, Janet Lyn Graves. She is a school teacher in Mobile, Alabama where she and her husband, Brad, reside. Rev. and Mrs. Cagle are proud grandparents of one granddaughter, Tiffany Lyn.

Kennebec's music director, Vanessa McLamb, has arranged for several area church choirs to present special music for each service. Other special music will be provided by Kennebec's Worship Choir and soloists.

There will be a nursery provided during each service for babies and toddlers through three years of age. A special children's worship is planned for the children four and five years old.