DR. E. A. ABBOTT

Homecoming Scheduled

West Oxford Baptist Church will hold homecoming on Sunday.

Dr. Evan Andrew "Bud" Abbott, a former pastor of the church, will be the guest speaker.

Dr. Abbott served West Oxford from 1962 to 1966. He attended Mercer University and Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, then returned to Mercer to obtain a doctor of divinity degree in 1980.

He and his wife, Corinne, have three children: Mrs. Janice Smith of Albany, Ga.; Mrs. Darlene Hasty of Smyrna, Ga.; and Darrell Abbott of Snellville, Ga.

In addition to homecoming, the new fellowship building will be dedicated after the morning service.

All former members and friends are invited to attend.

REVIVAL SERVICES — Rev. E. A. Abbott of Oxford will be conducting Evangelistic services tonight at 7:30 and continuing through April 30, at the Love Memorial Baptist Mission, formerly Madison Avenue Mission in South Goldsboro. Directions to the Mission are: Cross the Neuse on Hwy. 117, turn right at the shopping center, turn left on Old Grantham Rd., turn left at the 2nd street which is Woodland Church Road.
