May 6, 1918

The day of the Blues beginning.

Leaving old camp desert.

Arrive at our second camp.

We leaving old Hoboken on 11 of May.
we boarded the ship, at Boston Mass, May the 12th.

Second Degree of the Blues.

For 16 sojourn days we never saw any soil at all.

But on the 28th day of May, 1918 we arrive at Liverpool, England.

We caught the train at 10 A.M.
Beginning to flirt with the war girls.
We arrived at Falmouth, Stone England. This was a German town. This was our new camp. The morning of the 29th of May.

We boarded the ship the 30th of May across the English Channel into the land of France.
The day we landed in France the days grew longer and the blues grew stronger.

From the sound of the big guns we spent 2 days at this camp Falcois France.

We left Falcois on the second day of June.

For camp Audoselt there we spent
Thirty days 30 in training at Trench war sick for the front.

We left Lincoln the 2nd of July. We arrived at the 4th on the 7 P.M. Reaching Herglet late in the P.M.

We left Herglet on the 10th.

We arrived at Rosle camp near Walloo in Belgium. we left there on the 13 of July
for the bornt

Cook's & mess six came back on the 16th,
The CO came back on the 25 of July
1 one man short
3 wounded. Out for rest.

Up again on the 3 of Aug.

Came back to the 13 of Aug.
Away to the front on the 1st of Aug.

Came back on the 29th of Aug. at the camp of St John Doheny.

Leaving Old Belgrin into France again.

Reaching Camp St. Pancrass on 7th of Sept.
Left St. Paul.

On the sixteenth I left camp.

On the 17th, Roseville.

Left on the 23rd.

Reached the town on the 28th of Sept.

Over the tops with the last game of the 19th of Sept.

27 men short 20, 30
came back on the 3 of Oct.

Up again on the eight.

Man shot and gas wound.

Came back on the 20 Oct.

We left for a replacement camp the 21 Oct., reaching our camp the 23 twenty third Oct.

This is a replacement camp.
Stunts. Son Short Democracy.
S. C. Buckner
Silver City
A. R. P. #1
R. C.
R. H. Lane
Boone, N.C.
Henry Hicks
Frank
N.C.