Church Program To Show Drunken-Driving Dangers

EDEN — Aiken Road Baptist Church is sponsoring a program entitled, "The Crossroads," which will run from 7-11 p.m. tonight through Monday.

"Our aim is to bring home the tragedy caused by drunk drivers," said church representative Debra Franklin, "and to bring our young people to the realization of the choices they have in regard to their own spiritual life."

Pastors from area churches will be available for counseling, and local police officers will be participating. There will be demonstrations of what can happen when a person chooses to drink and drive.

In addition, inside the church will be a display which shows the differences between heaven and hell.

"With so many of our young people being pulled away from our churches...we feel perhaps we can show them, in a way they can understand, what could happen if they choose this world," Franklin said.

A small admission fee will be charged. Refreshments will be provided.

The church is at 281 Aiken Road in Eden. The public is invited.

For more information on the event, call 635-0209 or 623-1964.

Church Plans Special Event

To The Editor:

The Aiken Road Baptist Church is hosting a special event tonight through Monday for all the young people in our area.

Our aim is to bring home the tragedy caused by drunken drivers and to bring our young people to the realization of the choices they have in regard to their own spiritual lives.

There will be pastors there from different churches in the area to counsel anyone who may wish to talk to a minister.

Also, we will have demonstrations of what can happen when a person chooses to drink and drive. Some of the police officers from our police force have promised to participate in the event.

Inside the church will be a display representing the difference between heaven and hell.

With so many of our young people being pulled away from our churches and onto the world of numbing influences, we feel perhaps we can show them in a way they can understand what could happen if they chose this world.

It is difficult to get the word of God to our teens and young people. Maybe this will help bring them to Christ.

There will be a 50-cent admission charge to offset the expense the Aiken

Road Baptist Church will incur.

The event will begin at 7 p.m. daily and run until 11 p.m.
