

Mrs. Watford To Address Blanchard Grove

HOBBSVILLE — Blanchard Grove Baptist Church will observe its annual Women's Day Sunday October 20 at 11:30 a.m. Guest speaker for the service will be Mrs. Marion Watford.

Mrs. Watford was born in Henrico County, Richmond, Va. Her family later moved to Washington, D. C. where she attended the public schools. She graduated from Spingarn High School and attended Atlantic Business College, then worked for the Federal Government for 10 years as a stenographic-secretary. She is a graduate of the Washington Bible College in Washington, D. C. and is presently enrolled at Roanoke Bible College, Elizabeth City.

She has taught in the Northeast Christian School and the D. C. Bible Institute in Washington. She is presently teaching at the Christian Committee of Concern Bible Institute in Winton. She has also served as secretary of the Christian Committee of Concern.

Mrs. Watford is presently a missionary with the Christian Committee of Concern in Winton where she is co-organizer of Good News Clubs,

Christian Teen Scene and the Christian Committee of Concern Bible Institute and Camp. She also serves as the camp cook.

Marian and her husband, Vernon, have been married 11 years and have no children.

Forest City Courier

Forest City: This Week

Franklin Press

Fuquay-Varina: Independent

Gatesville: Gates Co. Index

OCT 16 1974