Beulah Christian Baptist Church

291 Holy, Holy, Holy was our service opener at Beulah Christian Baptist Church Sunday. It was another rainy day but the spirit was warm and the SON was shining brightly on. As we gathered at the altar to give thanks and pray for those who are sick among us, Fred Kemp led us in prayer.

Billy Tharrington, our pastor, was unable to be with us this week and we really do miss him, however, we are so blessed here to have so many wonderful folks who can come and share with us from God's Word.

Sunday morning Fred Kemp blessed our hearts with a song and a message and on Sunday night Eric Cartrett was equally a blessing as he shared Scripture and a message the Lord laid on his heart.

Special music was shared by our adult choir as they sang Thank God I Am Free.

March 14, 11 a.m. until we run out of food we will have a barbecue benefit for someone in the community who is in need of a heart transplant. Plates will be $6 and will include barbecue chicken, boiled potatoes, slaw, bread and a dessert. We will also have some good gospel singing in the sanctuary. You can eat in or take out, so come and join us!

We will have our Annie Armstrong Offering March 15, so please bring your extra offering to help further God's Word in countries we ourselves cannot go.

Please continue to keep us in your prayers as we prepare for Heaven's Gates, Hell's Flames and don't forget to mark your calendars for March 29-31. If you would like a FREE ticket to attend one of the presentations please call our church office and reserve them now...they are going fast, and you will need to have a ticket should you want to attend.

Please pray for our many sick and shut-ins in not just our community but everywhere. Pray also for those in the rest homes and hospitals. These folks are really special people and they need our thoughts, cards and calls. Most of all, they need our prayers. They do get very lonely, so give them a call or better still drop in to see them, it would make their day! Let's also remember to pray for all the families who have suffered through the devastation this winter with all its various storms all across the country.

We have churchwide visitation every Monday night. If you know someone who needs a visit from us please let someone know.

As we strive to meet the many growing and changing needs of our community, we offer several opportunities to worship. Sunday services are opening assembly, 9:50 a.m.; Sunday School, 10 a.m.; worship, 11 a.m. and 6:30 p.m.; Precious Ones Choir (ages 3-8), junior youth (ages 8-12) and senior youth (ages 13-17) and College Career (ages 18 plus) programs at 6:30 p.m.; adult choir, 7:30 p.m.; Wednesday, worship/Bible Study, 7 p.m. The first Wednesday night in each month is our Missions night. We have a mission dinner (meal provided) and several interesting programs for all ages available in missions. WOW (Women of the Word) Bible Study meets in the home of one of our members the third Monday night of each month. We have a Promise Keepers group and they have regular scheduled meetings. We are currently offering new Christian classes, as well as an Experiencing God class which has proven to be a very special blessing to everyone who has taken it.

Are you seeking Jesus? Are you tired of feeling like you don't belong? We would love to have the opportunity to share Christ and his love with you. We are a Southern Baptist family and will surely do our best to make you feel right at home. We are located at 8225 Mitchell Mill Road. If you need information about any of our services, you can also contact our church office, 556-7245.

Something to think about — If you judge people, you have no time to love them.

God Bless you all, have a great week and remember Jesus loves you!

—Janet Wall

Church bulletin

New Life

Sherry Karsen provided a slide presentation Sunday. The illustration that it provided was part of a study on what God has to say about the family.

Beulah Christian Baptist Church will host vacation Bible school July 12-17 from 7-9 p.m. Some of New Life's children will be attending this event, so there will not be a service at New Life July 12 at 6 p.m.

Thank you to all who gave to the special offering for Pastor Ron Brisson. The trip to the General Assembly Conference in Dallas, Texas, is right around the corner, and the offering will help offset the cost of this trip.

Noel Cookman will be speaking at New Life Sunday, July 26, at 10:50 a.m. and 6 p.m. instead of July 19 as originally planned. He is a musician, evangelist and motivator. Cookman has been to many foreign countries spreading the gospel, building homes, leading medical missions and ministering.

Sunday, July 19, at 10:50 a.m., Ashley Bailey, evangelist with Greater Faith Ministries, will speak at New Life. He and his wife, Sylvia, have three children and reside in Zebulon.

Vacation Bible school at New Life is Aug. 3-7 from 7-9 p.m. The theme, "Passport to the Holy Land," will be an enthusiastic, "fun-filled" week of Bible learning, activities and hands-on projects. New Life welcomes all children age 4-11. Call 556-0557 for more information.
