New Church Is Organized In Winston

Winston-Salem has a new church congregation. The Wesleyan Church, organized by the Rev. W. E. Brannan, was indited into the High Point Education and Missionary Baptist Association at a convention Sunday night.

The congregation of 100 members was met in a renovated office building at 3rd and Liberty streets. Brannan said about 40 people attended the opening service.

The dedication was conducted by Rev. W. L. Wilson, moderator of the association and pastor of First Calvary Baptist Church of Winston-Salem. Participating in the activities were various ministers and church members from Greensboro, High Point and Rockingham as well as several local Baptist congregations.

Brannan will be at the church each Sunday morning and evening. He also is pastor of Wentworth Baptist Church.

He is a native of Winston-Salem and former chairman of the Board of Mount Carmel Baptist and United Progressive Community churches.

He graduated from Piedmont College and did further study at Livingstone College in Salisbury.

Services are being held at 3rd and Liberty streets until the church is complete. The Rev. R. L. Anderson was in charge.

Today's service was conducted by the Rev. W. C. Clay and members of the Methodist Church, along with the members of the Ministers Conference of which the Rev. W. Mack is president.

The Rev. Donald Showe is scheduled to lead the services in the church. He will be member of the Second Calvary Baptist Church where he is pastor.

The Rev. R. E. Tyrrell and members of Friendship Baptist Church will conduct the service Thursday.

The service Friday will be by the Rev. Quincy Caldwell and the Rev. E. E. H. Baptist Church.
New Church Is Organized In Winston

Winston-Salem has a new church congregation. Canaan Baptist Church, organized by the Rev. W. E. Brannon, was inducted into the High Point Education and Missional Baptist Association at a ceremony Sunday night.

The congregation of about 100 members is meeting in a renovated office building at 23rd and Liberty streets. Brannon said about 400 people attended the opening ceremony there.

The dedication was conducted by the Rev. W. L. Williams, moderator of the association and pastor of First Calvary Baptist Church of Winston-Salem. Taking part in the activities were various ministers and their church members from Greensboro, High Point and Rockingham County, as well as several local Baptist congregations.

Brannon will be at the church each Sunday morning and evening. He also is pastor of Wentworth Baptist Church. He is a native of Winston-Salem and former pastor was at Mount Carmel Baptist and United Progressive Community churches. He is a graduate of Piedmont Bible College and did further study at Livingstone College in Salisbury.

Services are being held at 7:30 p.m. daily this week at the church. The Rev. R. L. Anderson was in charge Monday, Tuesday's service was conducted by the Rev. W. C. Hay and members of Galilee Baptist Church, along with the members of the Ministers Conference, of which the Rev. S. W. Mack is president.

The Rev. Donald Stowe is scheduled to lead the services today. With him will be members of the Second Calvary Baptist Church where he is pastor.

The Rev. S. E. Tyndall and members of Friendship Baptist Church will conduct the service Thursday. The service Friday will be by the Rev. Quincy Caldwell and Rising Ebenezer Baptist Church.

Wilson Daily Times
Winston-Salem Journal
Norfolk, Va. Pilot
Woman's Day

The women of Canaan Baptist Church will hold their first annual Woman's Day celebration Sunday at the church, 1800 N. Liberty Street. The women will be in charge of the day’s activities.

Evangelist Louise Hawkins, associate minister at Kimberley Park Holy Church, will speak at the 11 a.m. worship. The church women will also be in charge of a service at 3 and 7 p.m.
Canaan Baptist Anniversary Celebrated

The Canaan Baptist Church celebrated thier pastor's 11th anniversary Aug. 22 at the church, located at 1800 Liberty St. Dr. W.E. Brannon is the founder and organizer of Canaan Baptist.

Dr. B.F. Daniels and the congregation of Union Baptist Church were the church’s special guests for the evening program.