Trevor Thomas To Perform At East Erwin Baptist

Trevor Thomas will be at East Erwin Baptist Church in Erwin Sunday at 6 p.m.

Mr. Thomas is not a preacher. And he's the first to tell you he can't carry a tune. Nevertheless, he stays busy at churches all over the country as much as any evangelist or gospel singer.

From Pastor Ferrell Faultless, a passionate preacher, to Pontius Pilate, actor Trevor Thomas creates characters that people can laugh at and learn from.

Mr. Thomas began performing in early childhood putting on plays and puppet shows for the neighborhood kids.

Voted most talented in his senior class, Mr. Thomas was cast in every play produced by his high-school drama department and in several productions at the University of South Florida in Tampa, where he earned a bachelor's degree in communications with a major in theatre.

He also acted outside of school, taking jobs in commercials, TV, film and local professional theatres. At one time, Mr. Thomas wanted to "make it big" as an actor; however, the Lord had different plans.

While still in high school, Mr. Thomas seriously concentrated on a career as an actor and entertainer. After making trips to church youth camps he then realized that Christian drama could be used for much more than Christmas and Easter Musicals. He saw it as a powerful tool for ministry and evangelism.

"Theatre is more popular than ever," Mr. Thomas says. "People are communicated to through the arts. If you're doing something interesting and visual people are captivated."

In 1991, at the age of 18, he began traveling and performing at churches and events. A year later, after much prayer and counseling, Mr. Thomas surrendered to the call of full-time ministry.

At each appearance that Mr. Thomas makes, he cleverly combines music, monologues, poems, sketches, and mime with humor and sincerity, which makes for an unforgettable worship experience for the believer and a picture of salvation for the lost.

"If a person doesn't know the Lord, if there's something we can do to point them toward Jesus, that's what we're all about," he says. "The shed blood of Jesus is the only hope for man's salvation."

Mr. Thomas makes approximately 180 appearances a year. He also conducts drama workshops and seminars at churches and national and state drama festivals where he teaches the basics of acting and directing.

"My dreams are fulfilled. As a working actor, I get to do all that I've ever wanted to do, all I've ever known how to do, and serve my Savior while doing it. I've got the greatest job in the world."

For more information, contact the church music director Mark Pleasant at (910) 897-4270.
East Erwin Names McCullough As Pastor

The Rev. Gary McCollough has been named pastor at East Erwin Baptist Church effective this Sunday.

The Rev. McCollough comes to Erwin from Pleasant Hill Christian Church in Benson, where he served for four years.

He received a bachelor of science degree from Campbell University and a master of divinity from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary.

He and his wife, Lynette, have two daughters, Melissa Diane and Sandra Lynn.

The congregation of East Erwin feels fortunate to have the McColloughs join them as pastor.
East Erwin Baptist Church Children and Youth will present the drama/musical "If Angels Were Mortal" by Candyce A. Petersen and directed by Mark Pleasant and Dona Guin. The program will be Sunday at 6 p.m.

"If Angels Were Mortal" is a light-hearted comedy of what might have occurred in heaven the days preceding Christ's birthday, if the celestial beings had human personalities and managed heaven like we mortals run our modern world.

The story begins when young Laurel's father is unexpectedly called back to his office two nights before Christmas. Deciding to wait up for him, Laurel, instead, falls asleep and dreams of heaven.

Here, at corporate headquarters, we meet Michael Archie Angel, the Lord's No. 1 "man," finalizing plans for the first Christmas. His team includes paradise's frugal accountant, Hal A. Leujah, and its sophisticated public relations director, Gloria. And then, there's slick Harold, the talent scout, busily promoting his not-so-talented clients: the Swinging Seraphim and Cherubim Cheerleaders.

Now imagine Michael's dilemma at this late date, when he learns that none of his team's elaborate plans are in line with what the scriptures fortell.
