Dear Mr. Smiley :

Since you were here, there has come to light a photostat of a broadside containing Cassius M. Clay's address "To my fellow-citizens of Fayette and the voters of the 8th Congressional District", dated, Lexington, Ky., August 2, 1843. It contains a statement about Samuel Brown's attack on him at Russell's Cave, Ky., August 1, 1843, and charges that there was a deliberate and pre-determined design to assassinate him.

If you are interested in obtaining a copy of this broadside, please let us know.

Very sincerely yours,

Mabel C. Weaks
