Dear David:

Thanks for your good letter of several days back; it was good to hear from you again. Last year I sold my farm, retired, moved to town and built a new house on land once owned by the Hon. Henry Clay, and in back of "Ashland". I still think your <sup>best</sup> book on "Cash" one of the books on Kentucky in my collection. I am sorry to hear it is now out of print. I can see you have not let much grass grow under your feet from the writings you have put out.

Always good to hear from you.

Regards -

"Squire" Coleman
