JOIN THE OFFICE OF CIVIC & COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT FOR A VIRTUAL SUMMER

We know that a lot has changed in the last few weeks, and that includes your summer plans. Are you now left trying to find an internship or research opportunity? Don't worry, we have you covered! Join us for the #OCCEVirtualSummer, with programming running throughout June and July.

Together with local nonprofits and community organizations, along with Wake Forest faculty, we're working to bring professional skill-building opportunities to you, wherever you may be.

Applications are now live for OCCE Virtual Summer Programs. Students will be accepted on a rolling basis, with the application closing on Monday, May 18, 2020, at 11:59 p.m.

EST. Apply to any program using the common app. Please see a breakdown of the individual programs below. Students may apply to more than one program, and rank their top-three choices within the application.

If you have any questions, please contact the OCEE via email.

#OCCEVIRTUALSUMMER OPPORTUNITIES

VIRTUAL SUMMER INTERNSHIPS

#WakeFromHome features virtual full- and part-time internships for WFU students at local nonprofits. Develop skills in communication, data analysis, partner development, market research, and project management. Paid and unpaid opportunities available.

SUMMER RESEARCH COLLABORATIVE

Help conduct civic research projects alongside WFU faculty, focused on the influence of COVID-19 in Winston-Salem and Forsyth County, from June 8-July 31. Findings will be shared in a research report in coordination with a local nonprofit.

COVID-19 ORAL HISTORY PROJECT

Develop and run a podcast! In partnership with the ZSR Library and MUSE Winston-Salem, work in teams to conduct oral history interviews, preserving the experiences of Winston-Salem residents during the COVID-19 pandemic. Interviews and podcasts will be archived in the ZSR digital library.

SUMMER LEARNING

Support the enrichment of Winston-Salem/Forsyth County students by developing a week-long curriculum and learning goals as a virtual camp counselor or Summer Activities Kit creator. Targeted for 3rd-8th graders, topics include STEM, food & nutrition, government & policy, medicine, debate, writing, and the arts.

DEACS DECIDE SUMMER FELLOWSHIP

Current and incoming WFU students can work together on project-based, nonpartisan civic engagement work for the upcoming election. Work collaboratively on voter education and political campaigns, as well as support nonpartisan organizations and Get Out The Vote efforts.

SOCIAL JUSTICE COLLABORATIVE

A co-curricular learning program for current and incoming WFU students committed to social justice, sustainable social change, and activism. Help develop strategies and creative problem-solving skills while building a community action project about various social justice topics.

ENGAGE WINSTON

Be a mentor to incoming WFU students, along with Winston-Salem/Forsyth County high school juniors and seniors. Develop project management, coaching, mentoring, and communication skills while helping participants with community engagement skills, civic identity, and learning about local Winston-Salem organizations.
