Calvary Homecoming Is October 30

Calvary Baptist Church will have homecoming services Sunday, Oct. 30, beginning with Sunday school at 9:45. Morning worship will be at 11 and dinner on the grounds will follow.

The Rev. J.P. Williams, pastor of West Whiteville Baptist Church and Williamson's Cross Roads Baptist Church, and a son of Calvary, will bring the morning message.

In addition to the regular services, the Rev. Odell Blanton of Supply, a former pastor of Calvary, will give a message of dedication, and a memorial for deceased members will be observed.

The church was organized July 8, 1951, and all former members and pastors and all friends of the church since its beginning are invited to attend Sunday's program.

The services will be held in the church educational plant, a 5,800-square-foot building on a four-acre site on the Prison Camp Road. The building was begun in late 1975 and was first used Aug. 14, 1977. The building is completed and is debt free and is being used as the sanctuary while plans are being drawn to begin work on a sanctuary.

The Rev. S.C. Davis, pastor, and the congregation invite the public to attend the services and share their blessings.
