Advance Baptist Calls New Pastor

Advance Baptist Church, Advance, N.C. has called as pastor the Rev. Kenneth E. Warner. He assumed his responsibilities on August 22.

He and his wife, Susan A. Warner, are natives of King, N.C. They have two daughters: Tracie Lynn and Julie Ann.

The Rev. Warner attended Gardner-Webb College where his major was in religious education and his minor in psychology. He also attended Campbell University majoring in religion.

Rev. Warner comes to Advance after serving pastorates for nine years in other areas of the state.

The church will hold their homecoming services this Sunday, September 12. Rev. Warner will bring the message during the morning worship service at 11:00 a.m.

There will be a fellowship meal following the services with a time of praise in song afterwards.

Rev. Warner and the congregation invite everyone to share with them in these services.
