

Maylon Kearney Leaving Duties At Grassy Creek

Franklin County Native to Serve
Field of Two Churches
Near South Boston

The Rev. Maylon Kearney has resigned as pastor of Grassy Creek Baptist Church and has accepted ~~pastoral~~ duties in a field of two churches in Virginia.

Kearney, who has been pastor of Grassy Creek for the past two and a half years, will serve as pastor of Grace and North Fork Baptist Churches outside South Boston, Va. A Franklin County native, he replaced the Rev. Robert Boone at Grassy Creek.

Mr. Kearney and his wife, Hazel, and their three younger daughters, Rhonda, 17, Sharon, 14, and Angela, 6, are to move next week to their new home.

Newman: ~~Observer-News-Enterprise~~
Newton: Observer-News-Enterprise
North Wilksboro: Journal-Patriot
Oxford Ledger

Pittsboro: Chatham Record
Plymouth: Roanoke Beacon

Flat River
JUL 4 1972