

PHILLIP J. SWANSON

Phillip J. Swanson Is Interim Pastor Of Oakwoods Church

The Rev. Phillip J. Swanson has been called as interim pastor of Oakwoods Baptist Church.

He received the call to the ministry two years ago under the influence of Pleasant Hill Baptist Church. He has been accepted at Southwestern Baptist Seminar as a first year ministry of divinity student. He is a senior, straight "A" history major at Gardner-Webb College at Boiling Springs.

Phil is the son of Mrs. Kenneth Swanson and the late Mr. Swanson of Jamestown, New York, and the son-in-law of Mrs. Margaret Cockerham and the late Joe Cockerham of Elkin. He is married to the former Cathy Jean Cockerham. Phil and Cathy have three children, Jodi, Christie and Kenneth.

Everyone is invited to attend the services of the church.

Newland: Avery Journal
Newton Observer & News-Enterprise
North Wilkesboro: Journal Patriot
Oxford Ledger
Pilot Mountain News
Pittsboro: Chatham Record
Plymouth: Roanoke Beacon
Raeford: News-Journal
Raleigh: Carolinian

*

MAR 9 1972

Brushy Mountain

Revival begins Sunday at Benham Baptist

BENHAM — The Rev. Phil Swanson will be guest speaker during revival services at Benham Baptist Church beginning Sunday and continuing through the following Sunday. He is pastor of Poplar Springs Baptist Church.

Rev. Mr. Swanson was ordained into the ministry in 1972 by Pleasant Hill Baptist Church. He is active in bus ministry and has held numerous revivals and crusades in North and South Carolina including radio and television ministry. He is a trustee of the Christian Action League of N.C. and led Wilkes County in the fight against liquor by the drink. He is currently director of the Committee on Drug Abuse for the Christians for a Better Community.

A native of Jamestown, N.Y., he is married to the former Cathy Cockerham. They have three children.

Mrs. Robbie Blackburn, music director at Benham, will be in charge of music.

REV. PHIL SWANSON
...leads revival...

tribune: Bladen Herald
Fairfield Progress
Fairmont: Times-Messenger
Farmville Enterprise
Forest City Courier-Sun

Stone
MAR 19 1975