

DAILY TIMES NEWS
BURLINGTON, N. C.
CIR 31,425

AUG 21 93

Brooks new minister at Roxboro church

Times-News

The Rev. Ronald H. Brooks of Burlington was installed as the new pastor of Mill Hill Baptist Church in Roxboro in a special ceremony on Aug. 15.

The Rev. George Brooks gave the installation sermon. The Rev. Cephus Lea gave the charge to the pastor and the Rev. William B. Foust gave the charge to the church. Special music was by the Mill Hill Gospel Choir and the Mount Zion Baptist Church Choir.

A native of Hillsborough, Brooks was former pastor of Martin's Chapel Baptist Church, where he served for 16 years. He serves as pastor of Zion Level Baptist Church in Semora and Hyco Zion Baptist Church in Roxboro.

Brooks attended Breadloaf Bible College in Burlington, Liberty Bible College in Lynchburg, Va., Hampton Divinity

Brooks

School, Shaw Divinity School and Piedmont Bible College in Greensboro. He received certification in clinical pastoral Education from Liberty Bible

College in Lynchburgh.

He serves as chaplain for Good Samaritans of Pleasant Grove Community and is a member of the ministerial Alliance of Orange County. He is a member of the Pleasant Grove Civitan Club and Alamance County Prison Reform Committee. He owns and operates Brooks Vending with locations in Burlington, Yanceyville and Reidsville.

Brooks is married to Mrs. Mamie L. Harris Brooks. They have one son.