

Rev. A.B. Jewett Named Pastor At Main Street Baptist Church

The Rev. Allen Bruce Jewett has been named pastor of Main Street Baptist Church. He will assume his duties July 15.

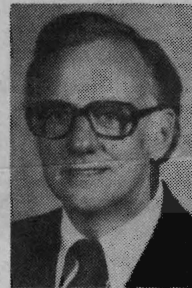

Jewett has been associate pastor and minister of education and administration at Hendersonville First Baptist Church for the past 6½ years. He directed the building of the $1-million multipurpose Family Life Center at First Baptist Church.

He is a native of Ohio, and holds a degree in history and English from Bryan College, Dayton, Tenn. He also studied at Northwestern Theological Seminary. While studying, he was minister of youth and music in the Dayton (Tenn.) First Baptist Church, and associate pastor of First Baptist Church, Hamilton, Ohio.

He has also been associate pastor and minister of music, youth and education of three churches, Calvary Baptist, Bradenton, Fla., Columbus (Tenn.) First Baptist, and Azalea City Baptist, Valdosta, Ga.; pastor of Ogden Baptist Church, Dayton, Tenn.; and minister of music and youth, Lee Street Baptist Church, Valdosta.

Jewett and his wife, Shirley, live at 1615 Greenville Highway. They have six children, Dennis, minister of music at Arlington (Texas) First Baptist Church; Carolyn Hobbs, a teacher in Chattanooga; Douglas, who is doing graduate work at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville; Cathy, a senior at Bryan College; and Dale and Cheryl, who live at home.
