Pulpit to Pew

I was very surprised this past Sunday evening when Carol Gettys presented me with a cash gift on behalf of the entire church, and I want to say again from the depths of my heart "Thank You" to all of you fine people.

My studies at Gardner-Webb College, have been upon many occasions, a "hair pulling" event, but now that I have completed my work there, I look forward with great anticipation, to being more involved in our associational and community activities as well as being on our own church field with more time to get some things accomplished that I have wanted to, for some time.

As I begin my work here at Campfield in a "new way", I covet your prayers for myself and my family.

Remember -- You have been a part of my education and my life for the past two years. God has blessed me because of you and I pray that God will bless you and me as we continue to labor together in HIS vineyard and continue to grow here at Campfield in SPIRIT and in NUMBERS.

Your Pastor
in Christian Love,
Roby Linebarger

BUILD YOUR PASTOR

Build his spiritual power by praying for him. When you pray for your pastor, you pray for your church, your community and your family.

Build his reputation by speaking well of him. He will have weak and strong points and his influence will depend on which of them you stress.

Build his leadership by cooperating with him. For every great leader there must be some great followers.

Build his pulpit power by hearing him. Full pews challenge a man to prepare and deliver great sermons.

The greatest thing you can do for your pastor is to follow the Christ that he preaches, and embody his spirit.

Little Hands

Today a pair of little hands has drawn some art for me,
And I will hang it on the wall
for all the world to see;
Today a pair of growing
hands
has played a song for me,
And I will hold it in my heart—
a loving memory.
Today I know that I could search and never hope to find A finer treasure anywhere than this small hand in mine.

PRAY FOR REVIVAL!!

This week I am in revival services with the Hallifax Baptist Church in Hallifax, Virginia. I am anticipating a great time in the Lord Jesus Christ during this meeting. There have already been many decisions and I just praise the Lord for what is yet to come. Pray much for me and for that church, that great things will be done for the glory of God, that lost people will be saved, Christians people will get "on fire" for God, that backslidders will be brought back into fellowship and lives changed by the power of God.

Remember also to pray for the services and God's spokesman for Camp-field -- this Sunday.

Yours for Christ and precious souls,
Roby Linebarger

HAVE A GRIPE?

A Methodist church in Ohio issued gripe cards for all members who liked to gripe. Qualifications for the privilege are:

1. I attend all the services of my church...
2. I pray every day for my church and my pastor...
3. I volunteer for,---gladly accept, and enthusiastically carry out all jobs and offices I have in my church's programs...
4. I give at least a tithe of my income to (my) church...

Someone commented: "I don't know about Methodists, but most of us Baptists would say gripin' just ain't worth it on these terms!!!"

Come...bring a friend to...
