

REV. RICHARD NELSON

Revival Main St. Baptist Apr. 2-9

Revival services will begin next Sunday through the following Sunday night at the Main Street Baptist Church. Services will start each night at 7:30 P. M. and the Sunday morning services will start at 11:00 A. M.

Rev. Richard Nelson pastor of the First Baptist Church, Williamston, West Va. is to be the Evangelist. Reverend Nelson is a former resident of the Oak Ridge community and the Goodwill Community where he was pastor of the Goodwill Baptist Church before going to West Virginia. He attended Wake Forest College and the Southeastern Baptist Theology Seminary at Wake Forest, North Carolina. When he entered the ministry he was a member of the Union Grove Baptist Church on the Oak Ridge Road and attended the church's mission at Oak Ridge now called the Central Baptist Church.

Special music is planned for each service of the revival by Richard Harvey the Minister of Music. A nursery will be provided for children through three years of age.

The public is invited to hear this warm hearted Evangelist.
