Dr. Burroughs to speak Feb. 20-22 in Statesville

Ambassadors for Christ Crusade Ministries, Inc. presents Dr. Antonio Burroughs Conference on Wednesday, February 20, Thursday, February 21, and Friday, February 22, beginning each night at 7:00 p.m. at The Statesville Civic, located at 300 South Center Street, Statesville, North Carolina. Devotion, Worship and Praise will begin at 7:00 p.m. nightly and the Prophetic word coming forth by Dr. Burroughs.

Dr. Antonio Burroughs Sr. is the 28-year-old Founder and President of Ambassadors For Christ Crusade Ministries, Inc. and the Antonio Burroughs International Ministries, Inc. of Fayetteville, North Carolina. He has been in ministry since the age of 12. He has traveled the U.S. and abroad extensively the past 11 years as Prophet and Evangelist ministering in nearly ever major denominational body. According to a spokesperson for the Ambassadors for Christ Crusade Ministries, through the Apostolic and Prophetic Anointing that rests upon his life hundreds and literally thousands have been saved, healed, delivered and prospered. Worshippers are left in awe as he walks the isles ministering under a strong Prophetic mantle liken unto that of the late William Brandon. His Ministry is in great demand by both clergy and laity alike.

Dr. Antonio Burroughs is a member of the 5000+ body Lewis Chapel Missionary Baptist Church of Fayetteville where his Pastor is the Dr. John D. Fuller, President of the General Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. Dr. Burroughs received his Christian Education (fully-accredited) from the Blessed Hope Bible College of Tampa, Florida, a co-op of the Jacksonville Theological Seminary of Jacksonville, Florida. He earned a Doctorate of Divinity, a Masters in Christian Counseling Concentrating in Pastoral Counseling and a Bachelor of Christian Theology Concentrating in Theology. He now serves on the Board of Directors at Blessed Hope Bible College.

He is married to the former Miss Juan Tia Henry of Fayetteville, and they have five children: Andreyah, age 7, Antonio Jr., age 6, Armani, age 3, Amari, age 1, and Ahmayn (6 months).

Everyone is invited to attend this conference.
