WFU Man Takes Job At Stetson

Dr. H. Douglas Lee, director of university relations at Wake Forest University, has been appointed vice president for development at Stetson University in DeLand, Fla.

He will begin work there next week.

Lee has been at Wake Forest since 1973. He has directed corporate fund raising and fund raising for the university's Babcock Graduate School of Management.

He had a primary role in the successful completion of the first phase of a major capital campaign at Wake Forest and currently is coordinator for the second phase. The goal for the first phase was $10 million.

Lee was on the faculty and staff of Virginia Intermont College for three years before coming to Wake Forest.

He is a native of Danville, Va. He received a bachelor's degree in English from the University of Richmond and bachelor's and master's degrees from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. He received a doctorate from the University of Iowa.
