Mission program set in Seaboard

A6

SEABOARD — The Junior Missionary Department of Bethlehem Baptist Church here will sponsor its annual program Sunday at 3:30 p.m. at the church.

REV. BRUCE MITCHELL

The theme "I Came But Yet You Turned Me Away" will be presented in the form of a play by the junior missionaries. Soloist will be Miss Dorothy Bowden.

Guest speaker for the program will be Rev. Bruce Mitchell of Richmond, Va., the current pastor of Metropolitan Baptist Church in Petersburg, Va. He attended Virginia Union University, majoring in religion/philosophy with a minor in gerontology.

Accompanying Rev. Mitchell will be the David A. Goodwyn Memorial Youth Choir (formerly the Emily Tot Choir) and the Young Ladies Usher Board as well as members of Metropolitan Baptist church.

Elton R. Buffaloe, coordinator, will act as master of ceremonies. Finger refreshments will be served after the service.

Rev. Edward Fleming is pastor and Mrs. Corelius Goode is advisor.

The U.S. population has increased 17 percent in the last 15 years, but popcorn sales have almost doubled.

Willing Workers Club

Sponsors Program

SEABOARD — Group No. 2 of the Willing Workers' Club of Bethlehem Baptist Church presented its annual program last week.

The program was directed by Mrs. Zelia Brown of Pleasant Hill.

The main feature was a pageant entitled "A Profile of Negro Women of America." Mrs. Viola M. Faison and Mrs. Elizabeth A. Young were the readers, while 40 other women portrayed groups of women who have made outstanding contributions to their race and to their nation in the past and the present.

The ushers' choral group, with Mrs. Brown at the piano, furnished music for the occasion.

The officers of the group are President, Mrs. E. A. Young; Vice President, Mrs. Ruby Powell; Secretary, Mrs. V. M. Faison; Assistant Secretary, Mrs. Viola Vinson; Treasurer, Mrs. Zena Taylor.
