

J. A. NEWTON

Church Slates Revival Services

The Rev. J. A. Newton, pastor of Parkton Baptist Church, will conduct revival services at Lafayette Baptist Church on Hope Mills Rd. from March 28 through April 3.

Services will begin Sunday, April 28, at 9:30 a.m., and each night thereafter at 7:30 p.m.

The Rev. Mr. Newton is a native of Live Oak, Fla. He graduated from Southeastern Baptist Seminary in 1961 and spent six months in a chaplain internship program at the Arkansas Baptist Hospital in Little Rock.

Since 1962 he has been pastor of the Parkton church and both he and his wife Nancy are candidates for foreign missions service.

REV. JOE NEWTON, left, former pastor of Parkton Baptist Church was welcomed back home by the present Pastor Rev. Elma Joyner Saturday, as Mr. Newton arrived here from Nashville where he is on furlough from North Africa, where he and his family spent five years in the mission field. Mr. Newton appeared on the program at Youth Rally Saturday night, filled the pulpit Sunday morning and showed slides and talked on his work on the foreign fields Sunday night. His furlough has been extended an extra year for special training, so he hopes to make another visit here before returning to the mission field.
