FOR CHRIST PUPPET TEAM

Local churches to host area puppet team

^{750KS}
The Characters For Christ Puppet Team will be at Raleigh Road Baptist Church at 7 p.m. Sunday and Dexter Baptist Church at 7 p.m. Aug. 24.

The team uses colorful characters, such as cowgirl, race car driver, a super hero, and many other puppets to tell children as well as adults about Jesus Christ.

The public is invited to attend. For more information on the puppet team coming to your church, call the Rev. Eddie Nutt at 430-6221.

Evangelist to Speak at Dexter Baptist Church

The Rev. David McLaurin, a student at Campbell College and staff evangelist at the Piney Grove Baptist Church in Fuquay-Varina, will be guest speaker for the Dexter Baptist Church youth revival.

The revival is slated for Friday and Saturday at 7:30 p.m. with the Sunday morning service concluding the special youth emphasis.

Among special singing groups for the occasion will be the Stovall Youth Choir and baritone soloist Nat Burgess on Friday evening, the Dexter Youth Quartet and Youth Choir on Sunday morning.

A covered dish supper and fellowship is planned for 6 p.m. Saturday. A nursery will be provided for small children.

Rev. Harris To Conduct Services

Revival services are in progress at Dexter Baptist Church in Oxford. Services, which began Sunday, will continue through Friday each evening at 7:30.

The Rev. James P. Harris, evangelist of Salisbury, will be guest speaker at the services. Rev. Harris has served pastorates ranging from 50 to

REV. HARRIS

1,700 members during a 20-year period and has been a full-time evangelist for the past four years having conducted over 100 crusades from Alaska to the southern tip of California. He has also conducted revivals in other countries.

Harris, a graduate of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, Tex., has a master's degree from East Texas State University. He has also completed some work on a doctorate. Harris is the father of three children.

According to the pastor of the host church, the Rev. Neil Woodlief, the public is invited to attend the services.

NAME: Dexter Baptist Church

COUNTY: Granville

ADDRESS: Route 5, Box 91, Oxford, N. C. 27565

ASSOC.: Flat River

ORGANIZATION:

Dexter Baptist Church was constituted April 29, 1906 by a council called for that purpose from Enon, Stovall, and Hester Baptist Churches with R. H. Marsh as moderator. J. R. Pace, from Oxford, N. C., preached the organizational sermon. The church had 12 charter members from Island Creek and Stovall Baptist churches plus a few Methodists who found it inconvenient to reach a Methodist church. R. H. Marsh was elected as their first pastor. The church joined the Flat River Baptist Association in 1906, with a membership of 16.

Dexter Baptist Church

Oxford, North Carolina

A BRIEF HISTORY of DEXTER BAPTIST CHURCH

Dexter Baptist Church was organized April 29, 1906 under the leadership of Elder R.G. Marsh. At first, church services were held one Sunday a month. The church began with twelve charter members. They were: Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Green, Mr. and Mrs. S.A. Green, Mr. and Mrs. S.M. Green, Mr. and Mrs. E.J. Green, Mr. and Mrs. L.G. Williams, Robert Faucett and A.S. Green.

Dr. R.G. Marsh of Oxford became the first pastor in 1907 for a salary of $125.00 per year. S.A. Green became the first Sunday School Superintendent and E.J. Green the first deacon.

In the summer of 1906 Dexter was admitted into the fellowship of the Flat River Baptist Association. The first specific offering for foreign missions was taken in 1911 in the amount of $20.00.

Dexter has been served by fourteen pastors since 1906. They are: R.G. Marsh, 1906-1912; E.G. Usry, 1913-1936; Lowell Sodomani, 1937-1938; L.L. Morgan, 1938-1940; Lee Pridgen, 1941-1942; E.W. Greene, 1942-1948; Thaborn McSwain, 1948-1949; Ray Hodge, 1949-1951; W.J. Edwards, 1952-1956; Eldridge Vinson, 1956-1959; Jimmy Burnham, 1960-1962; Clyde Hampton, 1962-1966; Edward Yancey, 1966-1973; Robert Price, 1974-present.
