WALTERS DURHAM,

Treasurer, Baptist State Convention.

SKETCH OF REV. A. G. WILCOX.

This excellent brother was a native of Halifax County. He was a son of the late Elder Thomas Wilcox. His mother was Miss Mattha T. Alston, who first married Dr. Shell, and after his death she became the wife of Elder Thomas Wilcox. Brother A. G. Wilcox was born near Brinkleyville on the 19th day of April, 1845.

From his childhood he was religiously inclined, but, like many others, he hesitated to surrender himself to Christ. He was converted in 1864, while residing in Raleigh, and was baptized into the fellowship of the First Baptist Church of that city by Dr. Thomas H. Pritchard who was at that time pastor of the church.

After some years, he moved his membership to Bear Swamp, and became an active Christian worker. His first public service was at Mount Zion in 1876, where he led in prayer. He soon began to hold prayer meetings, and in August, 1879, he was ordained to the full work of the ministry by Bear Swamp Church, Harris Chapel Church having called for his ordination. The ordaining Presbytery consisted of Elders N. A. Purefoy, Vernon I. Anson, C. N. Donaldson, R. B. Collier and D. A. Glenn.

Mr. Wilcox, during his ministry, served the following churches as pastor; Harris Chapel, Turkey Branch, Reedy Creek, Fishing Creek, Enterprise, Quankie, Bethlehem, Antioch Roanoke Rapids, Spring Hope, Stanhope, Peach Tree, Samaria, Conocoanary, Red Bud, Wakefield, Robinsonville, Bear Swamp, Halifax, Sulphur, Springs, Tillery, and at several mission points. At several of these places new houses of worship were built while he was pastor, and at some other points the buildings were repaired and greatly improved.

The new buildings were at Wakefield, Red Bud, Fishing Creek, Turkey Branch, Bear Swamp, Quankie, Bethlehem and Roanoke Rapids. He began the building at Enterprise. He greatly improved the houses at Reedy Creek and Halifax, and made over the building at Antioch.

During his ministry, he held many evangelistic meetings, and baptized a large number of persons. He also married many couples, and was in great demand as the preacher on funeral occasions.

Mr. Wilcox was elected clerk of the Tar River Association for the first time in 1878 at Conocoanary. In 1881 he was again elected Clerk and Treasurer, and was re-elected at every subsequent session of the body. He served the association as clerk and Treasurer for forty-one years and for forty years he served consecutively, and held that office at the time of his death.

Soon after he commenced preaching, he was happily married to Miss Josephine Mason, of Northampton County, who survives him. To them were born seven children, five daughters and two sons. Four of the daughters and the oldest son are happily married. The youngest son and daughter are at home with their mother in this time of their grief. The tender relation between Brother and Sister Wilcox and their children was unique and beautiful.

Brother Wilcox was in feeble health, for many years, but he continued his work as pastor until the end. On the last Sunday in March, although unable to stand up, he filled his appointment at Turkey Branch, sitting in a chair, and delivered his last message to this church of his early love. On the 16th of April, 1921, he finished his earthly course, and was buried in the family burying ground near his residence at four o'clock Sunday afternoon, April the 17th. honor to the memory of this man of God, who had done so much for the saving of the people in the communities where he labored. The funeral services were conducted by Revs. J. W. Kincheloe of Rocky Mount, H. R. Miller of Littleton, and the pastor of the neighboring Methodist Church.

Brother Wilcox had many striking characteristics, chief among them were his love for the brethren, a burning passion for souls, untiring energy, profound humility, and unflinching faith in God. He is the last of the preachers who were leaders in the Tar River Association, when I came into it in 1885. They are gone, those noble men of God: Coppedge, Sledge, Cade, Duke, Hufham, and now Wilcox. Some one recently remarked in the presence of Brother Ezra Bowers: "Brother Wilcox will be greatly missed." "You are mistaken," replied Brother Bowers, "most of those who would miss him passed over before him."

There are many things I would like to say about this dear brother. He has done a noble work and has thus built to himself a monument more enduring than bronze or marble; for the work that he has done will abide forever.

MILLERS FALLS
WILCOX MEMORIAL SERVICE
OLD DEERFIELD BOND

The friends of the lamented Rev. A. G. Wilcox are planning to hold a memorial service for him in the auditorium of the school building in the town of halifax on Friday, August 1. The exercises will begin at 10:30 in the morning with a memorial address by Dr. W. R. Cullom of Wake Forest. Rev. S. L. Blanton, of Louisburg, will preach a memorial sermon, and a number of friends will speak briefly of what Mr. Wilcox meant to them personally and to their respective churches and communities. These friends will take their lunch with them and go prepared for an all-day service. It is hoped to accomplish two things in this service: (1) honor the memory of a good and faithful servant of the King; (2) emphasize some of the things for which he stood in the hope that the purpose may be born in many hearts to reproduce and perpetuate in a worthy manner some of these things which are so much needed today.

A. G. WILCOX

It is with deep regret, and yet with submission to God's will, that we record the death during this associational year, of Bro. A. G. Wilcox of Brinkleyville. For many years Bro. Wilcox served churches in this and the Tar River Association, and of the latter Association he was the faithful and honored Clerk for more than thirty-five years. Seemingly frail in body, but strong and consecrated in heart, Bro. Wilcox never spared himself in the discharge of his duties as a pastor and preacher of the gospel. He loved to preach and was a good preacher. His disposition was bright, sympathetic and affectionate. Wherever he went he radiated sunshine and good cheer, he entered truly both in the joys and sorrows of his people, and he had for his fellow-ministers the highest esteem and affection. His long life was one of love, faithfulness and unselfish service. He loved his Lord and Saviour, His people and His Kingdom, and he has heard the blessed words: "Well done, good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

his duty to preach the gospel. Realizing the need for preparation he entered Wakefield School at the age of twenty-one. Later he continued his studies at Stanhope Academy in Nash County where Rev. A.A. Pippen was principal. In 1892 at the age of 28 Hocutt entered Wake Forest College where he remained for two years. He intended to complete the course but his health failed and he was compelled to leave college.

He settled in Nash County in 1894 and began teaching. In a very short time a group of churches called him to the pastorate and he was ordained at the Stanhope Baptist Church in Nash County. The Presbytery that examined him was composed of Rev. W.C. Nowell, Rev. A.A. Pippen and the Deacons of the Stanhope Church. The year following he was fully occupied in preaching the gospel. At one time or another he was pastor of every Baptist Church in Nash County except four. He was pastor at Samaria for eleven years, Ephesus for fifteen, Elm Grove for eighteen and Spring Hope for four. While in Spring Hope the membership and contributions of the local church more than doubled.

Rev. Hocutt married twice. First, he married Miss Ida Harper of Stanhope. They had seven children. After Mrs. Ida's death he married Miss Ida Hilliard of Middlesex. Rev. Hocutt was an ardent advocate of missions and of education.

Albert G. Willcox, 1902-1905

Albert G. Willcox was a native of Halifax County, N.C., the son of Elder Thomas Willcox and Martha T. Alston Willcox. He was born near Brinkleyville on April 19, 1845. At the age of nineteen, Albert Willcox was converted and ordained in 1879. Rev. Willcox served as clerk of the Tar River Association for forty-one years. He had a heated passion for souls. His energy was untiring, his humility profound, and his faith in God unfaltering. He preached plain, logical, gospel truths. He was a small man, being a little over five feet tall, weighed 125 pounds, had a thin voice, but a radiant personality. He was very well liked in the Spring Hope community. At what point he married Miss Josephine Mason of Northampton County is not known. They had three daughters, one of whom married a Spring Hope young man. Mary Willcox and Clement Richardson were married and lived in Spring Hope on Bunn Lane. Mary and Clement had no children.

Rev. Willcox died on April 16, 1921.
