People, places and events

NORMAN B. HARRIS recently began his pastorate at Eutaw Heights church in Fayetteville. Along with other North Carolina pastorates, he has served on various committees on the state and associational level.

Harris and his wife, Sarah, have three children: Brian, Beverly and Blair.

J. KENNETH STALLS has been called as the new Director of Missions for the Little River association. He succeeds I. B. Laughrun, who passed away a few months ago.

Stalls

A native of Williamston, Stalls is a graduate of Gardner-Webb College and Southeastern seminary.

He was ordained by the Union Chapel church in Zebulon and has been serving as senior pastor of Warwick church, Newport News, Va., since 1982.

Stalls and his wife, Joan, have one son, Jonathan, who is a student at the University of Virginia. The Stalls will make their new home in Lillington.

ARTHUR H. HOTTEL is serving as interim pastor of Sunset Forest church, Gastonia.

BILL ARCHER, music and youth minister at Franklin Heights church, Cabarrus association, has been called to Parkwood church in Anadale, Va.

DAVE PIERCEALL has begun his duties as minister of music at Grace church in Charlotte.

D. HOKE COON JR., retired from First church, Lexington, after 27 years as pastor. He is now available for supply and interim service.

Since 1952, Coon has served Salisbury First church as associate and interim pastor, and pastor at Southern Pines and Forest City First churches.

In the Baptist State Convention, he has served as a director of the Biblical Recorder, a trustee of Mars Hill College and on the Board of Advisors for Campbell University, a member of the General Board and its Executive Committee and a trustee of the Baptist Hospital. He received the Distinguished Alumnus Award from the School of Pastoral Care, Winston-Salem.

He and Mrs. Coon will continue to reside in Lexington.

VIVIAN KRAINES, Durham resident and professor of mathematics and computer science at Meredith College, Raleigh, has received a $38,236 grant from the National Science Foundation. The grant will fund a workshop for educators on the use of microcomputers to enhance mathematics education. The workshop will be held in the Meredith Computer Center in July 1989. For more information, call (919) 829-8455.

CATHERINE ALLEN has resigned as minister of Childhood Development and director of "Land of the Little People" at Durham Memorial church, Yates association. After four years in this field, she plans to seek a new career to more fully use her seminary training.
