

Rev. Blackwood New Pastor At Pisgah Forest Baptist

The Pisgah Forest Baptist Church has called as its pastor the Rev. Wayne Howard Blackwood. He received his B.A. Degree from Mars Hill College in 1969 and graduated from the New Orleans Baptist Seminary this past December with a Master of Theology Degree.

He was licensed and ordained at the Oakland Baptist Church in Lowell. During 1967 and 1968, Rev. Blackwood served as interim pastor of the Cumberland Avenue Baptist Church in Asheville.

He has also been pastor of the Flag Pond Baptist Church in Flagpond, Tennessee, and the Calvary Baptist Church, in Tylertown, Mississippi. Before his call to the ministry, Rev. Blackwood was a barber. He also served three years in the Marine Corps.

Rev. Blackwood is a native of Gaffney, South Carolina. He and his wife, Mary Alice have three children, John Scott, age 10, Donna Lynn, age 7, and Angela Christine, age 2.
