and DERALLE and NIKIAJHA

Mt. Olive Baptist has new minister

LITTLETON — Rev. Timothy Edwards will preach his first sermon as pastor of Mt. Olive Baptist Church here this Sunday at 11:30 a.m.

A native of Jackson, Rev. Edwards is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Lawrence (Mable) Edwards of Jackson, and a graduate of Gumberry High School. He continued his studies at Shaw University in Raleigh.

He also serves as pastor of Second Baptist Church in Macon; Forks Chapel Baptist Church in Inez; and Roanoke Chapel Baptist Church in Littleton. He is also a former pastor of Meherrin Baptist Church in White Plains, Va.

Rev. Edwards resides on Lee Lane in Roanoke Rapids with his wife, Sylvia, son Deralle, and daughter Nikiajha.

Praise services for the Sunday worship will begin at 11:15 a.m., with the Missionary Circle in charge. The Junior Choir will provide special music and the Young Adult Ushers will serve.

Mrs. Vivian M. Johnson of the Lebanon A.M.E. Church will conduct the youth session.

Others participating in the service are LaWanda Faulcon, W. R. Price, Willie Arrington, and Gwendolyn C. Newell.
