Wake Forest Baptist Church

Winston-Salem, North Carolina

Volume XVI - December 20, 1973 - No. 47

The Church staff wishes for you — a most joyous Christmas & a Productive New Year!

CHRISTMAS EVE SERVICE

The traditional Christmas Eve service of worship will be in Davis Chapel at 5:45 p.m. It will be a service of carol singing and prayer.

Also, as part of the worship, there will be a Covenant Service for the parents of Henry Tyree McIntosh and Ellen Scott McIntosh, Kenneth Andrew Wood and Harriet Elizabeth Wood.

A nursery will be provided.

HOLIDAY SCHEDULE

The extended session and children's church for grades 1-6 is cancelled until January 6. Extended activities for preschool children will continue uninterrupted.

Sunday night church training activities will resume on January 6.

The Church Office will operate on a limited schedule on December 24. The office will be closed on December 25 and 26. In emergency, the ministers may be contacted at home on these two days.

REMINDER ABOUT PLEDGES

Some people who have pledged in the past have not pledged this year. The Diaconate Report in last week's Newsletter notes the importance of your pledge. The mission and ministry of the church is dependent upon your commitment in stewardship. Pledges should be returned to the church office as soon as possible.

OFFERING ENVELOPES FOR 1974

Offering envelopes were mailed last week to all families in the church. If you have not received your envelopes please call the Church Office.

Any person not receiving envelopes may request them by notifying the office.

Inquiry was made as to why the envelopes were sent through the mail to all members. It costs the church less this way, as the non-profit status can be used with the greater weight. If any member is concerned about church budget and costs, please talk directly to a Deacon or staff member.

HIGH SCHOOL BASKETBALL

Any boys in the church, in grades 9-12 interested in basketball should contact Mac McIntosh (768 4734) or Bob Bailey (724 6122).

BIBLICAL RECORDER SUBSCRIPTIONS

The Biblical Recorder is the official journal of the N.C. State Baptist Convention and serves as a continuing way for Baptists to keep informed. The church sends the Recorder to every family which requests this magazine.

Names will not automatically be kept on the mailing list. If you wish to receive this magazine in 1974, please call the church office by Jan. 15.

FAMILY CLUSTER

The Family Cluster will resume in February and continue through Palm Sunday. Families interested in participating in this intergenerational education and family enrichment should contact Bob Bailey.

The Family Cluster will be broadened to allow older preschoolers. A day long session is planned for February 2. Sunday evening sessions will begin on February 10. Activities will revolve around the theme of Lent.

RETREAT TOWARD HOME

Retreat may imply a place of seclusion or it may be the only viable alternative when a strategy fails. The strategy of about a dozen youth and counselors was to expect good weather at Camp Caraway-the scene of a weekend reatreat. A day of "Patient" waiting revealed even less appealing weather. By Sunday afternoon, the strategy of waiting was thoroughly disgraced and retreat became the return to Winston Salem.

Despite the less-than-lovely weather, the weekend was a time of understanding values, working together to solve problems, and preparing for Advent. Particularly meaningful was a time to present a gift to the Christ-Child. There was a prayer of worship, a poem of praise, a candle for the light of the world, a broken arrow, symbolizing brotherhoos and peace, an evergreen for eternal life, a holly sprig for life, and a log for strength and stability.

But perhaps the thing the youth liked most was - no school on Monday and a chance to catch up on lost sleep!

CARLYLE CLASS

All adults or students are invited to Davis Chapel Sunday at 10:00. Dr. William Angell will lead this class in the discussion of Baptists and the Ecumenical Movement.

Cause For CONCERN

Miss Louise MacMillan is a patient at Baptist Hospital.

Mrs. James Hayes, Sr. is critically ill in Baptist Hospital.

HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS'RETREAT: "College Dead Ahead" will be the theme of the High School Seniors' Retreat, Camp Caraway, Asheboro, January 25-27, 1974. The weekend meeting, designed for 12th grade students planning to attend college, will be most relevant to problems they will face.

For more information, please call the church office.

DIACONATE REPORT

Two main items were faced by the Diaconate at its meeting in December.

The first was a review of the pledge campaign for our 1974 budget. To date, 154 pledge cards have been received for a total amount of $60, 550.60. This means that approximately one third of our members have not pledged. Everyone is urged to get their pledges in. This is most important to the church if we are to meet our adopted budget for 1974.

The second item had to do with the program on Evangelism that was presented the Deacons at its November meeting. This suggested program of Mr. Carr's was adopted by the Diaconate. More on this plan will be forthcoming at a later date. Each church member will be given an opportunity to play a part in this most important plan that will have meaning for the church and its members.

CHRISTMAS EVE SERVICE

December 24 - at 5:45, there will be a service of worship in Davis Chapel. A nursery is provided.

BIBLICAL RECORDER SUBSCRIPTIONS

SPECIAL THANKS

Special appreciation goes to the children who put on the Christmas Pageant last Sunday. Opening night was a tribute to what patience and a lot of hope can accomplish. Those two virtues were expressed by Mrs. Quacky Staton, who wrote and directed the pageant. Special thanks to her for the tradition of the pageant and her diligent work - and to Mrs. Opal Weatherly and Mrs. Sue Hendricks who assisted her.

BAPTISTS AND THE ECUMENICAL MOVEMENT

Dr. William Angell will be leading the Carlyle Class in the discussion of this topic on Sunday, December 16.

All adults or students are invited to this class in Davis Chapel at 10:00 a.m.

HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS' RETREAT

"College Dead Ahead" will be the theme of the High School Seniors' Retreat, Camp Carawya, Asheboro, January 25-27, 1974.

The weekend meeting, designed for 12th grade students planning to attend college, will feature discussions on academic adjustments, social life, family relationships, and spiritual maturity and growth.

For more information contact either Davis Bowen, Youth Coordinator, or Kay Huggins, Campus Ministry Department, Baptist State Convention.

LOTTIE MOON CHRISTMAS OFFERING FOR FOREIGN MISSIONS

Mission support is more than prayer support. Nearly 40 million dollars is needed to support the more than 2500 missionaries in 75 countries, the translation and publication efforts, extensive medical work, and direct aid in crisis situations.

One half of this budget must come from the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering. The part each person in our church plays will be significant if we take seriously our call to mission.

'To you, the Convention-wide goal may represent a tremendous amount of money. To those of us who serve here, it represents new church buildings, houses for new missionaries, subsidies for African churches, which are not yet strong enough to support their pastors, a new water pump or generator for a remote station; literature and other materials for spreading the good news; vehicles and many other items which may sound mundane, but which are necessary for the operation of mission stations throughout the world.' LOTTIE MOON CHRISTMAS OFFERING

The Lottie Moon offering is an essential part of the mission outreach of Baptists. Approximately half of the budget of the Foreign Mission Board comes from this offering. Baker J. Cauthen executive secretary, Foreign Mission Board says: 'Nearly 1,000 items of an operating nature are provided by the offering for carrying on work on mission fields. To review the list is to get a comprehensive view of the whole approach to mission work ranging from direct evangelism, publications, medical work, schools and seminaries radio and tv efforts, agricultural ministries, and a great array of other services.

But that is not all! The Lottie Moon Christmas Offering provides funds for the construction of essential buildings on mission fields. Missionary residences have to be provided. Assistance to churches in acquiring buildings calls for a major outlay of resources. In some cities (in Japan or Hong Kong, for example), the cost of building sites is more expensive than in American cities, but a way has to be found to keep pressing forward with church development.

Schools, hospitals, publishing houses, and a host of other types of work have urgent needs which call for buildings. More than 3,500 students are enrolled in Baptist theological seminaries and women's training schools overseas. Because such a large portion of their ministry depends upon it, missionaries praise God when the good news of a victorious Lottie Moon Christmas Offering reaches them.

FAMILY NIGHT

The December Family Night will be this Sunday, December 9. The covered Dish meal will begin at 6:15 in Room 104. The program at 7:00 p.m. will be the annual Christmas pageant given by Children in grades 1-6. The pageant, "The Color of Christmas", will be presented in Wait Chapel.

Families and singles are asked to bring a meat or vegetable and a salad or dessert for the meal. Please bring an amount appropriate to the size of your family plus enough for a student guest.

THE COLOR OF CHRISTMAS

The Christmas pageant to be presented Sunday at 7:00 p.m. in Wait Chapel focuses on the colors of Christmas. Christmas is green for hope, optimism, youth; red for divine love, fortitude, courage; blue for truth, eternity, divine majesty; white for light, peace, joy; silver for nobility, purity, faith; gold for achievement, good life, spiritual richness. These colors are portrayed through youthful joy, "A Christmas Carol", an Advent wreath, and Christmas worship.

The pageant was written and is directed by Mrs. Quacky Staton, assisted by Mrs. Opal Weatherly. The children's choirs are directed by Mrs. Sue Hendricks.

PLEASE NOTE: The children in the pageant should be at the church at 5:30 p.m. Sunday to begin a final practice.

LOYALTY SUNDAY

Sunday is Loyalty Sunday, the day when pledge cards should be returned to the church. The budget for 1974 takes account of economic reality and the commitment of this church to a continuing mission and ministry. Your pledge stands as an important indication of your loyalty to the church and its mission.

To date, 114 pledge cards have been returned representing approximately half the family units in our church.

It is hoped that the pledge cards of the remaining members will be brought to the church by this Sunday. (They may be brought to the Church Office or placed in the offering Sunday) Additional cards will be placed on the table in Wingate.

CHRISTMAS VESPER SERVICE

The 35th annual Christmas Vesper Service will be presented by the Wake Forest University Music Department Sunday, December 9, at 4:00 p.m. in Wait Chapel. You are cordially invited to attend this traditional service.

WMU NEWS

The program is entitled "The Other Wise Man - And Lottie Moon." Please bring your Lottie Moon Christmas offering to the meeting. The luncheon will be a covered dish. Please bring a salad, vegetable, or dessert.

In observing the Week of Prayer for Foreign Missions, the WMU will conduct a PRAYER SERVICE on Friday, December 14, at 11:30 a.m. in Davis Chapel. It is hoped that as many women as possible will plan to attend.

LANNEAU GROUP will meet at the home of Marge Swanagan, 1845 Meadowbrook Drive, at 8:00 p.m. on December 11.

ROUND TABLE GROUP will meet with Elizabeth Drake, 1888 Faculty Drive, at 8:00 p.m. on December 11.

LOTTIE MOON CHRISTMAS OFFERING

The Lottie Moon Christmas Offering cannot be understood aside from the vast, undergirding prayer support out of which it grows. There is no way to measure the value of prayer experienced during the time of the Lottie Moon Offering. The Week of Prayer for Foreign Missions becomes a time of great spiritual blessing in the life of the churches. Concentrated study of the mission fields linked with earnest intercessory prayer to God comes to fruition in wider vision, deeper convictions and expanded liberality. Prayers raised to God during this time find their answers throughout the year and lead to continued praying as time passes.

Praise God for the Lottie Moon Offering and the Week of Prayer for Foreign Missions! It has brought blessing beyond compare.

Woman's Missionary Union seeks no glory for herself in the vast labor of love that she has done throughout the years; but in providing for Southern Baptists since 1888 the precious opportunity of this special love gift for foreign missions, she has done a glorious deed which brings incalculable blessings.

Surely, on this one hundredth anniversary of the appointment of Miss Lottie Moon and her arrival in China, all Southern Baptists will share with praise and thanksgiving in this love offering which bears her name.

BAPTISTS AND THE ECUMENICAL MOVEMENT

The Carlyle Class led by Dr. William Angell, will be discussing the above topic during the month of December. After an introduction to the history of the ecumenical movement, the class will direct its attention this Sunday to "Modern Expressions of Ecumenicism".

This class meets each Sunday at 10:00 in Davis Chapel. All adults or students are invited.

CAUSE FOR CONCERN

Mrs. James Hayes is a patient at Baptist Hospital, Room 565. Miss Louise MacMillan is a patient at Baptist Hospital.

REPORT FROM CHURCH CONFERENCE

The congregation approved the report of the nominating committee and elected those officers nominated by the committee. The report of the Committee on Committees was approved and the committees elected subject to replacement of two people who requested that they not serve on the committees to which they were nominated.

CHOIR NEWS

The Children's Choirs will sing in church on Sunday, December 16. They will combine with the Adult choir in presenting various special musical selections for the Christmas season.

The Adult Choir has special Friday rehearsals on December 7 and 14 at 7:00 p.m., in addition to the regular Wednesday nights. All church members with an interest in singing are cordially invited to join the choir.

The weekend meeting, designed for 12th grade students planning to attend college, will feature discussions on academic adjustments, social life, family relationships, and spiritual maturity and growth.

THANKSGIVING FEAST REVISITED

About 30 first through sixth graders descended on a meal of untraditional ham, applesauce, green beans, sprites and dessert last Sunday shortly after the worship hour. This was the climax of their Thanksgiving worship and meal. Tradition was not to be robbed completely. There was little difference between the way the children ate the first and this subsequent Thanksgiving feast!

Planned by the student assistants, all the children had a part in the worship and preparation. Grades 1 & 2 contributed a litany written in Church School and made table decorations for the meal. Third and fourth graders painted and displayed a mural. Grades 5 and 6 created and produced an original Thanksgiving play, which served as part of the worship. Teachers were guests at the meal.

A note that may be surprising to parents was the final meal preparation. Children set up tables and chairs, covered and set the table and served the food. No doubt the fact that this was a prerequisite to eating slightly increased their motivation. But even this does not explain the volunteer dishwashers, sweepers, etc., who responded to clean-up.

Thanks to those who helped with a time of thanksgiving and fun.

CAUSE FOR CONCERN

The congregation extends its Christian sympathy to Mrs. Ruth Snuggs at the death last Friday of her mother, Mrs. E.L. McKown, of Gaffney, South Carolina.

Miss Louise MacMillan is a patient at Baptist Hospital.

THANKSGIVING OFFERING

The Children's Homes depends upon the Thanksgiving offering for a significant portion of its support. There are envelopes for this offering on the table in Wingate Hall, or you may just label your check, in care of the church, to be sent to the Children's Homes.

REPORT FROM THE DIACONATE

At its November meeting the financial picture of the Church recieved major attention as did plans for pledging our 1974 budget.

Through the month of October, contributions amounted to $60, 697.57. During that same 10 months period, our budget requirements were $67,042.52. This means that if we are to pay all our bills and meet all budgeted items, we must catch up on our pledges between this date and the end of December. Each member is earnestly urged to do this.

To date, 35 families (48 individuals) have pledged $17,417 toward the 1973 budget. All are urged to get their pledge cards in as quickly as possible. Sunday, Dec. 9 has been set aside as Loyalty Sunday. All members who have not pledged by that date will be contacted on that afternoon and asked to pledge. Your pledge in the church office before that date will save the members of the Diaconate a great deal of work.

Dr. Carr gave the members of the Diaconate this month a statement regarding the Evangelism mission of the church. This statement is to be studied and will be fully discussed at the December meeting. This item should be considered as one of major importance and will be treated by the Deacons.

DIACONATE REPORT (Cont'd)

The Building and Grounds Committee is being asked to take part in the Wake Forest University self evaluation that is now going on. BUDGET - 1974

More than at any other time, during my ministry here, the congregation has had more to do with the preparation of the church budget for 1974. Although fewer members made suggestions than was wished, a good number did take advantage of opportunities by mail and in the Cluster Groups to make their preferences and priorities known.

It is therefore a representative budget. The financial demands upon families and individuals, as a result of inflation, prompted the Finance Committee to use discretion and caution in drawing up the budget, which was adopted by the church in conference on October 21, 1973. At the same time, it took care to assure that the primary missions of the church would be well served.

I commend the budget to each of you as members. It is well within the limits of our stewardship. Please respond soon to the letter which has been mailed to you so that we may pledge the budget fully and with reasonable dispatch.

- Warren Carr

ADDITIONAL ENVELOPES & PLEDGE CARDS

Members receiving the financial letter and pledge card will also receive offering envelopes. If children in your families want envelopes, please call the Church Office and we will send them a pledge card.

Loyalty Sunday is the second Sunday of December: December 9. This is the day when we hope all pledge cards will be returned. Those who have not returned their cards, by mail, to a member of the Diaconate or with the offering may be visited by a member of the Finance Committee or Diaconate. This person will answer questions you may still have about budget items.

CHURCH CONFERENCE REPORT

The church, in conference on Sunday, October 21 acted on several items. An addition to the church By Laws states the right of any member to "ask the Pastor or the Diaconate to convene a discussion meeting of church members to support, share, or to discuss with him or her any personal, doctrinal or moral problems of a Christian community." It was pointed out the the By Law allows a channel for influence of the church's concern expressed in the budget for missions.

The Sunday School teachers for 1973-74 were elected. Also elected were six deacons to four year terms and one to the final year of the unexpired term of Dr. John Earle. They are:

Mrs. Mamie Collins	Mr. Robert Neel
Dr. Jerry Hall	Dr. Ben Seelbinder
Mr. Paul Wilson	Mr. Larry
Dr. Ed Hendricks	Harrinton - final year of unexpired term.

The proposed budget for 1974 was approved with one amendment. The amount of $50 was restored for the American Bible Society.

CONVENTION MESSENGERS

Persons who would like to attend the Baptist State Convention as one of seven official representatives of our church should call the Church Office. The convention meets November 12-14 in Greensboro.

A CHRISTIAN WITNESS TO A TROUBLED NATION

Some of you scold me a bit when I fail to advise the congregation of my intention to preach a "relevant and timely sermon on a current problem." Although, I believe that last Sunday's sermon on prayer may have treated as timely and as important a subject as possible, I am advising you that Sunday's sermon, October 28, will address the nation's turmoil.

- Warren Carr

ANGKULUNG CHOIR

The Angkulung Choir will perform this Sunday during the worship service. The choir is made up of Junior and Senior High School youth and is directed by Miss Dawn Perdue and Mrs. Sue Hendricks.

Angkulungs are percussion instruments of reed and wood, and are native to Indonesia. The instruments came to us by way of Thailand where the first set was pitched to the Western diatonic scale. There are about a dozen sets in the U.S.

The Angkulungs will be left in the choir following the service Sunday. Interested persons are invited to come and play one of these fascinating instruments.

The Angkulung Choir is open to Junior and Senior High School students in the church and the larger Wake Forest community.

The choir played Tuesday evening at a dinner for the Indo-China Mobile Education Project which was visiting the W.F. campus. On November 4, the choir will play at a local church, where Bob Hill is Music Director.

APPRECIATION TO YOUTH GROUP

The middle high youth have received an official letter of thanks from Bob Hicks of the Forsyth Advancement Center. A portion of the text appears below:

'Please allow me . . . on behalf of the inmates and staff of the Forsyth Advancement Center to thank the youth group for the beautiful curtains. This gift could not have come at a more appropriate time (since) we are in the process of painting the dormitory.

'Let me express my personal gratitude for your Christian endeavor in helping us to reach the total man. We are grateful for groups of concerned citizens like yourselves and appreciate your efforts.'

. . . . . AND ANOTHER . . .

A letter of appreciation came from the Crisis Control Center saying:

' We received word Monday that your church has voted to allocate $900 for the Crisis Control Center in 1974.

'We are elated!

'Please express our appreciation to the people of your church.

' . . . We are thoroughly sold on the worth of our program here.'

BAPTIST WOMENS DAY OF PRAYER

On November 5 we will have the privilege of joining women on six continents as we encircle the globe with prayer. Think of the map of the world and think of the changing time zones. Our Baptist sisters will be praying before we rise in the morning and will be praying into the night while we sleep. Let us try to imagine the circumstances and conditions where they meet; their dress, their language, their singing, their places of worship . . . and above all, their faith.

CHURCH CONFERENCE REPORT

The church, in conference on Sunday, October 21 acted on several items. An addition to the church By Laws states the right of any member to "ask the Pastor or the Diaconate to convene a discussion meeting of church members to support, share, or to discuss with him or her any personal, doctrinal or moral problems of a Christian community." It was pointed out the the By Law allows a channel for influence of the church's concern expressed in the budget for missions.

The Sunday School teachers for 1973-74 were elected. Also elected were six deacons to four year terms and one to the final year of the unexpired term of Dr. John Earle. They are:

Mrs. Mamie Collins	Mr. Robert Neel
Dr. Jerry Hall	Dr. Ben Seelbinder
Mr. Paul Wilson	Mr. Larry
Dr. Ed Hendricks	Harrinton - final year of unexpired term.

The proposed budget for 1974 was approved with one amendment. The amount of $50 was restored for the American Bible Society.

Dr. William Angell then pointed out the dangers of the proposed amendment to the constitution of the Baptist State Convention regarding unimmersed members of churches, boards, commissions and agencies. See Biblical Recorder Oct. 18. A brief discussion ensued.

CONVENTION MESSENGERS

Persons who would like to attend the Baptist State Convention as one of seven official representatives of our church should call the Church Office. The convention meets November 12-14 in Greensboro.

A CHRISTIAN WITNESS TO A TROUBLED NATION

Some of you scold me a bit when I fail to advise the congregation of my intention to preach a "relevant and timely sermon on a current problem." Although, I believe that last Sunday's sermon on prayer may have treated as timely and as important a subject as possible, I am advising you that Sunday's sermon, October 28, will address the nation's turmoil.

- Warren Carr

ANGKULUNG CHOIR

The Angkulung Choir will perform this Sunday during the worship service. The choir is made up of Junior and Senior High School youth and is directed by Miss Dawn Perdue and Mrs. Sue Hendricks.

Angkulungs are percussion instruments of reed and wood, and are native to Indonesia. The instruments came to us by way of Thailand where the first set was pitched to the Western diatonic scale. There are about a dozen sets in the U.S.

The Angkulungs will be left in the choir following the service Sunday. Interested persons are invited to come and play one of these fascinating instruments.

The Angkulung Choir is open to Junior and Senior High School students in the church and the larger Wake Forest community.

The choir played Tuesday evening at a dinner for the Indo-China Mobile Education Project which was visiting the W.F. campus. On November 4, the choir will play at a local church, where Bob Hill is Music Director.

They were very active in their church in Roanoke Rapids. Ed was a deacon and served a term as chairman. Betty sang in the choir. Both taught in Sunday School and worked with the youth.

Each of their children is in a different school, making five schools to which they have allegiance (in addition to Wake Forest). Eddie is a junior at East Carolina where he derives most satisfaction from his work at the campus radio station. He also is a golfer and enjoys basketball. Ricky is a junior at NC State with an ambitious interest in design and sculpture. He enjoys a number of water sports. Ken loves all sports and is presently on the football team at Reynolds. MESSAGE FROM MISSION ACTION COMMITTEE

Have you ever wondered about, or asked what our WMU does, aside from a continuing interest in World missions? Well, we are glad to tell you briefly about some of the opportunities for service in our church community, on the campus, and in the larger community, which have challenged us.

The above goals for service have already been enthusiastically accepted and entered into by our circle groups. Some have "adopted" a student or are doing volunteer work with one of the agencies listed. The Crisis Control Center and ABCD have received financial help from our church. They need our personal interest and volunteer service.

It is our great hope that many people in the Church will join us in some of these endeavors. We need your ideas and your help.

ANGKALUNG CHOIR PERFORMS

The Angkalung Choir played at the Reed's Baptist Church last Sunday evening. Nine young people and directors Miss Dawn Perdue and Mrs. Sue Hendricks, composed the choir. The choir played three songs and the response of the congregation affirmed that they played well.

The impression made upon the people by the choir was balanced by the impression made on our youth by the church and its more informal worship. Neither did they fail to note the refreshments served at the conclusion of the service!

Some of the more colorful events of the trip were the conversations of the youth while riding there and back. However, some things are better not repeated, so the content of their conversations will be left to the vivid imaginations of parents and peers!

THANKSGIVING OFFERING

Baptist Children's Homes of N.C. depends upon the Thanksgiving offering to help support its ministry to children throughout N.C. The work of the Homes has been expanded to an effort to strengthen family life as well as meeting direct needs of children.

Brochures and offering envelopes will be enclosed in next week's Newsletter.

Some of the children in grades 5-6 are preparing a play to emphasize the meaning of this holiday. Other children will help with additional preparation and will share in worship. The student education assistants are coordinationg this program and worship.

Like so many people in this area after last Saturday night, Grady is a football enthusiast. Having attended the University of South Carolina, he is expectantly awaiting the Wake-USC game. But his interest is not confined to college football. He reports that he is equally as interested in football at the end of a Sunday afternoon as at the beginning. He also enjoys hunting, fishing and swimming. The latter was frequently an activity this summer with sons Doug, 5, and Greg, 7.

We covenant with Grady, as he joins this community of faith, that we may together continue the Church's mission in the name of Jesus Christ.

OPPORTUNITY FOR MISSION OUTREACH

Between 24 and 31 percent of all North Carolinians are functually illiterate. These are people who cannot read well enough to fill out job applications, driver's license tests, or any other form. They cannot read their Bible, Sunday School quarterly, church newsletter, or the daily paper. Many do not attend church because of the fear of being asked to read aloud, and many live in the fear of losing their job or missing any advancement because of not being able to read.

In our Association you have an opportunity to help remedy this situation by being a literacy volunteer and helping a person to learn to read. Come join with us in a LITERACY WORKSHOP being offered in our Association:

Morning Classes - 9:00 a.m. to 12 noon
Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday
Evening Classes - 7:00 p.m. to 10:00
Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday
Place: Mineral Springs Baptist Church
Corner of Akron Dr. & Ogburn Ave.

The purpose of literacy missions is to teach a non-reader to read and primarily to read the Bible. Also teaching a non-reader provides an excellent opportunity to help a person to come to know Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord. After the class is concluded, each new literacy teacher can choose to teach his own student, or help with a school reading program, or be assigned a student.

Call the Church Office for further details if you are interested in this mission activity.

CRISIS CONTROL CENTER

The Crisis Control Center will have its fall Volunteer Meeting - Training Session on Wednesday, September 26, beginning at 8:30 a.m. at First Presbyterian Church. Featured will be Mahan Siler of the Dept. of Pastoral Care and Dorothy Campbell, a volunteer at the Center and veteran of several years in Christian Social Work.

The schedule allows flexibility for those who are late because of taking children to play schools and kindergartens. Babysitting service will be provided at the First Presbyterian Church for those who need this. Contact Mamie Collins (765 9639) for further details.

DIACONATE NOMINATIONS: Members of the congregation are invited to submit names of persons they would like nominated to the Diaconate. Please give your nomination to Dr. Greg Pritchard, Dr. David Smiley, or Mrs. Sally Gulley for consideration at the October Diaconate.

REPORT OF THE SEPTEMBER DIACONATE

Three items received major attention at the September meeting of the Diaconate:

1. The finances of the Church took a slight upswing in the months of July and August. This is not to say that we are in a good financial position by any means. If the rate of giving continues during the balance of 1973, our adopted budget can be met. All Church members are urged to keep their pledge giving current.

2. In order that all members of the Church community can be familiar with the financial picture of the Church, and will have the opportunity to contribute their ideas toward the adoption of next year's budget, the Deacons will be meeting during the next two weeks in cluster groups. At these meetings members of the Church will be given the opportunity to attend and to question and contribute any ideas that they may have that would bear on the adoption of next year's budget. A member of the finance committee will be present at each cluster meeting. Members of the church family are urged to come and to participate in these meetings.

3. The September 30th dinner meeting of the congregation was discussed thoroughly. Out of this discussion came a definite recommendation to the congregation from the Diaconate on the order of priorities for the Church for the future. It is hoped that all members will be present on September 30 to join in a discussion of these recommendations. These priorities include:

(a) Evangelism-membership
(b) Community
(c) Social action
(d) Stewardship

YOUTH GROUP PROJECT

Shortly over two years ago, a challenge was issued to the youth of our church by the Community Service Committee. On August 20, that challenge will be officially met and passed on to other Winston Salem youth. At the aldermanic meeting on that date, $320, one half of which was raised by the youth, will be presented to the Winston Salem Police Department Discretionary Fund. The fund provides money to meet emergency and contingency needs of Winston Salem residents and transients when other service agencies are closed or are unresponsive to a need. This marks the first time a youth group has raised money and presented it to this fund.

The Community Service Committee has challenged other youth groups to raise money for this fund with the promise to match one half of any amount up to $100. GUEST MINISTER

Ralph Wood, faculty member in the Department of Religion, will be our guest minister this Sunday. Ralph, his wife Suzanne, and son Kenneth have been members of our church community for shortly over one year. His sermon title is "The Odour of Sanctity".

Mr. Carr will return August 26.

FAMILY CLUSTER EDUCATION

An innovative family education program will be offered for a limited number of people this fall. The program, called Family Cluster Education, will be a ten week session on Sunday evenings beginning October 14. A meeting of those interested will be held September 9 at 6:45 in Room 110. This meeting will more fully interpret the purpose and content of family clusters.

Adults and children of varying ages will be able to participate, though not preschoolers. Single adults or couples with no children, as well as parents and children may participate. However, it is important that a decision to participate should be made as a family.

FAMILY CLUSTER EDUCATION (Cont'd)

The purpose of the family cluster is to offer theologically sound education in an intergenerational group, to stimulate nuclear family enrichment, and to encourage development of extended or expanded family support.

Dr. Mahan Siler from the Department of Pastoral Care will be a resource person.

Persons who are interested should contact Bob Bailey before the September 9 meeting.

RECEPTION FOR NEW STUDENTS

There will be a reception for new students Sunday, September 2 at 10:30 a.m. A second reception for returning students will be held the next Sunday. Adults will be needed to greet students in the narthex and introduce them to our church and to Winston Salem.

YOUTH GROUP PROJECT

Shortly over two years ago, a challenge was issued to the youth of our church by the Community Service Committee. At the aldermanic meeting on that date, $320, one half of which was raised by the youth, will be presented to the Winston Salem Police Department Discretionary Fund. The fund provides money to meet emergency and contingency needs of Winston Salem residents and transients when other service agencies are closed or are unresponsive to a need. This marks the first time a youth group has raised money and presented it to this fund.

The Community Service Committee has challenged other youth groups to raise money for this fund with the promise to match one half of any amount up to $100. ASSOCIATION V.B.S. AND PICNIC

Last week, several people from our church helped with a Bible School for teenagers in Kimberly Park and Pidmont Park. The Bible School was sponsored by the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association and directed by Miss Shirley Jolly.

Several of our teenagers: Sheila Gulley, Jo Reeves, Polly and Ellen Robinson, Helped during the week with the group. On Thursday night the Baptist Women sponsored and directed a picnic supper at Miller Park for the youth who had attended the second of a two week Bible School. About 30 youth enjoyed the supper.

On August 20, that challenge will be officially met and passed on to other Winston Salem youth. The fund provides money to meet emergency and contingency needs of Winston Salem residents and transients when other service agencies are closed or are unresponsive to a need.

Approximately 25 young people have been involved in the project. They raised money through a donut sale, car washes, and a bake sale. This marks the first time a youth group has raised money and presented it to this fund.

An older group of the youth assumed responsibility for another project directed at the other end of the law enforcement spectrum. Money was raised for material for 48 pairs of curtains for the Advancement Center on Cherry St. A number of women who stitched and pleated their way through the 48 pairs are very much aware of this project. The curtains have now been presented to the Advancement Center.

(MORE _ Next column)

The Community Service Committee has also challenged other youth groups to raise money for this fund with the promise to match one half of any amount up to $100. At the presentation, the youth will pass on this challenge and encourage all other youth to become involved in this effort in community service.

STATEMENT TO THE COMMITTEE OF 11

As people and pastor, we are prepared to do what we can, within the limits of reason and good conscience, to sustain and enhance our ties with the North Carolina Baptist State Convention. We are devoted to its people and its mission.

As people and pastor, we declare our loyalty to the Convention. We assert that the record will attest to that loyalty since the Wake Forest Baptist Church of Winston Salem was chartered.

Because of this loyalty and devotion, we met with the Committee of 11 and now seek to respond as a congregation to the request made by the Committee that we reconsider our membership policy. It is a debatable question whether we stand to lose more than we gain in responding to the Committee; We have already been labeled by the Committee and in the press as one of the "differing churches." In the eyes of most, this will mean we are an offending church, no matter what care is given to the choice of words. Our response may be deemed as self-incriminating. Furthermore, we run the risk of being excluded from a Christian and Baptist body which we love and honor and whose mission we share.

Each of you deserves grateful commendation for your willingness to serve as a member of this committee. You have been given the onerous task of persuading autonomous Baptist churches to change their fundamental beliefs about membership in order to participate in the life and work of the Convention. We find little or no evidence of any precedent for what you have been asked to do in the history of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention. We hope that the Committee will be our advocate to the Convention urging that the unity of commitment we share with other Baptist churches transcends the difference between the vast majority and the samll minority.

Having asked you to be our advocate, let us try to be specific in outlining our response. It will be comprised of three sections: doctrinal, Baptist beliefs, and nature of the North Carolina Baptist Convention.

Doctrinal: (1) Our church baptizes all responsible and accountable converts to Christ and His Church by immersion in water. (2) We judge "Believer's baptism," both as to doctrine and mode, to be a superior symbol to other forms of baptism. (3) However, as a consequence, we do not accept infant baptism as such, naked and alone. Christians other than those called Baptist who affirm that they have been initiated into the Church through baptism and confirmation, by virtue of their own affirmation of faith, are respected as being already members of the Body of Christ which is the Church. Therefore, the Body of Christ, His Church, is visible in many denominations, most of which agree that baptism by immersion is the preferred mode for a convert to the Christian faith. (4) Since baptism by immersion is the most meaningful symbol of initiation into a church, we do not think one already a convert should be initiated again. (5) We extend to a Christian from another Christian body the right hand of fellowship as a brother in Christ and welcome him as we welcome any Christian to the Lord's Table. We hope that his growth like that of all our members will be enhanced by our church's participation in the Baptist State Convention.

Baptist Beliefs: Unity with diversity is only one of the many ties which have, in the past and still do, bind us together as Baptists. When applied to individuals, this means the priesthood of all believers which is characteristic of people called Baptist. Our church, along with other Baptist churches agrees on congregational rule of the local church as one of our bonds of unity. We affirm together the symbolic significance of baptism and the Lord's Supper as ordinances of the local church. We believe that these bonds of unity cannot be reduced to a statement to be signed by messengers to the Convention because these bonds are based upon the freedom of local congregations to choose to cooperate in the mission of the Convention. We further believe that the over-riding strength of our distinctive ties should not be weakened by concern over a particular diversity in doctrinal practice.

Nature of the Convention: The Wake Forest Baptist Church believes that the Constitution of the Convention affirms a kind of unity which allows for diversity among Baptist churches. The purpose of the Convention as stated in Article II, "Shall be to promote missions, evangelism, education, social services, the distribution of the Bible and sound religious literature, and to cooperate with the work of the Southern Baptist Convention." In stating its purpose, the Convention defines itself as a religious enterprise, not as a church. Article III states: "While independent and sovereign in its own sphere, the Convention does not claim and will never attempt to exercise any authority over any other Baptist body, whether church, auxiliary organization, association, or Convention". In Article IV, the constitution specifies that the Convention shall be composed of messengers from cooperating churches and specifically identifies a cooperating church as "one that supports any object of the Convention and is sympathetic with its purpose and work." As illustrated by this constitution, one of the traits of Baptists has been resistance to doctrinal statements as necessary to assure that churches were sympathetic with the life and work of a Convention. This tradition has obviously served Baptists well, and we would deeply regret any undermining of this valuable tradition.

The pilgrimage of the Wake Forest Baptist Church regarding its membership policies is explained in the attached document describing the prayerful, deliberate process by which we arrived at our present policy. We also attach statements by church members testifying to the spiritual value of this policy to them.

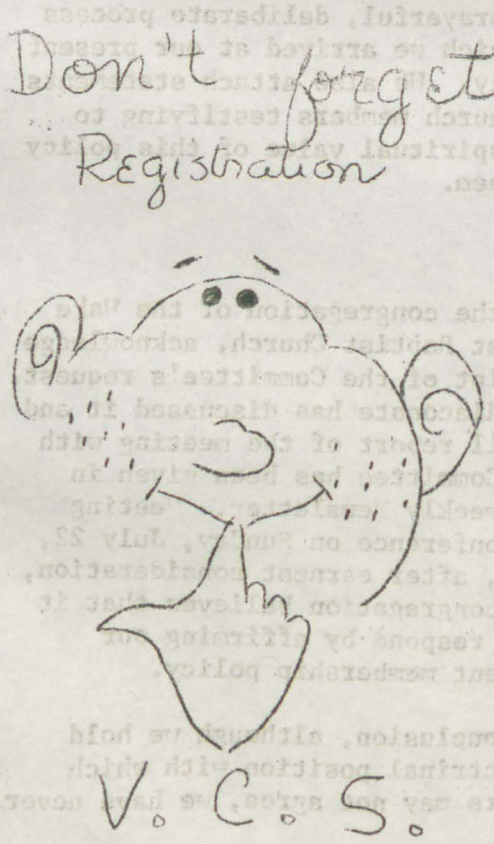

We, the congregation of the Wake Forest Baptist Church, acknowledge receipt of the Committee's request. The diaconate has discussed it and a full report of the meeting with the Committee has been given in our weekly Newsletter. Meeting in conference on Sunday, July 22, 1973, after earnest consideration, the congregation believes that it must respond by affirming our present membership policy.

In conclusion, although we hold a doctrinal position with which others may not agree, we have never entertained the thought of seeking to purge those who differ from us. We assume that all the churches have sought God's guidance in establishing their membership practices. It would be tragic if the fellowship of all Baptist congregations have shared should be broken over an issue which we, as churches, have not discussed one with another. Ours has been a process of prayer, diligent study of the Bible, a search for sound doctrine, and a sincere effort to be faithful to Baptist history. That this kind of approach does not bring all congregations to the same conclusion may possibly be a sign of fallibility, but it certainly is a sign of the freedom and grace which God grants to all His people.

The foregoing statement was drawn up by a committee appointed by the Diaconate.

Members of this Membership Policy Committee include Ed Christman, Howell Smith, David Smiley and Reid Staton.

Nature of the Convention: The Wake Forest Baptist Church believes that the Constitution of the Convention affirms a kind of unity which allows for diversity among Baptist churches. The purpose of the Convention as stated in Article II, "Shall be to promote missions, evangelism, education, social services, the distribution of the Bible and sound religious literature, and to cooperate with the work of the Southern Baptist Convention." In stating its purpose, the Convention defines itself as a religious enterprise, not as a church. Article III states: "While independent and sovereign in its own sphere, the Convention does not claim and will never attempt to exercise any authority over any other Baptist body, whether church, auxiliary organization, association, or Convention". In Article IV, the constitution specifies that the Convention shall be composed of messengers from cooperating churches and specifically identifies a cooperating church as "one that supports any object of the Convention and is sympathetic with its purpose and work." As illustrated by this constitution, one of the traits of Baptists has been resistance to doctrinal statements as necessary to assure that churches were sympathetic with the life and work of a Convention. This tradition has obviously served Baptists well, and we would deeply regret any undermining of this valuable tradition.

The pilgrimage of the Wake Forest Baptist Church regarding its membership policies is explained in the attached document describing the prayerful, deliberate process by which we arrived at our present policy. We also attach statements by church members testifying to the spiritual value of this policy to them.

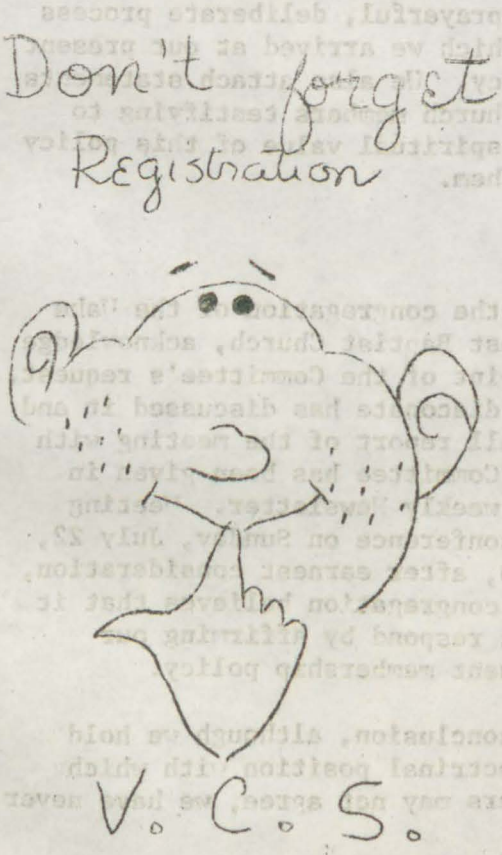

We, the congregation of the Wake Forest Baptist Church, acknowledge receipt of the Committee's request. The diaconate has discussed it and a full report of the meeting with the Committee has been given in our weekly Newsletter. Meeting in conference on Sunday, July 22, 1973, after earnest consideration, the congregation believes that it must respond by affirming our present membership policy.

In conclusion, although we hold a doctrinal position with which others may not agree, we have never entertained the thought of seeking to purge those who differ from us. We assume that all the churches have sought God's guidance in establishing their membership practices. It would be tragic if the fellowship of all Baptist congregations have shared should be broken over an issue which we, as churches, have not discussed one with another. Ours has been a process of prayer, diligent study of the Bible, a search for sound doctrine, and a sincere effort to be faithful to Baptist history. That this kind of approach does not bring all congregations to the same conclusion may possibly be a sign of fallibility, but it certainly is a sign of the freedom and grace which God grants to all His people.

The foregoing statement was drawn up by a committee appointed by the Diaconate.

Members of this Membership Policy Committee include Ed Christman, Howell Smith, David Smiley and Reid Staton.

STATEMENT TO THE COMMITTEE OF 11

As people and pastor, we are prepared to do what we can, within the limits of reason and good conscience, to sustain and enhance our ties with the North Carolina Baptist State Convention. We are devoted to its people and its mission.

As people and pastor, we declare our loyalty to the Convention. We assert that the record will attest to that loyalty since the Wake Forest Baptist Church of Winston Salem was chartered.

Because of this loyalty and devotion, we met with the Committee of 11 and now seek to respond as a congregation to the request made by the Committee that we reconsider our membership policy. It is a debatable question whether we stand to lose more than we gain in responding to the Committee; We have already been labeled by the Committee and in the press as one of the "differing churches." In the eyes of most, this will mean we are an offending church, no matter what care is given to the choice of words. Our response may be deemed as self-incriminating. Furthermore, we run the risk of being excluded from a Christian and Baptist body which we love and honor and whose mission we share.

Each of you deserves grateful commendation for your willingness to serve as a member of this committee. You have been given the onerous task of persuading autonomous Baptist churches to change their fundamental beliefs about membership in order to participate in the life and work of the Convention. We find little or no evidence of any precedent for what you have been asked to do in the history of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention. We hope that the Committee will be our advocate to the Convention urging that the unity of commitment we share with other Baptist churches transcends the difference between the vast majority and the samll minority.

Having asked you to be our advocate, let us try to be specific in outlining our response. It will be comprised of three sections: doctrinal, Baptist beliefs, and nature of the North Carolina Baptist Convention.

Doctrinal: (1) Our church baptizes all responsible and accountable converts to Christ and His Church by immersion in water. (2) We judge "Believer's baptism," both as to doctrine and mode, to be a superior symbol to other forms of baptism. (3) However, as a consequence, we do not accept infant baptism as such, naked and alone. Christians other than those called Baptist who affirm that they have been initiated into the Church through baptism and confirmation, by virtue of their own affirmation of faith, are respected as being already members of the Body of Christ which is the Church. Therefore, the Body of Christ, His Church, is visible in many denominations, most of which agree that baptism by immersion is the preferred mode for a convert to the Christian faith. (4) Since baptism by immersion is the most meaningful symbol of initiation into a church, we do not think one already a convert should be initiated again. (5) We extend to a Christian from another Christian body the right hand of fellowship as a brother in Christ and welcome him as we welcome any Christian to the Lord's Table. We hope that his growth like that of all our members will be enhanced by our church's participation in the Baptist State Convention.

Baptist Beliefs: Unity with diversity is only one of the many ties which have, in the past and still do, bind us together as Baptists. When applied to individuals, this means the priesthood of all believers which is characteristic of people called Baptist. Our church, along with other Baptist churches agrees on congregational rule of the local church as one of our bonds of unity. We affirm together the symbolic significance of baptism and the Lord's Supper as ordinances of the local church. We believe that these bonds of unity cannot be reduced to a statement to be signed by messengers to the Convention because these bonds are based upon the freedom of local congregations to choose to cooperate in the mission of the Convention. We further believe that the over-riding strength of our distinctive ties should not be weakened by concern over a particular diversity in doctrinal practice.

Nature of the Convention: The Wake Forest Baptist Church believes that the Constitution of the Convention affirms a kind of unity which allows for diversity among Baptist churches. The purpose of the Convention as stated in Article II, "Shall be to promote missions, evangelism, education, social services, the distribution of the Bible and sound religious literature, and to cooperate with the work of the Southern Baptist Convention." In stating its purpose, the Convention defines itself as a religious enterprise, not as a church. Article III states: "While independent and sovereign in its own sphere, the Convention does not claim and will never attempt to exercise any authority over any other Baptist body, whether church, auxiliary organization, association, or Convention". In Article IV, the constitution specifies that the Convention shall be composed of messengers from cooperating churches and specifically identifies a cooperating church as "one that supports any object of the Convention and is sympathetic with its purpose and work." As illustrated by this constitution, one of the traits of Baptists has been resistance to doctrinal statements as necessary to assure that churches were sympathetic with the life and work of a Convention. MEETING WITH THE COMMITTEE OF 11

A sizeable number of members of WFBC and three other churches met with the Committee of 11 in Greensboro on July 2 to discuss church membership policy. Each church presented its point of view. Ours was presented by four members of our church. Their statements are enclosed in the Newsletter. Following a thorough discussion, the Committee of 11 formally requested that the Wake Forest Baptist Church reconsider its membership policy with regard to non-immersed members.

The Diaconate met on July 8 and recommends that the church reaffirm the present membership policy. A church conference will be held immediately following the worship service on July 22 to act on this matter.

A pilot family cluster group will meet this fall for ten weeks. The cluster will be limited in number, but will involve people of varying ages, marital status, etc. The minimum age for children is six.

The purpose of the family cluster is to offer theologically sound education in an intergenerational group, to stimulate nuclear family enrichment, and to encourage development of extended, or expanded, family support. Mahan Siler, a new staff member at the School of Pastoral Care, will help head the cluster.

Anyone who is interested in becoming a part of this different concept in education or in obtaining more information, may contact Bob Bailey.

desire to avoid ecclesiological, scriptural, and doctrinal discussion or debate.

Prepared by Warren Carr, approved by ad hoc group prior to July 2. Presented by Reid Staton

OBSERVATIONS AND INTERPRETATION OF CHURCH MEMBERSHIP POLICY

We wish to make the following observations, with whatever interpretations may be indicated, in the light of our membership policy since 1966.

I. Three persons, who had been associate members up until November, 1966, declined full membership in the church when this became possible. Among other reasons, they declined because they did not wish to become Baptists in the fullest sense of the word. So far as they were concerned, the action by the church in November 1966 increased and enhanced the sectarian quality of the membership. So far as they were concerned, the Wake Forest Baptist Church was more Baptist rather than less so as a result of its open membership policy.

II. So far as is known, no member who has been received into the Wake Forest Baptist Church without being immersed, has returned to his or her former denomination. One, who was immersed by the Wake Forest Baptist Church, has returned to a former denomination.

III. A husband and wife, who had been members of Southern Baptist churches, became Lutherans upon moving to the Chicago area. After some time, they were transferred to Winston Salem. They joined the Wake Forest Baptist Church. While in Chicago, 3 sons were baptized as infants in the Lutheran church. None of these was confirmed before the family came to Winston Salem.

The parents inquired as to the eligibility of their sons for membership in the Wake Forest Baptist Church by virtue of their baptisms as infants. Since the 3 boys had not been confirmed and were not therefore members of a Christian church, they were not admissable to our congregation except through believer's baptism by immersion. Two of the three have become members through these means. A younger sister had also been baptized into the Wake Forest Baptist Church.

Our policy does not recognize infant baptism as such. Transfer from other denominations is possible only for believing members of the churches of those denominations.

IV. Between 25 and 30 children have been baptized into the Wake Forest Church, whose parents either or both have become members of this church without a second baptism, since November 1966. At no time have these parents requested infant baptism for theirs or endeavorèd in any way to disparage the high view of baptism by immersion to which the church is committed.

V. The Wake Forest Baptist Church has never at any time, tried to persuade another Baptist Church to adopt the membership policy of the Wake Forest Church.

VI. At the time the Wake Forest Church adopted its policy of open membership, in view of its own autonomy, it sought permission from no other Baptist church or association or convention. Its minister consulted with a number of other local Baptist ministers about the matter. Their response was either affirmative or tolerant. No strong negative replies were experienced.

Prepared by Warren Carr, approved by ad hoc committee, presented by Wes Hatfield July 2, 1973

- PERSONAL AFFIRMATIONS -

My husband and I joined Wake Forest Baptist Church in 1969. I joined by transfer of membership from Annandale Methodist Church, Annandale, Virginia, and my husband from another Baptist Church. We had strong feelings aobut being church people and were attracted to Wake forest by the sincerity and eloquence of its pastor. We felt too, a sense of community within this Body.

Since joining, I have felt a part of the life and mission of this church, finding expression initially as a teacher in Vacation Church School, then as leader of the Herring Circle, where our focus was on assisting financially and through the giving of food to the Food Bank, which our church began. Other projects included sewing for the School of Continuing Education. Additionally, we organized and compiled a membership and information booklet about Wake Forest Baptist Church.

Three years ago, I helped form the Young Adult's Sunday School Class, which has grown into two classes based on topics of interest and attracts members acrosss age lines.

This year, I was a co=leader of Mission Friends, where my preschooler and others were introduced through story and picture to the activities of Baptist Missionaries. Presently, I am considering working one day a week in the fall at the West End Community Nursery, which the Women of the Church support.

These activities have enabled me to feel a member of Wake Forest Baptist Church. Through them, I have been working for my church and the church as the Body of

Following are texts of statements presented by four members of the Wake Forest Baptist Church at the meeting with the Committee of 11 in Greensboro on July 2, 1973.

STATEMENT OF THE HISTORY OF OUR MEMBERSHIP POLICY

When the Wake Forest Baptist Church came to Winston Salem, North Carolina in 1956, after having been chartered on the old campus of Wake Forest College in that same year, it brought along a number of associate members. Almost without exception, these people were connected with the college by virtue of their place in administration, faculty, staff, or student body. The policy of accepting associate members when the church was on the old campus in Wake Forest North Carolina, had been one of long standing. Since there were so few churches in Wake Forest, many members of the college community whose denomination was not represented in this small town, would have been without a definitive church relationship had not the Wake Forest Church offered associate membership. The policy went unquestioned and unchallenged for many years.

This policy was questioned when the church requested permission to send messengers to the Pilot Mountain Association and become affiliated with that body. Wanting very much to be cooperative and unproblematic among its new Baptist associates, the church modified its policy on associate membership with this addendum: "Associate membership is intended for members of the Wake Forest College family, is intended to be temporary, and is subject to the recommendation or approval of the Membership Committee." This amendment was approved in September, 1957.

In addition to its desire for cooperative fellowship with the Baptists of Winston Salem and vicinity, the church probably assumed that the reasons for associate membership so evident and pressing at old Wake Forest, no longer pertained. A city the size of Winston Salem provides churches of almost every denomination.

This assumption did not prove to be the case. The emended policy, made in good faith, created more problems than it solved.

(1) It placed an onus on those associate members who had moved with the congregation to Winston Salem,
(2) A number of associate members had been received by the church in Winston Salem between the time of its beginning in 1956 and the amendment of 1957. They were confused as to their place in the church.
(3) It soon became evident that members of the college community, of denominations other than Baptist, wish to identify with the campus church as a part of their total commitment to Wake Forest College. This was especially true of administration, faculty, and staff who found themselves on a new campus in unfamiliar environment.

(4) Wake Forest alumni in Winston Salem gravitated to the Wake Forest Baptist Church and brought with them wives or husbands belonging to other communions.
(5) Other people, neither Wake Forest College connected nor Baptists, sought out the church because of its setting and emphases.

It should be added that the majority of people, who joined the church in those days, did so by letters of transfer from other Baptist churches or submitted to a second baptism into full membership.

On the other hand, a good number had availed themselves of associate membership with no intimation that it was to be temporary. They wished to be as fully related to the church as was possible under the existing policy. When the amendment was passed, it simply was not possible to ascribe anything other than second class status to associate memberships, particularly in the minds of those who were involved.

This situation persisted for about 8 years. During that agonizing span, the church realized, with increasing pain, that it either had to unchurch many of its finest, dearly loved, and highly respected Christian comrades, or adopt a policy which would lift the onus that had stigmatized them.

In November, 1965, a motion to offer full membership to those coming by transfer from Baptist and other Christian churches, and to grant all existing associate members full membership, was passed in a congregational meeting. About eight months of deliberation and prayer had ensued before the motion was brought to the floor. Since the margin for the affirmative vote was not a large majority, the action was rescinded and another year passed. Then, in November 1966, a similar motion passed with but three dissenting votes.

Although this brief resume has been confined to those practical considerations which transpired to bring the Wake Forest Baptist Church to its present position, such practical matters were by no means the chief reasons for bringing us to the place we now are. We believe that our position is in accord with Baptist history and ecclesiology, with a high view of evagelism and mission, with sound doctrine, with scripture, and with an ecumenical concern for the body of Christ. These profound convictions have not been presented to the Committee of 11 in accord with its stated of Christ.

Being immersed into the Body through a second baptism would not enhance my devotion to my church or enable me to feel more a part. As a child, I was baptized from the font after successfully completing the confirmation class. I remember the day of my baptism and its significance has grown with me.

Even though I realize the Baptist faith sees immersion as a higher way of dedicating one's life to Christ, my baptism is real and because of God's grace is effectual.

As a happy member of Wake Forest Baptist Church, I have never tried - or even thought - to impose my early memories on any person in our church.

I have not asked our pastor to baptize my one or four year old daughter. Even though our pastor offers a covenant service for new parents, I have not mentioned it because the service is for the parents = to encourage them to nurture the child through the church. I will always do this and have pledged so to myself and to God. However, if they were ten or twelve, I would want them to study and learn about baptism, to begin to think about its meaning, and to be baptized through immersion into Wake Forest Church.

In summary, I say that I am an integral part of the life and mission of Wake Forest Baptist Church. In terms of my priorities, my commitments, family and Wake Forest Baptist Church are first.

Prepared by Betty Griffith, member of Wake Forest Baptist Church, and presented to the Committee of 11.

In 1930, my parents enrolled me in the Cradle Roll of the Baptist church they attended. Nine years later, I was baptized in that church on Easter Sunday. Eight years after that, the pastor escorted me to Mercer University where, in addition to my studies, I was actively involved in BSU. Upon graduation, my wife and I were married in the Baptist church she attended, and we journeyed to Louisville for study at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. During the four years ther, I served as pastor of 2 different Baptist churches. The next 3 years, I was chaplain in a state mental hospital and an instructor in a nearby Baptist college. This latter experience persuaded me that my ministry lay in teaching. For 3 years, we were in New York City where I was an instructor at Union Seminary and a minister to children at the Riverside Church. Upon sompletion of my doctorate, I rejected other alternatives and accepted an appointment at Oklahoma Baptist University in the Religion Department. During my 6 year tenure there I was actively involved in the First Baptist Church, teaching Sunday School, working in Training Union conducting courses in teacher education which is my specialty, and attending worship twice on Sunday and Fellowship Supper and Prayer Meeting on Wednesday. My work in the field of Religious Education brought me into association with the S.S. Board in Nashville, the State Baptist Convention, and numerous churches. (By now it should be obvious that I am no neophyte in matters religious or Baptist). All my life Baptists had nurtured me in the Christian faith and practice - a faith which included living by the high principles of honesty, integrity, and love. Over the years, however, I had been puzzled as to why the people called Baptist who cling so fervently to the Word violate it so flagrantly in their behavior. I watched churches engage in sham and hypocrisy to win members on the one hand and to avoid the application of Christian ethics on the other. I sat in Convention after Convention and watched ministers pass resolutions and make nominations claiming the leadership of the Lord when the previous evening I had sat in hotel rooms and watched as these same resolutions and nominations were bargained over by the leaders of various factions. I listened to sermons for a word from the Lord and grace for my suffering spirit and heard only promotional schemes and superficial exposition. I was ready to leave the church. By the mid=60's I was heart sick and decided to seek appointment elsewhere. A position was open in the Department of Education of Wake Forest University. As a Georgian, I had known N.C. Baptists had a great heritage and were reputed to be genuine and sincere in the faith. Hopefully, my wife and I with our 5 children moved ahlfway across the country - seeking a new beginning in Winston Salem, Shortly after our arrival we were visited by several Baptist pastors. We cast our lot with Wake Forest Baptist Church. I warned Warren Carr about my feelings and about what I would no longer tolerate in a church - but such warning was unnecessary. I found in this church an authentic Christian Spirit. Soon, I found myself teaching S.S., training teachers, and serving as preacher to children's church. I was even elected deacon and served 4 years including one as Chairman. I found myself in the midst of a people concerned to feed the hungry, clothe the naked, and minister to those in prison. The only promotional scheme I've encountered has been a congregation-wide effort to discover the will of God for Wake Forest Baptist Church. Once again, I heard the Bible preached in depth and with conviction.

Now, I do not claim that the policy which has caused some to call us "differing" has created this Wake Forest Baptist Church spirit. I do claim that this spirit has led us to prayerfully include all men in Christ who seek fellowship within our body. We have no associate members, we have no "awaiting baptism" list - we are one in the Lord.

We do not invite to the Lord's Table, any that we would not welcome into the Fellowship.

My journey is over. . . I feel "at Home" again among the people called Baptist. Wake Forest Baptist Church has served a redemptive function in my life. My sincere hope is that, located in the heart of a University community as we are, where many are weary and seeking, this church can continue to bring life and joy to others -- and do it in the name of Baptists.

OBSERVATIONS AND INTERPRETATION OF CHURCH MEMBERSHIP POLICY

We wish to make the following observations, with whatever interpretations may be indicated, in the light of our membership policy since 1966.

I. Three persons, who had been associate members up until November, 1966, declined full membership in the church when this became possible. Among other reasons, they declined because they did not wish to become Baptists in the fullest sense of the word. So far as they were concerned, the action by the church in November 1966 increased and enhanced the sectarian quality of the membership. So far as they were concerned, the Wake Forest Baptist Church was more Baptist rather than less so as a result of its open membership policy.

II. So far as is known, no member who has been received into the Wake Forest Baptist Church without being immersed, has returned to his or her former denomination. One, who was immersed by the Wake Forest Baptist Church, has returned to a former denomination.

III. A husband and wife, who had been members of Southern Baptist churches, became Lutherans upon moving to the Chicago area. After some time, they were transferred to Winston Salem. They joined the Wake Forest Baptist Church. While in Chicago, 3 sons were baptized as infants in the Lutheran church. None of these was confirmed before the family came to Winston Salem.

The parents inquired as to the eligibility of their sons for membership in the Wake Forest Baptist Church by virtue of their baptisms as infants. Since the 3 boys had not been confirmed and were not therefore members of a Christian church, they were not admissable to our congregation except through believer's baptism by immersion. Two of the three have become members through these means. A younger sister had also been baptized into the Wake Forest Baptist Church.

Our policy does not recognize infant baptism as such. Transfer from other denominations is possible only for believing members of the churches of those denominations.

IV. Between 25 and 30 children have been baptized into the Wake Forest Church, whose parents either or both have become members of this church without a second baptism, since November 1966. At no time have these parents requested infant baptism for theirs or endeavorèd in any way to disparage the high view of baptism by immersion to which the church is committed.

V. The Wake Forest Baptist Church has never at any time, tried to persuade another Baptist Church to adopt the membership policy of the Wake Forest Church.

VI. At the time the Wake Forest Church adopted its policy of open membership, in view of its own autonomy, it sought permission from no other Baptist church or association or convention. Its minister consulted with a number of other local Baptist ministers about the matter. Their response was either affirmative or tolerant. No strong negative replies were experienced.

- PERSONAL AFFIRMATIONS -

My husband and I joined Wake Forest Baptist Church in 1969. I joined by transfer of membership from Annandale Methodist Church, Annandale, Virginia, and my husband from another Baptist Church. We had strong feelings aobut being church people and were attracted to Wake forest by the sincerity and eloquence of its pastor. We felt too, a sense of community within this Body.

Since joining, I have felt a part of the life and mission of this church, finding expression initially as a teacher in Vacation Church School, then as leader of the Herring Circle, where our focus was on assisting financially and through the giving of food to the Food Bank, which our church began. Other projects included sewing for the School of Continuing Education. Additionally, we organized and compiled a membership and information booklet about Wake Forest Baptist Church.

Three years ago, I helped form the Young Adult's Sunday School Class, which has grown into two classes based on topics of interest and attracts members acrosss age lines.

This year, I was a co=leader of Mission Friends, where my preschooler and others were introduced through story and picture to the activities of Baptist Missionaries. Presently, I am considering working one day a week in the fall at the West End Community Nursery, which the Women of the Church support.

These activities have enabled me to feel a member of Wake Forest Baptist Church. Through them, I have been working for my church and the church as the Body of

So far as they were concerned, the Wake Forest Baptist Church was more Baptist rather than less so as a result of its open membership policy.

II. So far as is known, no member who has been received into the Wake Forest Baptist Church without being immersed, has returned to his or her former denomination. One, who was immersed by the Wake Forest Baptist Church, has returned to a former denomination.

III. A husband and wife, who had been members of Southern Baptist churches, became Lutherans upon moving to the Chicago area. After some time, they were transferred to Winston Salem. They joined the Wake Forest Baptist Church. While in Chicago, 3 sons were baptized as infants in the Lutheran church. None of these was confirmed before the family came to Winston Salem.

The parents inquired as to the eligibility of their sons for membership in the Wake Forest Baptist Church by virtue of their baptisms as infants. Since the 3 boys had not been confirmed and were not therefore members of a Christian church, they were not admissable to our congregation except through believer's baptism by immersion. Two of the three have become members through these means. A younger sister had also been baptized into the Wake Forest Baptist Church.

Our policy does not recognize infant baptism as such. Transfer from other denominations is possible only for believing members of the churches of those denominations.

IV. Between 25 and 30 children have been baptized into the Wake Forest Church, whose parents either or both have become members of this church without a second baptism, since November 1966. At no time have these parents requested infant baptism for theirs or endeavorèd in any way to disparage the high view of baptism by immersion to which the church is committed.

V. The Wake Forest Baptist Church has never at any time, tried to persuade another Baptist Church to adopt the membership policy of the Wake Forest Church.

VI. At the time the Wake Forest Church adopted its policy of open membership, in view of its own autonomy, it sought permission from no other Baptist church or association or convention. Its minister consulted with a number of other local Baptist ministers about the matter. Their response was either affirmative or tolerant. No strong negative replies were experienced.

- PERSONAL AFFIRMATIONS -

My husband and I joined Wake Forest Baptist Church in 1969. I joined by transfer of membership from Annandale Methodist Church, Annandale, Virginia, and my husband from another Baptist Church. We had strong feelings aobut being church people and were attracted to Wake forest by the sincerity and eloquence of its pastor. We felt too, a sense of community within this Body.

Since joining, I have felt a part of the life and mission of this church, finding expression initially as a teacher in Vacation Church School, then as leader of the Herring Circle, where our focus was on assisting financially and through the giving of food to the Food Bank, which our church began. Other projects included sewing for the School of Continuing Education. Additionally, we organized and compiled a membership and information booklet about Wake Forest Baptist Church.

Three years ago, I helped form the Young Adult's Sunday School Class, which has grown into two classes based on topics of interest and attracts members acrosss age lines.

This year, I was a co=leader of Mission Friends, where my preschooler and others were introduced through story and picture to the activities of Baptist Missionaries. Presently, I am considering working one day a week in the fall at the West End Community Nursery, which the Women of the Church support.

These activities have enabled me to feel a member of Wake Forest Baptist Church. Through them, I have been working for my church and the church as the Body of

Following are texts of statements presented by four members of the Wake Forest Baptist Church at the meeting with the Committee of 11 in Greensboro on July 2, 1973.

STATEMENT OF THE HISTORY OF OUR MEMBERSHIP POLICY

When the Wake Forest Baptist Church came to Winston Salem, North Carolina in 1956, after having been chartered on the old campus of Wake Forest College in that same year, it brought along a number of associate members. Almost without exception, these people were connected with the college by virtue of their place in administration, faculty, staff, or student body. The policy of accepting associate members when the church was on the old campus in Wake Forest North Carolina, had been one of long standing. Since there were so few churches in Wake Forest, many members of the college community whose denomination was not represented in this small town, would have been without a definitive church relationship had not the Wake Forest Church offered associate membership. The policy went unquestioned and unchallenged for many years.

This policy was questioned when the church requested permission to send messengers to the Pilot Mountain Association and become affiliated with that body. Wanting very much to be cooperative and unproblematic among its new Baptist associates, the church modified its policy on associate membership with this addendum: "Associate membership is intended for members of the Wake Forest College family, is intended to be temporary, and is subject to the recommendation or approval of the Membership Committee." This amendment was approved in September, 1957.

In addition to its desire for cooperative fellowship with the Baptists of Winston Salem and vicinity, the church probably assumed that the reasons for associate membership so evident and pressing at old Wake Forest, no longer pertained. A city the size of Winston Salem provides churches of almost every denomination.

This assumption did not prove to be the case. The emended policy, made in good faith, created more problems than it solved.

(1) It placed an onus on those associate members who had moved with the congregation to Winston Salem,
(2) A number of associate members had been received by the church in Winston Salem between the time of its beginning in 1956 and the amendment of 1957. They were confused as to their place in the church.
(3) It soon became evident that members of the college community, of denominations other than Baptist, wish to identify with the campus church as a part of their total commitment to Wake Forest College. This was especially true of administration, faculty, and staff who found themselves on a new campus in unfamiliar environment.

(4) Wake Forest alumni in Winston Salem gravitated to the Wake Forest Baptist Church and brought with them wives or husbands belonging to other communions.
(5) Other people, neither Wake Forest College connected nor Baptists, sought out the church because of its setting and emphases.

It should be added that the majority of people, who joined the church in those days, did so by letters of transfer from other Baptist churches or submitted to a second baptism into full membership.

On the other hand, a good number had availed themselves of associate membership with no intimation that it was to be temporary. They wished to be as fully related to the church as was possible under the existing policy. When the amendment was passed, it simply was not possible to ascribe anything other than second class status to associate memberships, particularly in the minds of those who were involved.

This situation persisted for about 8 years. During that agonizing span, the church realized, with increasing pain, that it either had to unchurch many of its finest, dearly loved, and highly respected Christian comrades, or adopt a policy which would lift the onus that had stigmatized them.

In November, 1965, a motion to offer full membership to those coming by transfer from Baptist and other Christian churches, and to grant all existing associate members full membership, was passed in a congregational meeting. About eight months of deliberation and prayer had ensued before the motion was brought to the floor. Since the margin for the affirmative vote was not a large majority, the action was rescinded and another year passed. Then, in November 1966, a similar motion passed with but three dissenting votes.

Although this brief resume has been confined to those practical considerations which transpired to bring the Wake Forest Baptist Church to its present position, such practical matters were by no means the chief reasons for bringing us to the place we now are. We believe that our position is in accord with Baptist history and ecclesiology, with a high view of evagelism and mission, with sound doctrine, with scripture, and with an ecumenical concern for the body of Christ. These profound convictions have not been presented to the Committee of 11 in accord with its stated of Christ.

Being immersed into the Body through a second baptism would not enhance my devotion to my church or enable me to feel more a part. As a child, I was baptized from the font after successfully completing the confirmation class. I remember the day of my baptism and its significance has grown with me.

Even though I realize the Baptist faith sees immersion as a higher way of dedicating one's life to Christ, my baptism is real and because of God's grace is effectual.

As a happy member of Wake Forest Baptist Church, I have never tried - or even thought - to impose my early memories on any person in our church.

I have not asked our pastor to baptize my one or four year old daughter. Even though our pastor offers a covenant service for new parents, I have not mentioned it because the service is for the parents = to encourage them to nurture the child through the church. I will always do this and have pledged so to myself and to God. However, if they were ten or twelve, I would want them to study and learn about baptism, to begin to think about its meaning, and to be baptized through immersion into Wake Forest Church.

In summary, I say that I am an integral part of the life and mission of Wake Forest Baptist Church. In terms of my priorities, my commitments, family and Wake Forest Baptist Church are first.

Prepared by Betty Griffith, member of Wake Forest Baptist Church, and presented to the Committee of 11.

In 1930, my parents enrolled me in the Cradle Roll of the Baptist church they attended. Nine years later, I was baptized in that church on Easter Sunday. Eight years after that, the pastor escorted me to Mercer University where, in addition to my studies, I was actively involved in BSU. Upon graduation, my wife and I were married in the Baptist church she attended, and we journeyed to Louisville for study at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. During the four years ther, I served as pastor of 2 different Baptist churches. The next 3 years, I was chaplain in a state mental hospital and an instructor in a nearby Baptist college. This latter experience persuaded me that my ministry lay in teaching. For 3 years, we were in New York City where I was an instructor at Union Seminary and a minister to children at the Riverside Church. Upon sompletion of my doctorate, I rejected other alternatives and accepted an appointment at Oklahoma Baptist University in the Religion Department. During my 6 year tenure there I was actively involved in the First Baptist Church, teaching Sunday School, working in Training Union conducting courses in teacher education which is my specialty, and attending worship twice on Sunday and Fellowship Supper and Prayer Meeting on Wednesday. My work in the field of Religious Education brought me into association with the S.S. Board in Nashville, the State Baptist Convention, and numerous churches. (By now it should be obvious that I am no neophyte in matters religious or Baptist). All my life Baptists had nurtured me in the Christian faith and practice - a faith which included living by the high principles of honesty, integrity, and love. Over the years, however, I had been puzzled as to why the people called Baptist who cling so fervently to the Word violate it so flagrantly in their behavior. I watched churches engage in sham and hypocrisy to win members on the one hand and to avoid the application of Christian ethics on the other. I sat in Convention after Convention and watched ministers pass resolutions and make nominations claiming the leadership of the Lord when the previous evening I had sat in hotel rooms and watched as these same resolutions and nominations were bargained over by the leaders of various factions. I listened to sermons for a word from the Lord and grace for my suffering spirit and heard only promotional schemes and superficial exposition. I was ready to leave the church. By the mid=60's I was heart sick and decided to seek appointment elsewhere. A position was open in the Department of Education of Wake Forest University. As a Georgian, I had known N.C. Baptists had a great heritage and were reputed to be genuine and sincere in the faith. Hopefully, my wife and I with our 5 children moved ahlfway across the country - seeking a new beginning in Winston Salem, Shortly after our arrival we were visited by several Baptist pastors. We cast our lot with Wake Forest Baptist Church. I warned Warren Carr about my feelings and about what I would no longer tolerate in a church - but such warning was unnecessary. I found in this church an authentic Christian Spirit. Soon, I found myself teaching S.S., training teachers, and serving as preacher to children's church. I was even elected deacon and served 4 years including one as Chairman. I found myself in the midst of a people concerned to feed the hungry, clothe the naked, and minister to those in prison. The only promotional scheme I've encountered has been a congregation-wide effort to discover the will of God for Wake Forest Baptist Church. Once again, I heard the Bible preached in depth and with conviction.

Now, I do not claim that the policy which has caused some to call us "differing" has created this Wake Forest Baptist Church spirit. I do claim that this spirit has led us to prayerfully include all men in Christ who seek fellowship within our body. We have no associate members, we have no "awaiting baptism" list - we are one in the Lord.

We do not invite to the Lord's Table, any that we would not welcome into the Fellowship.

My journey is over. . . I feel "at Home" again among the people called Baptist. Wake Forest Baptist Church has served a redemptive function in my life. My sincere hope is that, located in the heart of a University community as we are, where many are weary and seeking, this church can continue to bring life and joy to others -- and do it in the name of Baptists.

OBSERVATIONS AND INTERPRETATION OF CHURCH MEMBERSHIP POLICY

We wish to make the following observations, with whatever interpretations may be indicated, in the light of our membership policy since 1966.

I. Three persons, who had been associate members up until November, 1966, declined full membership in the church when this became possible. Among other reasons, they declined because they did not wish to become Baptists in the fullest sense of the word. So far as they were concerned, the action by the church in November 1966 increased and enhanced the sectarian quality of the membership. So far as they were concerned, the Wake Forest Baptist Church was more Baptist rather than less so as a result of its open membership policy.

II. So far as is known, no member who has been received into the Wake Forest Baptist Church without being immersed, has returned to his or her former denomination. One, who was immersed by the Wake Forest Baptist Church, has returned to a former denomination.

III. A husband and wife, who had been members of Southern Baptist churches, became Lutherans upon moving to the Chicago area. After some time, they were transferred to Winston Salem. They joined the Wake Forest Baptist Church. While in Chicago, 3 sons were baptized as infants in the Lutheran church. None of these was confirmed before the family came to Winston Salem.

Two of the three have become members through these means. A younger sister had also been baptized into the Wake Forest Baptist Church.

Our policy does not recognize infant baptism as such. Transfer from other denominations is possible only for believing members of the churches of those denominations.

IV. Between 25 and 30 children have been baptized into the Wake Forest Church, whose parents either or both have become members of this church without a second baptism, since November 1966. At no time have these parents requested infant baptism for theirs or endeavorèd in any way to disparage the high view of baptism by immersion to which the church is committed.

V. The Wake Forest Baptist Church has never at any time, tried to persuade another Baptist Church to adopt the membership policy of the Wake Forest Church.

VI. At the time the Wake Forest Church adopted its policy of open membership, in view of its own autonomy, it sought permission from no other Baptist church or association or convention. Its minister consulted with a number of other local Baptist ministers about the matter. Their response was either affirmative or tolerant. No strong negative replies were experienced.

OBSERVATIONS AND INTERPRETATION OF CHURCH MEMBERSHIP POLICY

We wish to make the following observations, with whatever interpretations may be indicated, in the light of our membership policy since 1966.

I. Three persons, who had been associate members up until November, 1966, declined full membership in the church when this became possible. Among other reasons, they declined because they did not wish to become Baptists in the fullest sense of the word. So far as they were concerned, the action by the church in November 1966 increased and enhanced the sectarian quality of the membership. So far as they were concerned, the Wake Forest Baptist Church was more Baptist rather than less so as a result of its open membership policy.

II. So far as is known, no member who has been received into the Wake Forest Baptist Church without being immersed, has returned to his or her former denomination. One, who was immersed by the Wake Forest Baptist Church, has returned to a former denomination.

III. A husband and wife, who had been members of Southern Baptist churches, became Lutherans upon moving to the Chicago area. After some time, they were transferred to Winston Salem. They joined the Wake Forest Baptist Church. While in Chicago, 3 sons were baptized as infants in the Lutheran church. None of these was confirmed before the family came to Winston Salem.

The parents inquired as to the eligibility of their sons for membership in the Wake Forest Baptist Church by virtue of their baptisms as infants. Since the 3 boys had not been confirmed and were not therefore members of a Christian church, they were not admissable to our congregation except through believer's baptism by immersion. Two of the three have become members through these means. A younger sister had also been baptized into the Wake Forest Baptist Church.

Our policy does not recognize infant baptism as such. Transfer from other denominations is possible only for believing members of the churches of those denominations.

IV. Between 25 and 30 children have been baptized into the Wake Forest Church, whose parents either or both have become members of this church without a second baptism, since November 1966. At no time have these parents requested infant baptism for theirs or endeavorèd in any way to disparage the high view of baptism by immersion to which the church is committed.

V. The Wake Forest Baptist Church has never at any time, tried to persuade another Baptist Church to adopt the membership policy of the Wake Forest Church.

VI. At the time the Wake Forest Church adopted its policy of open membership, in view of its own autonomy, it sought permission from no other Baptist church or association or convention. Its minister consulted with a number of other local Baptist ministers about the matter. Their response was either affirmative or tolerant. No strong negative replies were experienced.

- PERSONAL AFFIRMATIONS -

My husband and I joined Wake Forest Baptist Church in 1969. I joined by transfer of membership from Annandale Methodist Church, Annandale, Virginia, and my husband from another Baptist Church. We had strong feelings aobut being church people and were attracted to Wake forest by the sincerity and eloquence of its pastor. We felt too, a sense of community within this Body.

Since joining, I have felt a part of the life and mission of this church, finding expression initially as a teacher in Vacation Church School, then as leader of the Herring Circle, where our focus was on assisting financially and through the giving of food to the Food Bank, which our church began. Other projects included sewing for the School of Continuing Education. Additionally, we organized and compiled a membership and information booklet about Wake Forest Baptist Church.

Three years ago, I helped form the Young Adult's Sunday School Class, which has grown into two classes based on topics of interest and attracts members acrosss age lines.

This year, I was a co=leader of Mission Friends, where my preschooler and others were introduced through story and picture to the activities of Baptist Missionaries. Presently, I am considering working one day a week in the fall at the West End Community Nursery, which the Women of the Church support.

These activities have enabled me to feel a member of Wake Forest Baptist Church. Through them, I have been working for my church and the church as the Body of

Following are texts of statements presented by four members of the Wake Forest Baptist Church at the meeting with the Committee of 11 in Greensboro on July 2, 1973.

STATEMENT OF THE HISTORY OF OUR MEMBERSHIP POLICY

When the Wake Forest Baptist Church came to Winston Salem, North Carolina in 1956, after having been chartered on the old campus of Wake Forest College in that same year, it brought along a number of associate members. Almost without exception, these people were connected with the college by virtue of their place in administration, faculty, staff, or student body. The policy of accepting associate members when the church was on the old campus in Wake Forest North Carolina, had been one of long standing. Since there were so few churches in Wake Forest, many members of the college community whose denomination was not represented in this small town, would have been without a definitive church relationship had not the Wake Forest Church offered associate membership. The policy went unquestioned and unchallenged for many years.

This policy was questioned when the church requested permission to send messengers to the Pilot Mountain Association and become affiliated with that body. Wanting very much to be cooperative and unproblematic among its new Baptist associates, the church modified its policy on associate membership with this addendum: "Associate membership is intended for members of the Wake Forest College family, is intended to be temporary, and is subject to the recommendation or approval of the Membership Committee." This amendment was approved in September, 1957.

In addition to its desire for cooperative fellowship with the Baptists of Winston Salem and vicinity, the church probably assumed that the reasons for associate membership so evident and pressing at old Wake Forest, no longer pertained. A city the size of Winston Salem provides churches of almost every denomination.

This assumption did not prove to be the case. The emended policy, made in good faith, created more problems than it solved.

(1) It placed an onus on those associate members who had moved with the congregation to Winston Salem,
(2) A number of associate members had been received by the church in Winston Salem between the time of its beginning in 1956 and the amendment of 1957. They were confused as to their place in the church.
(3) It soon became evident that members of the college community, of denominations other than Baptist, wish to identify with the campus church as a part of their total commitment to Wake Forest College. This was especially true of administration, faculty, and staff who found themselves on a new campus in unfamiliar environment.

(4) Wake Forest alumni in Winston Salem gravitated to the Wake Forest Baptist Church and brought with them wives or husbands belonging to other communions.
(5) Other people, neither Wake Forest College connected nor Baptists, sought out the church because of its setting and emphases.

It should be added that the majority of people, who joined the church in those days, did so by letters of transfer from other Baptist churches or submitted to a second baptism into full membership.

On the other hand, a good number had availed themselves of associate membership with no intimation that it was to be temporary. They wished to be as fully related to the church as was possible under the existing policy. When the amendment was passed, it simply was not possible to ascribe anything other than second class status to associate memberships, particularly in the minds of those who were involved.

This situation persisted for about 8 years. During that agonizing span, the church realized, with increasing pain, that it either had to unchurch many of its finest, dearly loved, and highly respected Christian comrades, or adopt a policy which would lift the onus that had stigmatized them.

In November, 1965, a motion to offer full membership to those coming by transfer from Baptist and other Christian churches, and to grant all existing associate members full membership, was passed in a congregational meeting. About eight months of deliberation and prayer had ensued before the motion was brought to the floor. Since the margin for the affirmative vote was not a large majority, the action was rescinded and another year passed. Then, in November 1966, a similar motion passed with but three dissenting votes.

Although this brief resume has been confined to those practical considerations which transpired to bring the Wake Forest Baptist Church to its present position, such practical matters were by no means the chief reasons for bringing us to the place we now are. We believe that our position is in accord with Baptist history and ecclesiology, with a high view of evagelism and mission, with sound doctrine, with scripture, and with an ecumenical concern for the body of Christ. These profound convictions have not been presented to the Committee of 11 in accord with its stated of Christ.

Being immersed into the Body through a second baptism would not enhance my devotion to my church or enable me to feel more a part. As a child, I was baptized from the font after successfully completing the confirmation class. I remember the day of my baptism and its significance has grown with me.

Even though I realize the Baptist faith sees immersion as a higher way of dedicating one's life to Christ, my baptism is real and because of God's grace is effectual.

As a happy member of Wake Forest Baptist Church, I have never tried - or even thought - to impose my early memories on any person in our church.

I have not asked our pastor to baptize my one or four year old daughter. Even though our pastor offers a covenant service for new parents, I have not mentioned it because the service is for the parents = to encourage them to nurture the child through the church. I will always do this and have pledged so to myself and to God. However, if they were ten or twelve, I would want them to study and learn about baptism, to begin to think about its meaning, and to be baptized through immersion into Wake Forest Church.

In summary, I say that I am an integral part of the life and mission of Wake Forest Baptist Church. In terms of my priorities, my commitments, family and Wake Forest Baptist Church are first.

Prepared by Betty Griffith, member of Wake Forest Baptist Church, and presented to the Committee of 11.

In 1930, my parents enrolled me in the Cradle Roll of the Baptist church they attended. Nine years later, I was baptized in that church on Easter Sunday. Eight years after that, the pastor escorted me to Mercer University where, in addition to my studies, I was actively involved in BSU. Upon graduation, my wife and I were married in the Baptist church she attended, and we journeyed to Louisville for study at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. During the four years ther, I served as pastor of 2 different Baptist churches. The next 3 years, I was chaplain in a state mental hospital and an instructor in a nearby Baptist college. This latter experience persuaded me that my ministry lay in teaching. For 3 years, we were in New York City where I was an instructor at Union Seminary and a minister to children at the Riverside Church. Upon sompletion of my doctorate, I rejected other alternatives and accepted an appointment at Oklahoma Baptist University in the Religion Department. During my 6 year tenure there I was actively involved in the First Baptist Church, teaching Sunday School, working in Training Union conducting courses in teacher education which is my specialty, and attending worship twice on Sunday and Fellowship Supper and Prayer Meeting on Wednesday. My work in the field of Religious Education brought me into association with the S.S. Board in Nashville, the State Baptist Convention, and numerous churches. (By now it should be obvious that I am no neophyte in matters religious or Baptist). All my life Baptists had nurtured me in the Christian faith and practice - a faith which included living by the high principles of honesty, integrity, and love. Over the years, however, I had been puzzled as to why the people called Baptist who cling so fervently to the Word violate it so flagrantly in their behavior. I watched churches engage in sham and hypocrisy to win members on the one hand and to avoid the application of Christian ethics on the other. I sat in Convention after Convention and watched ministers pass resolutions and make nominations claiming the leadership of the Lord when the previous evening I had sat in hotel rooms and watched as these same resolutions and nominations were bargained over by the leaders of various factions. I listened to sermons for a word from the Lord and grace for my suffering spirit and heard only promotional schemes and superficial exposition. I was ready to leave the church. By the mid=60's I was heart sick and decided to seek appointment elsewhere. A position was open in the Department of Education of Wake Forest University. As a Georgian, I had known N.C. Baptists had a great heritage and were reputed to be genuine and sincere in the faith. Hopefully, my wife and I with our 5 children moved ahlfway across the country - seeking a new beginning in Winston Salem, Shortly after our arrival we were visited by several Baptist pastors. We cast our lot with Wake Forest Baptist Church. I warned Warren Carr about my feelings and about what I would no longer tolerate in a church - but such warning was unnecessary. I found in this church an authentic Christian Spirit. Soon, I found myself teaching S.S., training teachers, and serving as preacher to children's church. I was even elected deacon and served 4 years including one as Chairman. I found myself in the midst of a people concerned to feed the hungry, clothe the naked, and minister to those in prison. The only promotional scheme I've encountered has been a congregation-wide effort to discover the will of God for Wake Forest Baptist Church. Once again, I heard the Bible preached in depth and with conviction.

Now, I do not claim that the policy which has caused some to call us "differing" has created this Wake Forest Baptist Church spirit. I do claim that this spirit has led us to prayerfully include all men in Christ who seek fellowship within our body. We have no associate members, we have no "awaiting baptism" list - we are one in the Lord.

We do not invite to the Lord's Table, any that we would not welcome into the Fellowship.

My journey is over. . . I feel "at Home" again among the people called Baptist. Wake Forest Baptist Church has served a redemptive function in my life. My sincere hope is that, located in the heart of a University community as we are, where many are weary and seeking, this church can continue to bring life and joy to others -- and do it in the name of Baptists.

MEETING WITH COMMITTEE OF 11

Most of those, attending our briefing session on last Sunday night, are planning to go to Greensboro Monday night, July 2 to represent the church in its meeting with the Committee of 11. Others, who could not attend the briefing session, are planning to go.

The meeting is at the First Baptist Church, on Friendly Road in Greensboro, at 7:30 p.m. We are pooling transportation for fun as well as in deference to the gasoline shortage. We will be leaving Wingate Hall at 6:30 p.m.

We hope that many of our members will want to go to this meeting!

A FUTURE FOR THE FAMILY

Proceedings of the Christian Life Commission's 1973 seminar, "A Future for the Family" are available from the Church Office. "The Family's Future in Secular City", by Harvey Cox, "Cultivating Values in Family Life", by Wayne Oates, and "Methods for Strengthening Parent-Chile Communication", by Howard J. Clinebell are among the more helpful presentations.

CRISIS CONTROL CENTER

Representatives of churches involved in the Crisis Control Center have voted to continue operation of the center beyond the three month trial period. The steering committee has been replaced by an enlarged Board of Directors. The Center is located at 930 Patterson Ave.

The Wake Forest Baptist Church has contributed to the Crisis Control Center primarily through the Food Bank, the work of volunteers and money contributed from the Community Service and Contingency funds. The decision to continue operation means that the need for support will continue.

The purpose of the Crisis Control Center is to assist people to self supporting situations by helping to meet crisis needs of food, clothing, and money. This ministry in the name of Christ actively is seeking support from all churches in Forsyth County.

Mrs. Mamie Collins, coordinator of volunteers, and a member of the Board of Directors, reports an excitement among the volunteers about the potential of the center. Many people have been helped to the ability to handle their needs reponsibly. Children and adults have been fed, sheltered, and clothed. The Center stands as a witness of the church.

Food items always needed are canned meats, green beans, applesauce, peanut butter, jelly and oatmeal. These may be brought to the church office or delivered directly to the center.

Volunteers from our church are Mamie Collins, Ty Hamrick, Annie Kesler and Roger Sharpe. Bob Bailey spends one half day each week at the center.

CAUSE FOR CONCERN

Mr. L.A. Lineberger, father of our member, Alex Lineberger is at home in Charlotte after surgery.

Members of the congregation are invited to submit names of persons they would like considered for nominations to the Diaconate. Please give this matter careful consideration. CONCERNING A MEETING WITH THE COMMITTEE OF 11

The meeting between Wake Forest Baptist Church and the Committee of 11, having to do with our baptismal and membership policies, is now set for Monday night, July 2, 7:30 p.m., at First Baptist Church in Greensboro.

This has been an "on again, off again" date as set by the Committee of 11. That explains our late notice to you about briefing meetings for all who wish to represent our church at the July 2 meeting. We will meet in Room 110, Sunday night, June 24, at 7:00 p.m. If a second meeting, for those not able to meet this Sunday night, is called for, it will be held in Room 104, July 1, at 7:00 p.m.

Based on reports of the meetings which the Committee of 11 has held, and on the nature of the contents of Dr. Freeman's letter, we may anticipate what will likely transpire. The Committee will probably ask the Wake Forest Baptist Church to reconsider its membership policy and report back to the Committee.

It may expedite matters for us to suggest that any members of the church, who wish for a reconsideration of such a policy, to make their desires known to Mr. Reid Staton, Chairman of the Diaconate, or to Mr. Warren Carr, Minister, or by registering their opinions with the Church Office. If no such requests occur before the meeting with the Committee, we shall be in position to report that fact at that time.

(Please turn page . . .)

Of course, the Church will not be bound by any such unofficial action on its part one way or another. By raising the possibility of reconsideration at this time, however, those of us meeting with the Committee will be better prepared as to how to respond if some such request is forthcoming.

If you feel strongly in favor of reconsideration, please so advise. Silence on the matter will be construed as support for the membership policy which is presently being practiced.

GROWTH BY GROUPS

A new group of persons interested in inductive Bible Study will begin on July 1. The group will meet at 9:45 a.m. in the Tower Room (back of the balcony in Wait Chapel) Subsequent meetings during the summer will be from 9:45 until 10:45 on Sunday mornings.

The group will choose between study of the Epistles or the Psalms with option to continue the study with selected Old Testament passages or the gospels.

Growth by Groups is a plan of inductive Bible study, personal and group growth. Each member of the group agrees to a common covenant of personal and group discipline. This group is not designed to replace any of the adult Church School classes - rather, it is proposed for those who desire this kind of intensive study, discipline and group involvement. For more information, call Mrs. Mary Blalock or the Church Office.

WELCOME TO NEW MEMBERS

We welcome into our church, Dr. and Mrs. David Fuller who come by letter from the First Baptist Church of Columbia, South Carolina. Dr. Fuller is a psychiatrist on the staff at the V.A. Hospital in Salisbury. He, Mrs. Fuller, and daughter Debbie live at 900 Roslyn Road.

David and Betsy are both graduates of Wake Forest, and both ar native North Carolinians. She is a native of Nashville and he hails from Lumberton.

They were involved in work with international students at their former church. We look forward to their work in our church and covenant with them in the ministry that is ours.

SUMMER ACTIVITIES

Some people have been asking about the Church School schedule this summer. As indicated earlier in the Newsletter the schedule will continue with only minor changes.

PRESCHOOL THROUGH HIGH SCHOOL classes will meet as usual. There will be some shift of teachers during July and August.

THE COLLEGE CLASS will meet during summer school and other ADULT CLASSES will meet on a regular schedule, EXCEPT FOR THE ELECTIVE CLASS which will resume in September.

CHURCH SCHOOL BEGINS AT 10:00 a.m. each Sunday!

EXTENDED SESSION: Extended Session activities for children through grades two will continue without interruption through the summer.

BAPTIST SCHOLARSHIP OFFERING DAY

On this Father's Day, you will have the opportunity to share in the education of needy North Carolina Baptist students in the seven Baptist colleges in the state. Offering envelopes are available in the center corridor of Wingate.

Almost 25% of students in our Baptist colleges receive some kind of needed aid. Last year, nearly $150,000 was received in special offerings from the churches, but even this was not enough.

Your gift is needed. Student need is close to us in a unique way. Please respond to that need this Sunday.

THE WEEK INSURANCE RATES INCREASED

Many of the 84 people in the 19 families who went to Caswell last week brought something home with them. At least twelve stitches, one cast, a couple of bandages, assorted limps, and the usual number of sunburns were brought to Winston Salem. The frequent trips to the Southport Hospital may have made some people consider a mass transit system for the area.

The person who bears the cast understands in a unique way why Fort Caswell was never captured. It even strikes back at a sneak attack in early evening.

CHANGE IN TIME . . . . . .

The ADULT (CHANCEL) CHOIR

will meet this Wednesday at 7:30, instead of the usual 7:00.

THE WEEK THAT WAS . . . (Cont'd)

In spite of injuries, there were times of fellowship, worship, quietness, and rest. The volleyball games that were limited to the beach last year, expanded to night games on the tennis court this year. But the shift had its mishaps. The ball hit a cactus and had to be pumped up, along with the loosing team, and one of the players insistedon "playing the net" a little too closely.

The injuries will heal; they pose a continuing threat only to the Assembly secretary who may spend the rest of the summer filling out insurance forms. But the fellowship, worship, and quiet beauty of God's world left its continuing mark upon those who sampled the week at Caswell.

W.M.U. DRAPERY PROJECT

The women in our church are still working on draperies for the North Carolina Advancement Center. Forty eight pairs in all have to be completed. This is a tremendous job! They are making them at home, and as a group at the church. Won't you please help? There will be a Sewing Session at the church in Room 104 on Wednesday, June 20, at 9 a.m.

STATE KINDERGARTEN

The W-S/FORSYTH COUNTY School System seeks to remind people of the free public kindergartens beignning in September. Parents of children who will be 5 years old on or before October 16, 1973, are urged to call 727 2013 to give the school system the names of eligible children. Deadline is July 10, 1973

There will be no extended session for children in grades 1-6 this Sunday. Preschool activities will continue as usual from 10:00 - 12:00 Noon. There will be no children's church during the summer, but extended activities for children in grades 1-2 will resume soon.

a FUTURE for the FAMILY

Brochures suggesting a Christian life style for each of the several family life concerns they discuss are available in the center corridor of Wingate. These brochures should help identify specific needs for strengthening the family, and offer a theological perspective.

Issues discussed include:
"Religion in the Home"
"Discipline"
"Relation to Relatives"
"Population Explosion"
"Generation Gap"
"Aging"
and several other related topics.

You are encouraged to read the brochures which relate to your concerns and to request additional resources for further study. Major concerns will likely become the basis for future study sessions in the church.

A STITCH IN TIME . . .

Forty eight pairs of curtains for the North Carolina Advancement Center on Cherry Street will be made by the women in the church. The site of the sewing will be the Glade Street YWCA. Some of the work will be done on Friday morning at 9:00. Additional persons are needed to work at 9:00 a.m. on Wednesday, May 30.

The material for the curtains was purchased by the Middle High Youth Group. This training union group planned the project with personnel at the Advancement Center, and Donna Reeves and Bill Humbert, Advisors. They raised money for the curtains through various projects.

DIACONATE REPORT
May Meeting

Church income in 1973 continues to run behind last year. It is hoped that all members will continue their giving at a pace that will insure the Church not having to reach into its very small savings during the summer months.

Your Diaconate continues to give much of its time to discussions of Christian ministry projects that are most worthwhile, notably the Community Service Fund, the Crisis Control Center, and a proposed United Social Ministry in Winston Salem. More will be heard concerning these in future weeks.

It is now definite that the Convention Committee of eleven will come to the Winston Salem - Wilkesboro area on July 2, 1973 for a meeting with representatives of the Wake Forest Church. Plans now are to hold a meeting in mid-June of all church members who are interested in the response that is to be given to the Committee. If you are interested, please plan to attend on the to-be-announced-date.

CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

There will be a Congregational Meeting, on May 27, to discuss the procedure for meeting with the Committee of 11. That meeting has been announced by the Committee of 11 for July 2.

The Spring Concert by the Junior, Chapel, and Angkulung Choirs will be on May 20 - THIS SUNDAY - at 6:00 p.m. in the Lower Auditorium, Wingate Hall.

Mrs. Jeanette Smith is Director of Children's Choirs, Misses Dawn Perdue and Kathy Anderson direct the Angkulung Choir.

Following the concert, there will be a reception in Room 104.

A FUTURE FOR THE FAMILY

Brochures focusing on various concerns of the family are available in the center corridor of Wingate this month. These brochures should help persons identify the specific needs for strengthening the family that they feel most acutely. They offer a theological perspective for each of the issues they discuss.

Pressure upon the family today is more intense than at any time in modern history. Its mission gives the responsibility and transgenerational membership gives the opportunity for the church to be uniquely involved in strengthening the family.

You are encouraged to read the brochures which relate to a need you sense and to request additional resources for further study. Major concerns will likely become the basis for future study sessions in the church.

CAUSE FOR CONCERN

Mrs. J. Wilson Monroe is a patient at Forsyth Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. T. Sloane Guy, Sr. is a patient at Baptist Hospital.

S E N I O R S

Our church is trying to identify all graduating seniors in the church family. Please call the church office (724 6122) to let us know if you or someone in your family is graduating from high school or college.

ELECTIVE CLASS

Dr. Cyclone Covey will speak to the adult Elective Class this Sunday, May 20. His topic is "Chariots of the Gods" - (?)

Super Summer '73

"TWO WEEKS OF EXCITING ADVENTURE TRAINING" challenging youth to an evangelistic effort is available to students from 9th-12th grades. Six college and university campuses will be the location of these experiences from June 21 through August 21. SUPER SUMMER '73 is sponsored by the Home Mission Board of the SBC.

EDUCATION NOTES

The education needs and opportunities of our church continue through the summer, in spite of vacations and camps. Vacation Church School, August 6-10, offers brief teaching responsibility and "maximum" results. Additional teachers are also needed during July and August in Church School. Both of these opportunities allow people with more summer leisure to contribute to the church's education mission at the time they can offer most. Consider seriously your responsibility toward the church's education program. Mr. Bailey will be glad to discuss the possibilities more fully with you.

CRISIS CONTROL CENTER

The number of persons requesting the services and ministry of the Crisis Control Center attests to the need to which it responds From April 30 to May 4, Ninety-two persons sought the aid of the Center. Four volunteers from our church work directly with the Center. In addition, help is given through the Food Bank and Contingency Funds.

AN AFTERNOON OF FUN - and an E P I L O G U E

An afternoon at the park can be many different things to people. But, when it is the Church Picnic, it is plenty of food and fun and fellowship for everyone. Last Friday afternoon at Miller Park was just such a day: children with innate compasses which directed them toward the play ground as soon as the family car came to a stop in the parking area, other children content in a stroller or not content to leave mother, adults taking advantage of the serenity (away from the playground) in a leisurely stroll across the park, others in numerous small conversations or waiting impatiently for 6:30 and food.

The afternoon was not without its tragedies, however. The play ground yielded its usual crop of bruises, skinned knees, and trickling tears. One small boy did not take long to decide between pride of his father's prowess and disdain of his sense of direction as a line drive by the latter bounced painfully off the boy's shin.

Suddenly, it was time for adults to clean up and children to leave the playground (both equally distasteful!) Dishes, bottles, crocks - and children - were lugged to appropriate cars. The last sweater was retrieved and home and bed began to beckon.

EPILOGUE: A painful flash of anxiety coursed through the young woman when she discovered that her glasses were missing --- and exams were to begin in a few days! Could they . . . have been dropped at the picnic? A desperate phone call revealed that a pair of glasses had indeed been seen at the playground. Aided by the same lights that guided pioneers across this great continent, the young woman and her accomplice groped through the darkness. Then, just before her despair became as black as the darkness, she found them!

There will be no excuse at exam time now!

50 Years of Caring

The caring ministry of N.C. Baptist Hospital needs your help. Committed from its beginning to providing medical care for people unable to pay, last year alone the hospital provided free service valued at nearly a million and a half dollars.

The attached envelope is your invitation to share in the hospital's ministry to the whole person, particularly those needing financial assistance with their hospital bills. A careful study of patients' financial needs is made to assure that the funds from the Mother's Day Offering are used to help those whose need is greatest.

Partnership with the Bowman Gray School of Medicine has created a major academic medical center. The new Reynold's Tower allows a growth to 717 beds, includes a 17 room operating suite, and a 38 bed Intensive Care Unit. These are all significant in increased medical care available at Baptist Hospital. A more total ministry is made possible by the unique service of pastoral care, which has been an important part of the ministry of the hospital for 26 years.

CHURCH PICNIC - MAY 11, MILLER PARK # 1

Our annual Church Picnic is scheduled for Friday, May 11, from 4:00 until 9:00 p.m. at Miller Park, Pavillion # 1. We will eat about 6:30 so the time on either side of the meal can be used for recreation and fellowship.

The letter you will receive contains your personal invitation. Please return the appropriate portion to the Church Office by May 8, so an accurate amount of meats can be catered.

Neither May showers nor the multitude of competing activities can dampen the enthusiasm and fellowship of this picnic. The one disappointed will be YOU if you can't come!

PICNIC

50 YEARS OF CARING... BAPTIST HOSPITAL

From a small 80 bed hospital in 1923 to 655 beds in 1973, Baptist Hospital has continued to serve the medical, psychological and spiritual needs of the people of North Carolina. The hospital charter expressed an intent that has characterized the ministry for half a century: serving sick people who could not pay for necessary care, as well as those who had adequate resources. The Mother's Day offering has enabled an integral part of that ministry. Last year, the offering totalled $369,906. However, the total value of free service in 1972 was $1,395,000. The need for your gift to the Mother's Day Offering is apparent.

Specially marked envelopes will be attached to the Newsletter next week. You are encouraged to respond to this opportunity for caring for the well-being of your fellow man.

Further information on the hospital is on the bulletin board near the church office.

ANGKLUNG CHOIR PLAY TO FULL LAWN

SURPASSED BY SIZE, but not by novelty nor execution, the Angklung Choir performed Saturday before about 2,000 young people on the green area behind Reynolda Hall. Our choir was one of ten youth groups performing in a "music celebration", which was part of the youth convention of the N.C. Baptist State Convention.

Other sessions were held on Friday and Saturday nights and Saturday morning. The B.S.U. Choir from Wake Forest joined with one from Appalachian to form a 120 voice choir for the concluding worship experience.

SUNDAY NIGHT - MAY SCHEDULE

The Sunday evneing schedule for May is somewhat altered. There will be the regular age group activities this Sunday and on May 13. However, there will be no Family Night meal and program on the 13th, so other activities will begin at 6:00 p.m. May 20 is the date for the Spring Concert by the Children's Choirs, including the Chapel, Juniors and Angklungs. The concert will begin at 6:00 p.m. There will be no regular activities on May 27. Specific activities during the summer will be announced later.

CHURCH PICNIC - MAY 11, MILLER PARK # 1

Our annual Church Picnic is scheduled for Friday, May 11, from 4:00 until 9:00 p.m. at Miller Park, Pavillion # 1. We will eat about 6:30 so the time on either side of the meal can be used for recreation and fellowship.

The letter you will receive contains your personal invitation. Please return the appropriate portion to the Church Office by May 8, so an accurate amount of meats can be catered.

Neither May showers nor the multitude of competing activities can dampen the enthusiasm and fellowship of this picnic. The one disappointed will be YOU if you can't come!

50 YEARS OF CARING... BAPTIST HOSPITAL

From a small 80 bed hospital in 1923 to 655 beds in 1973, Baptist Hospital has continued to serve the medical, psychological and spiritual needs of the people of North Carolina. The hospital charter expressed an intent that has characterized the ministry for half a century: serving sick people who could not pay for necessary care, as well as those who had adequate resources. The Mother's Day offering has enabled an integral part of that ministry. Last year, the offering totalled $369,906. However, the total value of free service in 1972 was $1,395,000. The need for your gift to the Mother's Day Offering is apparent.

Specially marked envelopes will be attached to the Newsletter next week. You are encouraged to respond to this opportunity for caring for the well-being of your fellow man.

Further information on the hospital is on the bulletin board near the church office.

ANGKLUNG CHOIR PLAY TO FULL LAWN

Our choir was one of ten youth groups performing in a "music celebration", which was part of the youth convention of the N.C. Baptist State Convention.

Other sessions were held on Friday and Saturday nights and Saturday morning. The B.S.U. Choir from Wake Forest joined with one from Appalachian to form a 120 voice choir for the concluding worship experience.

The Sunday evneing schedule for May is somewhat altered. There will be the regular age group activities this Sunday and on May 13. REPORT FROM THE DIACONATE

It was noted that Church receipts for March were some $1900 short of our monthly budget requirements of $6,679.25. As we look at the first 3 months of 1973, we find one less Sunday than in the first quarter of 1972. When we catch this one Sunday up in giving, it is hoped that we will be on target. We remind all members that it is essential that we all keep up with our pledges on a month to month basis.

The Diaconate is continuing its study of the priorities of the church. Should we concentrate on building up our membership? Should major emphasis be placed on Christian Action, such as our involvement with Meals on Wheels, Contact, Crisis Control Center, etc.? Should we place more emphasis on relations within an internal community? It is hoped that our members will give thought to these questions and be prepared to discuss them intelligently at some future date.

YOUTH RETREAT

Last Sunday afternoon, 21 excited but tired, sleepy and in need of a bath young people made their way down the mountain from Laurel Ridge to Winston Salem, They brought with them the experiences of a week end search for the meaning of the week from Palm Sunday through Easter and the significance this has for them.

They also brought tales of woe: freezing temperatures causing a cold night's sleep, fish that refused to bite, boats that were no where to be found, a new kind of pancakes, and an "airplane ride". But woe fell victim to exhuberance: new friends from Wythville Church, beautifully sunny days and mountain tops offering spectacular scenery, a first hand experience in their own attitudes of acceptance, almost enough to eat, ample time to play and study and think, and a time to affirm their acceptance of the group and their relationships to Jesus Christ.

Ask them about the weekend. Some of them may even find it difficult to stop talking about the experience!

CONGRATULATIONS! to Dr. & Mrs. Joe Milner at the birth of a son, Peter Cooper, on April 13.

YOUTH RETREAT

Last Sunday afternoon, 21 excited but tired, sleepy and in need of a bath young people made their way down the mountain from Laurel Ridge to Winston Salem, They brought with them the experiences of a week end search for the meaning of the week from Palm Sunday through Easter and the significance this has for them.

They also brought tales of woe: freezing temperatures causing a cold night's sleep, fish that refused to bite, boats that were no where to be found, a new kind of pancakes, and an "airplane ride". But woe fell victim to exhuberance: new friends from Wythville Church, beautifully sunny days and mountain tops offering spectacular scenery, a first hand experience in their own attitudes of acceptance, almost enough to eat, ample time to play and study and think, and a time to affirm their acceptance of the group and their relationships to Jesus Christ.

Ask them about the weekend. Some of them may even find it difficult to stop talking about the experience!

CONGRATULATIONS! to Dr. & Mrs. Joe Milner at the birth of a son, Peter Cooper, on April 13.

WELCOME TO NEW MEMBER

We welcome into our church, ROGER SHARPE, who comes by letter from the Pullen Memorial Baptist Church in Raleigh. Roger lives at 112-B Spruce Street.

He is a native of Harmony, N.C. and a graduate of N.C. State, where he became quite active in Christian action as a proclamation of faith.

Roger is employed by the N.C. Department of Corrections with responsibilities for motivational training and job placement of men returning to the community. Early results indicate a sharp decline in the rate of recedivism.

Before coming to Winston Salem, he worked in southeastern N.C. enlisting community resources in the follow up work of the Department of Corrections. Prior to that, he was with the Correctional Center for Alcoholics in Raleigh and was involved in an effort to decriminalize alcoholism. He is currently visiting campuses across the state seeking to encourage students in an active proclamation of the Christian faith.

His passionate interest in people and their welfare has limited his activity but has not abated his interest as a naturalist. The tension that forced a choice between sociology and horticulture science continues.

We welcome Roger into our church and covenant with him in our efforts to affirm our faith in corporate worship and in mission.

FAMILY NIGHT - CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE

April 8 - The April Family Night has special significance for our church. (See note below from our Pastor) The 6:15 p.m. meal will be followed at 7:00 by a Congregational Conference.

Families are reminded to bring a meat or vegetable and a salad or dessert for the meal. Please bring an amount appropriate to the size of your family plus enough for one student guest.

CONFERENCE - APRIL 8

The Congregational Conference, Sunday night, April 8, 7:00 p.m., Room 104, is extremely important. The Wake Forest Baptist Church, along with eleven others, has been named a "differing church" by a special committee of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention. This committee has been directed by the Convention to persuade the "differing churches" to cease accepting already baptized Christians into their membership without requiring a second baptism by immersion in water.

The meeting is being called for the purpose of deciding how this church will respond to an open letter from the committee published in the Biblical Recorder. This is not a matter to be taken lightly. It is urgent that our members attend this Conference.

BOARD OF EDUCATION REPORT

The Board of Education in its quarterly meeting heard reports from ongoing activities and special committees. A special committee looking at weekday education pointed out the necessity of some decision by the N.C. Legislature on public kindergartens before a thorough evaluation can be made. Further reports will be coming from the committee.

The Church School Committee presented a proposal for increased internal structure in the Church School and early enlistment of teachers. The effect of this will be a strengthening of the education program and a more effective awareness of the Church School as a vehicle for outreach.

The Board recommended that the Kindergarten Committee be included among those named by the Committee on Committees. The purpose of this move is to give additional authenticity to the committee and to strengthen church involvement in the Kindergarten program.

Another item of discussion was the standardization of the Sunday night Church Training Time. The class time is one hour later on Family Night, creating some confusion particularly among those families who do not regularly attend the Family Night meal. It was decided to pursue this question with other committees and persons most directly involved.

A proposal for a family cluster education program was outlined by Mr. Bailey. The effect of such a program will be family enrichment, as well as education. Four to six families and singles of varying ages will be clustered for a new approach to education in the church. More information will be presented at a later date.

Bible Lands Tour Host, Dr. T. Sloane Guy, Jr., asks that we issue the following invitation:

Dear Friends,

I invite you to accompany me in enjoying one of life's greatest thrills: to visit the very places where Jesus walked, taught, and lived His earthly life. The Bible will come alive for you. Renewed faith and enriching friendships will be yours. To walk in the footsteps of Jesus cannot be described, it can only be experienced. Now that dream can be easily fulfilled. I want to make it possible for you to travel with me and share in this rare privilege of spiritual replenishment.

Our journey will draw to a close only after we have had time to marvel at the classical and historical sights of Athens, that warm capital of Greece.

This tour is offered at a great savings in price, but not in quality. You will enjoy first-class hotels and three meals per day, and the price is all-inclusive.

Send in your deposit and enroll ment blank to me today. Why not ask a friend to join us in this most rewarding experience?

So many "bad" things are written about students - so much news you read in the paper is not "friendly". It is a pleasure, therefore, when you realize that students at Wake Forest have "Crusades for Christ" and serious discussion lectures. Surely, they have many more than come to the attention of the public.

"Challenge '73" will be a comprehensive program emphasizing "Crisis In Higher Education". A look at the calendar of events commencing with the Thursday morning (March 22) lectures, include "Wake Forest, An Identity Crisis", The University, Present and Future", Education in Black and White?" "Learning to Feel - Feeling to Learn", "What Can a Liberal Education Mean?", Total Educational Submersion Process and Its Promise" and "Who Pushed Humpty Dumpty?" It is nice to know that these young people are concerned with the future's young people!

CASWELL EXTRAVAGANZA

Several people have already inquired about the annual Family Week at N.C. Baptist Assembly, near Southport. Response has just been received from Mr. Smith indicating space and cost. There is space for 15-17 families. The cost for apartment units (4-6 capacity) is $3.00 per person per night. The motel apartment units are $12.00 per night for one room (4 capacity) and kitchen, $16.00 for two rooms and kitchen.

Persons interested in Family Week at Caswell should contact me. I will need to know the number of adults and children and preference for accommodations, i.e. motel with/without kitchen or housekeeping apartments.

Those who attended last year can attest to the excitement of the week! There was a sea disaster and one of our members made a daring rescue. Other near tragedies included Kim Christman who stepped on a sand spur and several people whose feet were sunburned while playing volleyball on the beach! A solitary walk on the beach, a bonfire and songs, fishing at leisure, watching the sun set over the ocean comprise some of the more tranquil assets.

Please indicate your interest no later than April 1. Requests will be forwarded in the order they are received, but final assignment is determined by the Assembly office.

Several people have already inquired about the annual Family Week at N.C. Baptist Assembly, near Southport. Response has just been received from Mr. Smith indicating space and cost. There is space for 15-17 families. The cost for apartment units (4-6 capacity) is $3.00 per person per night. The motel apartment units are $12.00 per night for one room (4 capacity) and kitchen, $16.00 for two rooms and kitchen.

Persons interested in Family Week at Caswell should contact me. I will need to know the number of adults and children and preference for accommodations, i.e. motel with/without kitchen or housekeeping apartments.

Those who attended last year can attest to the excitement of the week! There was a sea disaster and one of our members made a daring rescue. Other near tragedies included Kim Christman who stepped on a sand spur and several people whose feet were sunburned while playing volleyball on the beach! A solitary walk on the beach, a bonfire and songs, fishing at leisure, watching the sun set over the ocean comprise some of the more tranquil assets.

Please indicate your interest no later than April 1. Requests will be forwarded in the order they are received, but final assignment is determined by the Assembly office.

Family Prayer Guide

Week of Prayer for Home Missions
March 4-11, 1973
Annie Armstrong Easter Offering
Goal: $6,600,000

Using This Guide

Use this guide as a family. Each day use the "Did You Know?" facts and prayer requests to lead your family in praying for home missions work and in supporting the work financially through the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering.

For additional missions information and prayer requests, as well as the daily prayer calendar, see March issues of WMU magazines.

SUNDAY, MARCH 4 Read 2 Kings 7:2-11.

Did you know that the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering provides about one half the support of the work of the Home Mission Board? This offering, along with Cooperative Program funds, keeps over 2,200 home missionaries on the field. These missionaries establish new churches, engage in Christian social ministries, work with National (Negro) Baptists, minister to language groups, work in resort areas, and witness in many other ways.

The 1973 offering goal is $6,600,000. Expansion in areas of home missions work means need for more money to appoint additional home missionaries at once. Demands on the 1973 offering are critical.

Pray

. . . about your personal and family goal for the offering.

. . . that your church will make a worthy offering this year.

MONDAY, MARCH 5 Read John 9:1-7.

Did you know that huge cities in the Northeast teem with people in need of the gospel? In Chelsea, a part of greater Boston, over 30,000 people live in less than two square miles. Drug traffic and juvenile crime rates are high.

The great need in the small chapel in Chelsea is for trained leaders to carry on multiple ministries. Fewer than fifty members conduct weekday activities such as Teen Times, Bible studies, music activities, Happy Time for children, clubs, literacy classes, services at the naval hospital to reach the community.

Pray

. . . for home missionaries who minister and witness to persons in the large cities of the US.

. . . for trained leaders for the chapel in Chelsea, Massachusetts.

. . . for committed Christians to work in new areas of missions in the US.

TUESDAY, MARCH 6 Read Matthew 25: 1-13.

Did you know that Bill Williamson has been Southern Baptist chaplain to the Mayo Clinic and two related hospitals in Rochester, Minnesota, since 1964? The hospitals have space for 1,500 patients.

Seeking to meet the needs of individuals in times of crisis, loneliness, and grief, Chaplain Williamson visits an average of thirty to forty people daily. He also ministers to persons who come to Mayo Clinic facing death. Many persons have found Christ through this ministry.

Pray

. . . for Chaplain Williamson and his ministry at Mayo Clinic.

. . . for Southern Baptist chaplains serving the military.

. . . for chaplains in hospitals, in industry, and in institutions.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 7 Read Matthew 25:14-30.

Did you know that much cooperative work is being done by Southern Baptists and National (Negro) Baptists—extension centers, in-service training, scholarships, and campus ministries?

Each summer Southern Baptists and National Baptists in Mississippi conduct jointly two weeks of camp for Negro girls at Sophia Sutton Mission Assembly, near Prentiss. The camps, planned by women of these conventions, are staffed with black and white teachers and Negro dorm counselors. About 125 girls participate each summer.

Pray

. . . that more National Baptists of Mississippi will endorse the camp and promote attendance by their children and youth.

. . . for Alma Barnes, teacher-missionary employed by the Home Mission Board to work full-time at Sophia Sutton Mission Assembly; and for Waudine Storey, Mississippi WMU staff member, who helps plan and direct the camps.

THURSDAY, MARCH 8 Read Psalm 95: 1-11.

Did you know that materials in Spanish are prepared for Spanish WMU organizations? These include Nuestra Tarea (a magazine for WMU leaders) and other leader materials. Doris Diaz is the editor. Serving under the Home Mission Board, Miss Diaz has her office at WMU headquarters in Birmingham, Alabama.

Pray

. . . for Doris Diaz and for the women who use these materials.

. . . for the millions of people who live in the US and speak another language.

. . . for the approximately 1,000 missionaries among 40 language groups in the US.

FRIDAY, MARCH 9 Read Luke 16:19-31.

Did you know that each summer over 900 student summer missionaries are appointed to serve in home missions work, many in resort areas?

In Ocean City, Maryland, four of these help to operate the Ichthus Coffee House six nights a week in the basement of a church building. They get acquainted with the young people, form friendships, witness. About 100-150 come each night.

Superintendent of missions Arlie Watson reports that a Crisis Hot Line—a 24-hour telephone service—at Ocean City handled over 900 crises in one year.

Pray

. . . for the Home Mission Board in selection of student missionaries for this summer.

. . . for the students who will serve.

. . . for home missionaries who work with students.

. . . for the resort ministries program at Ocean City, Maryland.

SATURDAY, MARCH 10 Read Luke 14: 15-24.

Did you know that Mildred McWhorter has been associational director of Christian social ministries in Houston, Texas, for ten years? Each week 250 volunteers from churches in the Houston area reach 4,000 people, mostly Latin Americans who live in a 60-block area of 52,000 people.

Activities include citizenship classes, recreation, camps, kindergartens and preschool programs, tutoring classes, worship services, Vacation Bible Schools, mothers clubs. These meet needs and help alleviate problems such as drug abuse, juvenile delinquency, and broken homes.

Pray

. . . for missionaries engaged in Christian social ministries.

. . . for the work being done in Houston.

. . . that your church family will seek to help people in your community.

SUNDAY, MARCH 11 Read Acts 7:54-60.

Did you know that the Home Mission Board is in Atlanta, Georgia? Dr. Arthur B. Rutledge is the executive secretary.

The Board directs the work of over 2,200 home missionaries. Home missions work involves evangelism, chaplaincy, church loans, new churches, associational work, pioneer missions, work in rural areas and in cities, language missions, work with National Baptists, Christian social ministries, and interfaith witness.

Pray

. . . for Dr. Rutledge and each staff member of the Board.

. . . for the more than 2,200 home missionaries.

WEEK OF PRAYER FOR HOME MISSIONS
MARCH 4-11, 1973

Included in the Newsletter is a "Family Prayer Guide" for use during the Week of Prayer for Home Missions. Daily scripture suggestions, home mission facts, and prayer suggestions are provided for the eight days. Families or individuals are encouraged to use the prayer guide during the week. A concerted effort of intercessory prayer will make a difference in the Church's mission. The theme for the week is a reminder of this fact. "Ask of me, and I will make the nations your heritage, and the ends of the earth your possession."

A Prayer Observance will be held Monday, March 5, at 12:15 PM in Davis Chapel as a part of the observance of the Week of Prayer. Offerings for Home Missions and donations to the Food Bank may be brought to the prayer observance. Active involvement as well as prayer is a necessary part of any mission endeavor.

The season and the tournament are over. Our teams won so now we can get on with the ACC tournament! For anyone not within abnormal shouting distanc of the Knollwood gym last Thursday night, our team defeated Miner Springs 44-41 for the championship.

A dreadfully slow start gave moments of anxiety to coaches and players, as well as parents. Bu a late flurry spear headed by Denny Hooks a Ed Whitehead led to the desired result.

EQUAL RIGHTS FOR WOMEN

"Equal Rights for Women" will be the subject of the next study group for students and adults.

It will begin with Family Night, March 11, 1973. The series on "Death and Dying" was concluded last Sunday night.

The current issue of the Christian Century has a three part feature on "Facing Death" that may be a helpful source: "Euthanasia -- Death with Dignity" by Robert M. Cooper, assistant professor of ethics and moral theology at Nashotah House; "Theological Reflections on Death" by Jeffrey G. Sobsan, a member of the faculty at Notre Dame; and ". . .When Your Husband Dies" by Joyce A. Phipps, a resident of Hamden, Conn. A copy is available through the church office.

NEW MEMBER

We welcome into our church, Chris Hendricks. Chris comes into our church on profession of his faith in Jesus Christ. He will be baptized this Sunday morning.

Chris is the son of Dr. and Mrs. J. Edwin Hendricks. He is in the third grade at Whitaker School. Chris is in the Chapel Choir and the Lower Junior Church School Class. He is a young man of varied interests including piano, pottery, and ceramics as well as the usual active interests of someone his age.

At his baptism into the body of Christ, the congregation will be able formally to covenant with him as a brother in Christ. His first communion service will be in Davis Chapel immediately following the worship service.

CHILDREN'S CHOIRS

The Chapel and Junior Choirs will meet at their regular times this week: 4:30 p.m. Thursday for the former, 6:00 p.m. Sunday for the latter. Both choirs are working on Easter and concert music. Attendance is very important!

GROWTH BY GROUPS

"Growth by Groups", a group gathered for inductive Bible Study and mutual support continues each Wednesday night at 7:15 p.m. in Room 110. Groups are kept purposefully small, but new members can join at any time. Persons who desire a time of disciplined study and devotional life will find it in "Growth by Groups". Persons interested in participating should contact the church office or one of the current group members.

PRAYER FOR MISSIONS

A prayer Observance will be held Monday, March 5, at 12:15 p.m. in Davis Chapel as a part of this church's participation in the Week of Prayer for Home Missions. The theme of the March 4-11 observance is "Ask of me, and I will make the nations your heritage, and the ends of the earth your possessions." The theme speaks God's promise of response to a time of study and intercessory prayer.

The week is also a time for active involvement in the mission of the church. Offerings for Home Missions and donations to the Food Bank may be brought to the Prayer Observance. Slightly over half of the $12,000,000 budget for home missions comes through the special Annie Armstrong Offering.

CHURCH WOMEN UNITED

The Church Women United will observe the World Day of Prayer on March 2 at 11:00 a.m. at the First Baptist Church on Highland Avenue.

There will be special prayers of Thanksgiving for the steps towards peace in Viet Nam and Indo China.

Church Women United believe that the Father of all humanity has a plan- we are a part of that great plan. We must be "ALERT IN OUR TIME", to his spirit. "HAND MUST TOUCH HAND", so that we will know "WHO IN THE WORLD OUR NEIGHBOR IS".

BASKETBALL

The youth basketball team advanced to the finals of the tournament with a 64-58 victory over College Park last week. The championship game will be played tonight between Wake Forest and Mineral Springs. This game will conclude the official season for the league.

HOME MISSIONS FACTS AND FIGURES . . .
The National objective of the Southern Baptist Home Mission Board is "Crossing Barriers for Christ."

During 1972 Southern Baptists gave a record amount to the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering, the amount running 20 per cent above the previous year.

Financial support of home missions barely keeps up with the rising cost of living. At present there are more qualified volunteers for home missions than there are funds to support them.

SUMMER CAMPS

The Newsletter earlier noted the opportunities for summer conferences at Ridgecrest and Glorieta Baptist Conference Centers. Several camps and assemblies in N.C. offer a variety of experiences. Camp Caraway and Mundo Vista near Asheboro offer week long camps all summer for boys and girls, preteen through high school ages. N.C. Baptist Assembly at Caswell features statewide conferences on numerous subjects of concern to the church. Fruitland Conference Center near Hendersonville will host two weeks of Children's Choir workshops for children. The cost for a week at either place is moderate and the experience at some is outstanding.

Contact the church office for further details.

The Chapel and Junior Choirs will meet at their regular times this week: 4:30 p.m. Thursday for the former, 6:00 p.m. Sunday for the latter. Both choirs are working on Easter and concert music. Attendance is very important!

GROWTH BY GROUPS

"Growth by Groups", a group gathered for inductive Bible Study and mutual support continues each Wednesday night at 7:15 p.m. in Room 110. Groups are kept purposefully small, but new members can join at any time. Persons who desire a time of disciplined study and devotional life will find it in "Growth by Groups". Persons interested in participating should contact the church office or one of the current group members.

PRAYER FOR MISSIONS

A prayer Observance will be held Monday, March 5, at 12:15 p.m. in Davis Chapel as a part of this church's participation in the Week of Prayer for Home Missions. The theme of the March 4-11 observance is "Ask of me, and I will make the nations your heritage, and the ends of the earth your possessions." The theme speaks God's promise of response to a time of study and intercessory prayer.

The week is also a time for active involvement in the mission of the church. Offerings for Home Missions and donations to the Food Bank may be brought to the Prayer Observance. Slightly over half of the $12,000,000 budget for home missions comes through the special Annie Armstrong Offering.

CHURCH WOMEN UNITED

The Church Women United will observe the World Day of Prayer on March 2 at 11:00 a.m. at the First Baptist Church on Highland Avenue.

The guest speaker for the day will be the Rev. Edgar Christman, Chaplain of Wake Forest University. Special music will be provided by the Male Chorus of Winston Salem State University directed by Dr. Permilla F. Dunston, and a choir of small Pre-School children directed by Mrs. Jane Crosswell. There will be special prayers of Thanksgiving for the steps towards peace in Viet Nam and Indo China.

Church Women United believe that the Father of all humanity has a plan- we are a part of that great plan. We must be "ALERT IN OUR TIME", to his spirit. "HAND MUST TOUCH HAND", so that we will know "WHO IN THE WORLD OUR NEIGHBOR IS".

BASKETBALL

The youth basketball team advanced to the finals of the tournament with a 64-58 victory over College Park last week. The championship game will be played tonight between Wake Forest and Mineral Springs. This game will conclude the official season for the league.

HOME MISSIONS FACTS AND FIGURES . . .
The National objective of the Southern Baptist Home Mission Board is "Crossing Barriers for Christ."

During 1972 Southern Baptists gave a record amount to the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering, the amount running 20 per cent above the previous year.

Financial support of home missions barely keeps up with the rising cost of living. At present there are more qualified volunteers for home missions than there are funds to support them.

SUMMER CAMPS

The Newsletter earlier noted the opportunities for summer conferences at Ridgecrest and Glorieta Baptist Conference Centers. Several camps and assemblies in N.C. offer a variety of experiences. Camp Caraway and Mundo Vista near Asheboro offer week long camps all summer for boys and girls, preteen through high school ages. N.C. Baptist Assembly at Caswell features statewide conferences on numerous subjects of concern to the church. Fruitland Conference Center near Hendersonville will host two weeks of Children's Choir workshops for children. The cost for a week at either place is moderate and the experience at some is outstanding.

Contact the church office for further details.

BAPTISM AND LORDS SUPPER

There will be a service of baptism Sunday morning at 11:00. Chris Hendricks is the candidate for baptism. Immediately following the worship service there will be a service of communion in Davis Chapel. The congregation is invited to share with Chris his first communion.

EQUAL RIGHTS FOR WOMEN

"Equal Rights for Women" will be the subject of the next study group for students and adults.

It will begin with Family Night, March 11, 1973. The series on "Death and Dying" was concluded last Sunday night.

The current issue of the Christian Century has a three part feature on "Facing Death" that may be a helpful source: "Euthanasia -- Death with Dignity" by Robert M. Cooper, assistant professor of ethics and moral theology at Nashotah House; "Theological Reflections on Death" by Jeffrey G. Sobsan, a member of the faculty at Notre Dame; and ". . .When Your Husband Dies" by Joyce A. Phipps, a resident of Hamden, Conn. A copy is available through the church office.

NEW MEMBER

We welcome into our church, Chris Hendricks. Chris comes into our church on profession of his faith in Jesus Christ. He will be baptized this Sunday morning.

Chris is the son of Dr. and Mrs. J. Edwin Hendricks. He is in the third grade at Whitaker School. Chris is in the Chapel Choir and the Lower Junior Church School Class. He is a young man of varied interests including piano, pottery, and ceramics as well as the usual active interests of someone his age.

At his baptism into the body of Christ, the congregation will be able formally to covenant with him as a brother in Christ. His first communion service will be in Davis Chapel immediately following the worship service.

DIACONATE REPORT FOR FEBRUARY

Finances: Church Treasurer, Boyce Davis, reported that receipts for January amounted to $6,970.62 and that we spent $8,078.61. Included in our expenditures was one non-recurring item of $1,416.66. We must be reminded that January had five Sundays, and that receipts reflected this.

Dr. Crutchfield reported that the total pledges to date were $68,988.80.

Mr. Davis further reported that Mr. Phil Denny of Winston Salem would start the audit of our Church financial records at an early date.

The Board further approved two items:

1. That our Church cooperate with the Pilot Mountain Association's World Mission Conference.

2. The Committee on Advocacy was asked to study the possible impact on our city when the numerous anti-poverty programs are curtailed, and to report back to the Board at an early date. More will be forthcoming for Church consideration on this subject.

? -IS GOD HARD TO TAKE?

Scripture has some uncomplimentary things to say about God. This is especially true of the Old Testament. The most ironic element of the whole matter is the correlation between taking God seriously and taking exception to His behavior.

IS GOD HARD TO TAKE? (Cont'd)

God is a problem for contemporary man. Indeed He is such a problem as to be declared dead. I have been struck by the impression that modern man has wished Him dead because of the problems He has caused. Perhaps, if we would tussle with Him now as vigorously as did our faithful forefathers, this mood would disappear.

In that vein, I will preach on three out of the next four Sundays on the following themes:

Feb. 18 - "God is Jealous - The Problem of Moses"

Feb. 25 - "God is Deceitful - The Problem of Jeremiah"

(Mar. 4 - Away from pulpit - Robert Bailey will be preaching)

Mar. 11 - "God is Arbitrary - The Problem of Job"

CHURCH WOMEN UNITED

The Church Women United will observe the World Day of Prayer on March 2 at 7:30 P.M. at the First Baptist Church on Highland Avenue.

The Hon. Shirley Chisholm of New York will be the speaker.

PRAYER FOR MISSIONS

"Ask of me, and I will make the nations your heritage, adn the ends of the earth your possessions" is the theme of the Week of Prayer for Home Missions which our church, along with others in the Southern Baptist Convention, will observe March 4-11, 1973.

The national objective of the Southern Baptist Home Mission Board is "Crossing Barriers for Christ." This objective is implemented through the cooperative prayers and offerings of Baptists across the U.S.

A Prayer Observance will be held Monday, March 5, at 12:15 PM in Davis Chapel. This will be a time to consider the emphasis of the week and a time of intercessory prayer. The theme speaks God's promise of response. Our response is encouraged in donations to the Food Bank and offerings for Home Missions. These may be brought to the Prayer Obserbance. May we use this time together for sharing our prayers and concerns.

SPECIAL STUDY -- GENERAL MEETING,WMU

Mrs. W.K. McGee will be the featured speaker at the February 19 meeting of Baptist Women. The covered dish dinner meeting will begin at 6:15 in Room 104. Mrs. McGee will teach the Home Missions study: No Man Goes Alone. The women of College Park Church will also attend.

The meeting will be in preparation for the Week of Prayer for Home Missions and will emphasize study of various faiths in our country and how we should relate to these.

Mrs. McGee is a past president of the state W.M.U.and is presently a member of the executive board.

INTERFAITH WITNESS CONFERENCE

An Interfaith Witness Conference to be held on February 19 at Mineral Springs Baptist Church will feature Dr. Luther Copeland of Southeastern Seminary, Dr. Glenn Igleheart of the Department of Interfaith Witness, Home Mission Board, and the Rev. Ernest Unchurch of the Baptist State Convention.

The Conference will begin at 7:15 PM. A general session will present the topic "What Do We Mean by Interfaith Witnessing?" Smaller conferences will follow on Catholicism, Judaism and the Occult and Oriental faiths.

ELECTIVE CLASS -- DAVIS CHAPEL

Mrs. Sandra Barnes will be the guest speaker in the Elective Class on February 18. This is the second of a two part lecture on the "Concept of Reincarnation and Kharma as it Relates to Grace in the Cayce Readings"

BASKETBALL

The youth basketball team plays College Park tonight in the semi-finals of the single elimination tournament. Complications prevented a shift of the final games to the WFU gym as suggested in last week's Newsletter. The championship game will be on February 22 at 8:00 PM in the Knollwood gym.

AREA SUNDAY SCHOOL REVIVAL

One of a number of one night Sunday School revivals to be held around the state will be held at First Baptist Church on Fifth and Spruce Streets on Monday, March 12, beginning at 7:30 PM. The meeting is projected as "a time for review of the Sunday School task, -- - challenge, goal setting, inspiration and commitment." Sunday School personnel and other interested persons are encouraged to attend this meeting of worship.

THIS SUNDAY, the ADULT SERIES will continue with its topic of "Death and Dying". . 6:00 PM in Room 110.

Childrens Choirs meet at their regular times on Thursday and Sunday.

NOTE FROM FOOD BANK --

There are times when we can pat ourselves on the back. Recent response of the church to the Food Bank has brought such a time. Thanks to the concern and commitment, our Food Bank has been restocked, and able to feed the hungry in our community. Demand is still high, particularly because of recent governmental action, but we have responded to Christ's judgment, 'Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these . . . ye have done it unto me.'

In the name of Christ, we share our food and money with those in need.

- Mamie Collins

EDUCATION NOTES

Occasionally, questions arise about the program of education in our Church School, particularly the program through grade 12. Perhaps a brief overview of the curriculum will give added perspective and answer some of the questions. The curriculum material is designed in two year cycles so that a full unit of material is covered in two years. Within each unit are four semesters and two summer terms. Each of these has a unifying theme for all ages. Thus, each two years the students progress to another level of knowledge about the faith.

An example is evident in the semester now beginning. "Belonging to the Christian Fellowship" is the unifying theme. This ranges from a kindergarten study of our interdependence -- being helpers in God's world to grades 5-6 study of the essential character of the church to grades 11-12 study of the history of the church.

Parents can help in the education of their children by reinforcing what they learn in class and by volunteering to teach in the education program.

##RANDOM THOUGHTS##

WHO IS EDUCATED? A professor in Chicago is reported to have given the following test to his pupils. He told them they were not really educated unless they could say Yes to all these questions:

Has your education given you sympathy with all good causes and made you espouse them?

Has it made you public-spirited?

Has it made you a brother to the Weak?

Have you learned how to make friends and to keep them?

Do you know what it is to be a friend yourself?

Can you look an honest man or a pure woman straight in the eye?

Do you see anything to love in a little child?

Will a lonely dog follow you down the street?

Can you be high-minded and happy in the meaner drudgeries of life?

Do you think washing dishes and hoeing corn just as compatible with high thinking as piano playing or golf?

Are you good for anything to yourself? Can you be happy alone?

Can you look out on the world and see anything but dollars and cents?

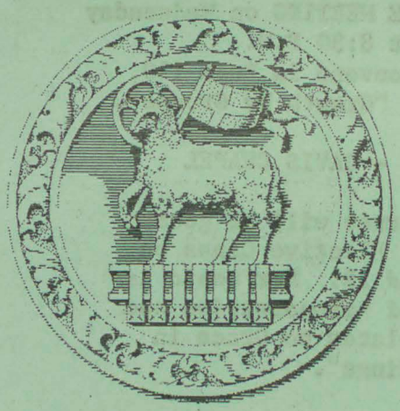

Can you look into a mud puddle by the wayside and see anything in the puddle but mud?

Can you look into the sky at night and see beyond the stars?

Can your soul claim relationship with the Creator?

EDUCATION NOTES

Occasionally, questions arise about the program of education in our Church School, particularly the program through grade 12. Perhaps a brief overview of the curriculum will give added perspective and answer some of the questions. The curriculum material is designed in two year cycles so that a full unit of material is covered in two years. Within each unit are four semesters and two summer terms. Each of these has a unifying theme for all ages. Thus, each two years the students progress to another level of knowledge about the faith.

An example is evident in the semester now beginning. "Belonging to the Christian Fellowship" is the unifying theme. This ranges from a kindergarten study of our interdependence -- being helpers in God's world to grades 5-6 study of the essential character of the church to grades 11-12 study of the history of the church.

Parents can help in the education of their children by reinforcing what they learn in class and by volunteering to teach in the education program.

##RANDOM THOUGHTS##

WHO IS EDUCATED? A professor in Chicago is reported to have given the following test to his pupils. He told them they were not really educated unless they could say Yes to all these questions:

Has your education given you sympathy with all good causes and made you espouse them?

Has it made you public-spirited?

Has it made you a brother to the Weak?

Have you learned how to make friends and to keep them?

Do you know what it is to be a friend yourself?

Can you look an honest man or a pure woman straight in the eye?

Do you see anything to love in a little child?

Will a lonely dog follow you down the street?

Can you be high-minded and happy in the meaner drudgeries of life?

Do you think washing dishes and hoeing corn just as compatible with high thinking as piano playing or golf?

Are you good for anything to yourself? Can you be happy alone?

Can you look out on the world and see anything but dollars and cents?

Can you look into a mud puddle by the wayside and see anything in the puddle but mud?

Can you look into the sky at night and see beyond the stars?

Can your soul claim relationship with the Creator?

Wake Forest Baptist Church

Winston-Salem, North Carolina

VOL. XVI - February 1, 1973 - NO. 5

WELCOME TO NEW MEMBERS

We welcome into our church, Mr. & Mrs. Alex Lineberger who come from Ardmore Methodist Church, which Mrs. Lineberger served as secretary for 16 years. They live in Grandview (Farmstead Rd.) near Pfafftown. Mr. Lineberger operates his own food brokerage, Anchor Sales Co., which handles primarily frozen foods.

The Linebergers have several hobbies which they enjoy in free time. They join mobile America through their enjoyment of trailering. They both play golf though she freely admits that he doesn't have to work as much to complete a round as does she. Some extra time since leaving her secretarial duties has allowed Mrs. Lineberger more time for painting, crafts, and sewing. Of course one other interest for which they manage to find time is their 7 grandchildren, compliments of their 3 daughters.

We covenant with Alex and Emma as they join us in the task and joys that are ours as the Body of Christ.

REPORT FROM THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Board of Education, at its first meeting of 1973, elected officers and formulated objectives for 1973. Elected as Chairperson is Mrs. Josie Tedford, Vice-Chairman is Ivey Gentry, and Secretary is Miss Shirley Jolly. Three major objectives were determined. Committees are being formed to deal in depth with these objectives.

1. Evaluation of the long range week day education needs to which our church should respond, particularly in light of the growing prospect of public kindergartens and the construction of a new fine arts building, which may give the church additional room.

2. A workshop for people involved in the educational program of the church. The workshop would seek to take advantage of philosophies and techniques of education that are appropriate for our church.

3. An evaluation of the total education program with an eye toward a structure that will increase adequate staffing.

Some very good things have been accomplished in the past in the broad scope of Christian education. The desire of the Board of Education is to bring the total education program up to a comparable level of achievement.

RECEPTION OF VISITORS

Greeting visitors in the narthex immediately after the worship services will be Mrs. Justus Drake, Mr. & Mrs. John Williard, and Mrs. Donald Swanagan. They will introduce themselves and our church to visitors directed to them by Mr. Carr or other members of our church.

USHERS FOR THIS MONTH include Mr. L.P. Vickers, Chairman, Jim Brandon, Bill Blackburn, Ivey Gentry, Bob Ellison, Leo Ellison, Jennings Hauser, and Bill Humbert.

BASKETBALL

The youth basketball team is presently in first place in the league. The final regular season games tonight will determine final standings and pairing for the tournament, which begins on February 8.

GROWTH BY GROUPS

"Growth by Groups", a group gathered for inductive Bible study and mutual support began this week. The group will meet for 10 weeks on Wednesday evenings at 7:15 P.M. in Room 110. Persons who have participated in "Growth by Groups" have found it a tremendous experience. Groups are kept purposefully small, but new members can join at any time. Persons who desire a time of disciplined study and devotional life will find it in "Growth by Groups"

MISSION SPEAKER

The W.M.U. dinner meeting on February 19 will feature as speaker, Mrs. W.K. McGee. Mrs. McGee will be teaching the study book, NO MAN GOES ALONE. Mrs. McGee has been active in W.M.U. work in North Carolina for many years, and is a past president of the state W.M.U. She is the wife of the former denominational representative at Baptist Hospital and mother of Mrs. Velma Ferrell who is a former staff member here.

AREA SUNDAY SCHOOL REVIVAL

One of a number of one night Sunday School revivals to be held around the state will be held at First Baptist Church on Fifth and Spruce Streets on Monday, March 12, beginning at 7:30 P.M. The meeting is projected as "a time for review of Sunday School task, challenge, goal setting, inspiration and commitment." Sunday School personnel and other interested persons are encouraged to attend this meeting of worship.

MISSIONARY NEEDS

Requests ranging from general evangelists, to theology teachers, to veterinarians, to student workers push the total requests for foreign missionaries to 800 in 1973 reports the Foreign Mission Board. A chronic need is for medical personnel. These needs abound in many of the 75 countries where Southern Baptist have missionaries.

Persons are needed for long and short range commitments. For example, of the 31 million people in Korea, less than 10% are Christian. There are no restrictions on any evangelistic efforts. The challenge is unlimited.

There are a wide variety of medical, surgical, obstetrical, and pediatric problems in Ghana. Malnutrition is prominent, and spiritual poverty widespread.

The youth of Peru are struggling for a better life. Education is one of the principle means of advancement. Capacity enrollments cause thousands of students to be turned away. Those who are fortunate enough to be accepted find themselves bombarded by strange ideologies. The gap between campus and church grows greater. Missionaries are needed to project a Baptist ministry to the students in Peru.

"STORK CLUB"

Mr. & Mrs. Jack Staton of Newport News, Virginia, are the parents of a daughter born January 27, 1973. The delighted grandparents are Mr. & Mrs. Reid Staton.

FOOD BANK REPORT

January has been the most active month the Food Bank has seen.

Twenty six families have been given food - a total of 102 people.

For an average family of four, this would be worth 75 days, or two and a half month's food supply.

An E.S.R. Social Worker always screens applicants for recipients, and he called for food fourteen different days in January alone.

As we thank God for our daily bread, let us remember those who go hungry in our own community.

Cost for conferences vary according to type of accommodations and meal arrangements. A service fee of $7.50 is due with reservation. Further details are available in the church office.

BASKETBALL

The youth basketball team continued its winning ways on January 18. Without unduly trying to revive painful memories, it might be said that our team did to its opposition in the entire game what two opponents have done to a local university in the second half of two recent games.

The standings after last Thursday left Wake Forest on top in the league with two teams tied for second and a showdown to take place tonight with one of those. The game tonight will be with College Park.

The next game will be on February 1 with Mineral Springs, at the Knollwood Church gym.

GROWTH BY GROUPS . . . . .

"Growth by Groups", a group gathered for inductive Bible study and mutual support will begin on Wednesday, Jan. 31 at 7:15 in Room 110, Wingate. This first meeting will be to introduce the material and group process. "growth by Groups" is open to anyone who is interested in discovering through fellowship, study and prayer together, a deeper Christian faith.
The group will meet for 10 weeks, and a Nursery will be available.

Persons who have participated in these "Growth by Groups" have found this a tremendous experience. Groups will be kept purposefully small to invite closeness, but new members can join at any time. If you think you will benefit through a time of disciplined study and devotional life, "Growth by Groups" is for you.

CHILDRENS CHOIRS

Boys and girls are invited to take part in the Childrens Choir Program. Chapel Choir (Grades 3-6) meets on Thursdays from 4:30 to 5:15 PM. Refreshments are served at 4:15.
Junior Choir (Grades 1-3) meets Sunday evenings from 6:00 to 7:00 except on Family Night when the Choir meets 45 minutes later. (The second half of the hour is study of the Bible and missions). Both choirs are working on music for the spring concert.

ADULT ELECTIVE CLASS

Mr. & Mrs. Howard J. Hassell will speak in the Adult Elective Class on Sunday, January 28. Their topic will be - "The Latter Day Saints' Use of the Arts in the Church".

KEY 73

In keeping with this emphasis, a local, community-wide evangelistic rally is planned for Sunday, January 28, at 7:00 PM. It will be held at the Ardmore United Methodist Church at 630 Hawthorne Rd. (Near Baptist Hospital)

The Service is inter-denominational and open to all persons in the Winston Salem, area. Featured will be an area-wide youth choir: "The Galilieans", a singing group from Canada, and Evangelist, Meryle Dolan from Ontario, Canada. The latter is a reputable evangelist with 12 years of pastoral experience and 9 of evangelistic work. An informal dutch-treat luncheon and discussion time with Dolan and the "Galileans" will be held Jan. 29, at 11:00 A.M. at the Holiday Inn West.

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION will meet this Sunday night at 7:00 in Room 110. This meeting was rescheduled from January 7.

D I A C O N A T E R E P O R T

The Diaconate met on January 14, 1973, at the Church. At this time, a thorough review of the 1972 financial affairs of the Church was made.

The highlights of our '72 fiscal year are as follow:

We adopted a budget of $77,086. This figure included an item of $3,000 to go into savings. We were able to meet all of our obligations included in this budget, but with nothing to spare. As we look to our '72 results we also must look forward to '73 and accept the fact that our '73 budget will call for considerably more this year than last year. If we are to meet the '73 budget every member must realize that he or she will have to meet their pledge toward the '73 budget.

The second major business considered by the Diaconate came from Mr. Carr who gave to the Diaconate body copies of a report of 2 ad hoc committees that were appointed last fall, and who were asked to consider several problems having to do with the life of the Church. These two reports were received with interest by the Diaconate, and since Mr. Carr will be referring to these reports from time to time in his various contacts with the membership, no further remarks on their content will be given here, except to say that these two committees have studied thoroughly the various aspects of Church life. Their findings, conclusions and suggestions will be a challenge to each of us.

Mr. W. Reid Staton, Chairman

MEALS ON WHEELS

Meals on Wheels, which delivers two meals a day to persons in Winston Salem who are unable to prepare adequate meals for themselves, needs volunteers to help deliver these meals. Nearly 25 persons are on a waiting list awaiting ample volunteers to deliver.

Meals are delivered Monday through Friday. Two meals per person are picked up at 11:00 from Baptist Hospital. Delivery of 4 - 6 meals can be made within an hour.

He does not edit the NEWSLETTER, and the presentation to the Church Library was made some time ago.

THE LOTTIE MOON OFFERING FOR FOREIGN MISSIONS TOTAL $990.74 TO DATE.

WELCOME TO NEW MEMBER

We welcome into our church, Mr. Jerald Stainback. Jerry comes to our church by letter from the First Baptist Church in Henderson. He lives at 101 Belle Vista Court.

In 1971, Jerry completed his undergraduate work at Wake Forest. He is now a second year student in the W.F. Law School. Although active practice is a year and a half away, Jerry is giving serious though to specific plans He would like to practice law in Winston Salem and prefers trial law but he is amply aware of the "choice" work assigned to a junior member of a firm.

Jerry's biggest interest now is of necessity studying, particularly with exams upon him. However, when that pressure lessens, one hobby is playing the piano. He also enjoys attending the concerts and plays available in the area.

We welcome Jerry into our church and covenant with him in our ministry as members of the Body of Christ.

INVENTORY OF CHURCH MEMBERSHIP RESPONSIBILITY

With 1972 behind us and as 1973 begins, give a moment or two for a personal inventory of church membership responsibility-

1. How many persons have beacome Christians because of my witness?
2. How many neighbors have attended our Church School or Church as a result of my invitation?
3. How much money would have been given through church offerings if all members had given as much as I?
4. How much Christian instruction would the children and youth of our community have received if every member gave as much service and interest as I?
5. What was the measure of my Christian growth last year?
6. What kind of commitments am I willing to make for 1973?/?/?/?

Nearly 25 persons are on a waiting list awaiting ample volunteers to deliver.

BASKETBALL

Last week's game with First Baptist proved to be the most thrilling of the three played thus far. Wake Forest watched a four point lead disappear in only 34 seconds, then stood helpless with one second as a free throw rolled around the rim, then fell off.

A five minute overtime saw reciprocal mistakes the first two minutes then a surge by Wake Forest that stretched to a five point lead at the end of the game. The final score was 60-55. The win leaves our team tied for first place in the league with a 2-1 record.

The next game is January 18 with Northwest. Game time is 8:30 at Knollwood Baptist Church.

 AT THE RISK OF IDOLATRY

With unashamed deliberateness, the NEWSLETTER has waited until after church members have had ample time to buy Mr. Carr's new book, AT THE RISK OF IDOLATRY to inform you that a copy is now in the church library. To allay any suspicion of a conflict of interest it should be noted that the author had no part in this decision. He does not edit the NEWSLETTER, and the presentation to the Church Library was made some time ago.

THE LOTTIE MOON OFFERING FOR FOREIGN MISSIONS TOTAL $990.74 TO DATE.

WELCOME TO NEW MEMBER

We welcome into our church, Mr. Jerald Stainback. Jerry comes to our church by letter from the First Baptist Church in Henderson. He lives at 101 Belle Vista Court.

In 1971, Jerry completed his undergraduate work at Wake Forest. He is now a second year student in the W.F. Law School. Although active practice is a year and a half away, Jerry is giving serious though to specific plans He would like to practice law in Winston Salem and prefers trial law but he is amply aware of the "choice" work assigned to a junior member of a firm.

Jerry's biggest interest now is of necessity studying, particularly with exams upon him. However, when that pressure lessens, one hobby is playing the piano. He also enjoys attending the concerts and plays available in the area.

We welcome Jerry into our church and covenant with him in our ministry as members of the Body of Christ.

INVENTORY OF CHURCH MEMBERSHIP RESPONSIBILITY

With 1972 behind us and as 1973 begins, give a moment or two for a personal inventory of church membership responsibility-

1. How many persons have beacome Christians because of my witness?
2. How many neighbors have attende our Church School or Church as a resul of my invitation?
3. How much money would have been given through church offerings if all members had given as much as I?
4. How much Christian instruction would the children and youth of our community have received if every member gave as much service and intere as I?
5. What was the measure of my Christian growth last year?
6. What kind of commitments am I willing to make for
