

Carolina

CLIPPING SERVICE
1115 HILLSBORO
RALEIGH, NC 27603
TEL. (919) 833-2079

MONTGOMERY HERALD

TROY, N. C.

afam miss?
Bapt?

NOV 10 99

Services welcome new pastor

291-

House of Refuge Gospel Baptist Church of Mt. Gilead will hold dedication services to honor Rev. John Allen Jackson who joins the church as the Senior Pastor effective November 11.

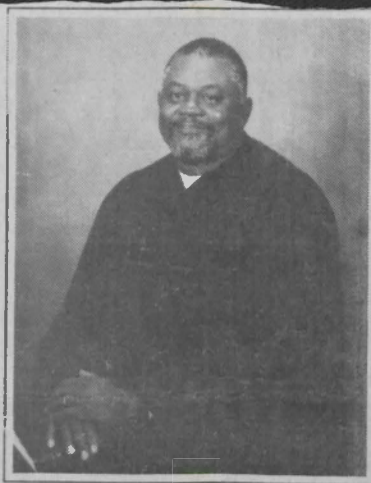

Rev. Jackson is the former associate pastor of Oliver Grove Missionary Baptist Church in Magnum. He attended the Dry County Bible College in Maxton and is currently employed with the Minuteman Power Boss of Aberdeen. He is married to June A. Jackson, is the son of James and Doris Jackson and the grandson of Nannie Dockey.

Services begin Thursday, November 11, at 7:30 p.m. with the speaker being Elder Whitely, pastor of the Revival Temple C.O.G.I.C. of Troy. Friday services will bring Rev. Rick Steele, pastor of Whole Word Gospel Church of Rockingham at 7:30 p.m. Evangelist Mary Cowen of the Pentecostal Assembly of Jesus Christ of Pinehurst will speak Saturday at 7:30 p.m. Rev. David Dockey, pastor of Shiloh Rock Baptist Church in High Point will speak Sunday morning at 11:30 a.m. and Rev. Franklin Clark, pastor of First Institute Family Worship Center of Gastonia will speak at the Sunday afternoon service at 4 p.m.

The public is invited to attend these joyous services. House of Refuge Full Gospel Baptist Church is located on 104 School Street in Mt. Gilead.

REV. JOHN ALLEN JACKSON