

Max Lindsay Ordained

Max Lindsay, of the Grassy Branch Community and son of Rev. and Mrs. E.B. Lindsay was ordained to the Gospel Ministry on May 30 at 2:30pm by the Mount Zion Baptist Church of which he has been a member.

He was called by the Ela Baptist Church which requested his ordination.

Rev. J.W. Myers, associational missionary, led out in the questioning. The ordination candidate was counseled by Mt. Zion pastor Ray Cates, and the ordination prayer was given by Brother John Freeman. The laying on of the hand by the presbytery was accomplished with the participation of pastors of the Tennessee River Baptist Association, regional missionary Luther Osmet, and deacons of the Mt. Zion and Ela Baptist Churches. C.C. Carson served as clerk of the presbytery.

The charge was given by Rev. E.B. Lindsay, associational clerk, Associational moderator Buford Woodard delivered the ordination message. Brother Gerald Stephenson, chairman of the deacons of Mt. Zion Church, presented the new Rev. Lindsay with a Bible, a gift of the church.

Rev. Lindsay will complete his training at Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute in Hendersonville in March, 1977.

He is married to the former Iris Ferguson of Detroit, Michigan. The Lindsays have two daughters and a son.
