Dear Mr. Woodard:

I regret that we have not responded to your request for the 1981 minutes/annuals of our association (Brier Creek Baptist Association), but due to the continued illness and death of our Superintendent of Missions, Rev. H. L. Martin, who passed away December 25, our working schedule has been disrupted to a degree.

I, serving as Intrem for a brief time, am attempting to bring our work up to a normal schedule if possible. We appreciate the fact that your library, as official repository for North Carolina Baptist materials, is doing this work.

Sincerely yours,

Wm. Eugene "Gene" Jones, Sr., Intrem
Superintendent of Missions, Brier Creek

Memorial

Rev. H.L. "Hervie" Martin was born August 10, 1910, died Christmas Day, December 25, 1982. It is with loving remembrance and grateful appreciation for the Christian life he lived and for the years of service he gave in ministerial work and his dedication in the service as Director of Missions of our association that we dedicate this, our 1983 Minutes of the Brier Creek Baptist Association, to the memory of our beloved friend, The Rev. H.L. Martin.
