

Carolina

CLIPPING SERVICE
1115 HILLSBORO
RALEIGH, NC 27603
TEL. (919) 833-2079

TIMES
THOMASVILLE, N. C.

no bio
OCT 8 94

times

291

A8

Revival for the deaf slated for Oct.13-15

Revival services, with the deaf community in mind, will be held at First Baptist Church on Randolph Street, beginning Thursday, Oct. 13, and continuing nightly through Saturday, Oct. 15. The hour of the service is 7 p.m., nightly.

The guest speaker will be the Rev. Cliff Tolosa of Hickory.

The Rev. Mr. Tolosa has been pastor of First Baptist Church for Deaf in Hickory since August of 1993. He was born and raised in Saginaw, Mich. He attended Bible College in Chattanooga, Tenn. He met his wife, Brenda, while studying for the ministry and they were married in 1973. Together they have ministered to the deaf in Georgia, Michigan, Missouri, Illinois, West Virginia and now North Carolina.

REV. CLIFF TOLOSA

They have two adult children who also know sign language very well. Although their ministry is with the deaf, everyone in the Tolosa family is hearing.

A covered dish supper will be held in the church fellowship hall on Saturday night, Oct. 15, prior to that night's service.