

RICHARD K. HOLLOMAN.

Wake Forest.—Richard K. Holloman, Wake Forest College senior from Belcross, died about 8:00 p. m. Thursday in the college infirmary of an acute heart attack.

Young Holloman was brought to the infirmary Sunday night to be treated for a severe sore throat. He apparently was recovering from this ailment when stricken.

He came to Wake Forest in the Fall of 1937, and would have completed a liberal arts course next Spring. He was planning to be a teacher. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Holloman of Belcross.

Funeral arrangements were not known here. Wed. Nov 20.
