

. . . Eld. A. W. McDaniel resigned his pastorate of Brevard, Jan. 1st, and was afterwards called to and accepted the care of the first church, Sevierville, Tenn. He was one of the most systematic pastors of the long list of pastors that have served this church. He was earnest, faithful and untiring in his work. Mrs. McDaniel as the teacher of the T. E. L. Class and in other lines of activity was regarded largely as an authority in her interpretations of many Biblical and practical questions and in most cases accepted as final.
