

WEST HILLS - 1917

Orange

MOUNT ZION

See:

Spring Street - 1917

Orange

MOUNT ZION

Carolina

CLIPPING SERVICE
1115 HILLSBORO
RALEIGH, NC 27603
TEL. (919) 833-2079

NEWS OF ORANGE COUNTY
HILLSBOURGH, N. C.

MAY-30-84

REV. CARLTON

Revival dates at the West Hill Baptist Church, 202 Jones Avenue, June 3-6, at 7 p.m. each evening. Speaking will be the Rev. Fred Carlton, Pastor of the Edgewood Baptist Church of Cooleemee, NC. Rev. Carlton is a well-traveled revival speaker, and has served in Cooleemee for 12 years.

861

Special Music will be featured each night from the West Hill Adult Choir, The Men of Music, and others. A nursery will be provided.

The Pastor of West Hill, Rev. Conley J. Bordeaux, Sr., invites everyone to come and celebrate with West Hill in a time of renewal and commitment. Rev. Carlton will have several books he has authored and tapes of messages available for the public to purchase.

On Sunday, June 10, Rev. G.B. Vaughn, a former Pastor of West Hill will return to deliver the Homecoming Message at the 11 a.m. Morning Worship Hour. Rev. Vaughn is presently the Pastor of the Evergreen Baptist Church in Evergreen, NC.

Lunch will be served following the morning service. //

Carolina

CLIPPING SERVICE
1115 HILLSBORO
RALEIGH, NC 27603
TEL. (919) 833-2079

NEWS OF ORANGE COUNTY
HILLSBOURGH, N. C.

MAR 23-83

The Rev. Conley J. Bordeaux, Sr., will assume the Pastorate of West Hill Baptist Church, Sunday, March 27 at the 11:00 Morning Worship. He comes to West Hill from the New Salem Baptist Church, Pittsboro.

He is a graduate of Campell University, Buies Creek, and has attended Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forst.

He is married to the former Donna Davis of Hillsborough, and they have two sons, Jeremy and Jackson.

West Hill Baptist Church invites anyone without a church home to come and visit with them and their new pastor. Services are: Sunday School, 10:00 each Sunday, 11:00

Worship Services, 7:00,
Sunday evening Worship (with youth meetings monthly), and
7:00 Mid-Week Prayer
Meetings. //

Church chooses new name

West Hill Baptist Church at 202 Jones Avenue, in Hillsborough has voted unanimously to change the church name to Spring Street Baptist Church, according to Rev. C.J. Bordeaux Sr.

"The new name was unanimously approved this week by the congregation," he said.

"The name was chosen because it signifies 'newness of life,' he added.

"The congregation agreed that the name change would revitalize the church and give it a new start."

A rededication service and church on the grounds was held Sunday in celebration.

Rev. Bordeaux has pastored the West Hillsborough church for the past two years. He will be relocating in Lumberton, around the middle of August.

"I will miss Hillsborough and its people. I have made some really good friends here, but it is also important for me to return to my home which is near Lumberton."

He will be pastor at Antioch Baptist Church in Lumberton.

Coming to pastor Spring Street Baptist here will be the Rev. Mark Beck, a Southeastern Seminary student. He will be in the pulpit Aug. 12, Rev. Bordeaux said.

Photo by Judy Ausley

Rev. C.J. Bordeaux shows new church name //

Carolina

CLIPPING SERVICE
1115 HILLSBORO
RALEIGH, NC 27603
TEL. (919) 833-2079

NEWS OF West Hill
ORANGE COUNTY
HILLSBOROUGH, N.C.

Mt. Zion
JUN - 9 93

291- B8.
Appreciation Day

(From left to right) Pator Stewart, Herman Craven, and wife Lila Craven.

The congregation at West Hill Baptist Church held an appreciation day service for one of their faithful members recently.

Herman Craven was honored for 39 years of special service and deaconship. To show their appreciation for Mr. Craven, he was asked to stand up in front of the congregation, at which time those present commenced to make a money tree out of Mr. Craven by pinning bills all over him.

11

(Photo by the Rev. Conley Bordeaux Sr.)

Church honors Rosa Mangum

Miss Rosa L. Mangum, seated, was honored last Sunday by her church, West Hill Baptist, for 59 years of loyal and outstanding service. Shown with her are some of the principals on the program. Left to right:

The Rev. Grover Vaughn, Mrs. Louise Booth, Miss Mangum, the Rev. Landis Cannady and Miss Anne Davis.

The News of Orange County, Hillsborough, N.C. Wednesday, August 31, 1983—13A

Vest Hill Baptist Church honors servant

Sunday Aug. 28, marked the celebration of 59 years of service to the West Hill Baptist Church by Miss Rosa L. Mangum.

Miss Mangum, who was born in Hillsborough, Jan. 5, 1912, was paid tribute by her church, family, and community.

Since joining West Hill in 1924, Miss Mangum has been the church pianist for 37 years; the church clerk for 32 years; a Sunday school teacher, WMU president and chairperson, youth director, Acteens director, and director of the WMU for the Mt. Zion Baptist Association.

In the service, she was presented a corsage by Mrs. Debbie Truax and heard testimonials from Bob Mangum, nephew and music director; Mrs. Louise Booth, lifelong friend; Miss Anne Davis, former Acteens president; the Rev. Landis Cannady, brother-in-law and pastor of the Mt. Elim Baptist Church in Orrum, (N.C.); and the Rev. Grover Vaughn, pastor of the Evergreen Baptist Church, Evergreen, (N.C.) and former pastor at West Hill.

Miss Mangum was presented an Acteens pin, a framed document of the days service, and a framed certificate of appreciation.

The pastor of West Hill, the Rev. Conley J. Bordeaux, Sr., presided over the service and presented a narrative of her life's history. He said, "It was a day well deserved. Every pastor should have a Rosa Mangum in their church. Her dedication to her Lord and her church are not matched by many, and she lives her witness."

After the morning worship hour, dinner was spread on the church ground also in her honor.