

REVIEW
REIDSVILLE, N. C.

MAR 14 97 <sup>B10</sup>

takes the fear out of life.

342-4233 or 616-1071.

New minister accepts call to Baptist Temple

The Rev. W. Marcus Gray began his ministry Sunday at Baptist Temple Church, 729 Wentworth St.

A Rockingham County native, Gray is a graduate of Madison-Mayodan High School, Mars Hill College from where he received his bachelor of arts in religion, and Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary from where he received his master of divinity.

He has served as minister of youth, associate pastor and senior pastor at various churches and was senior pastor at Osborne Baptist Church in Eden from 1984-1991. He also was very active in the Dan Valley Baptist Association.

The Gray family comes to Reidsville from Greensboro where Gray had served as pastor of Sharpe Road Baptist Church since 1991.

He is married to the former Esther Raymer, a teacher in the Guilford County schools. They have two children, Rebecca, 12, and Nathaniel, 10.

Worship services are at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. Sundays; prayer service is at 7 p.m. Wednesdays.