

Putnam Will Be Ordained During Service Sunday

Plans have been completed for the ordaining of Herbert A. Putnam to the ministry by Grace Baptist Church at East Flat Rock. The ordaining council composed of local ministers will examine the candidate in a special session on Sunday, June 27, at 2 p.m.

HERBERT A. PUTNAM

Following the council's recommendation and upon the authorization by the church, the ordination service will be held at 3 p.m. on the same date in the auditorium of Grace Baptist Church. These services are open to the public.

For the last two years Putnam has served as one of the youth directors of the East Flat Rock Church. A native of Rockford, Illinois, he graduated from Bob Jones University in 1962. In addition to teaching one year in the Faith Christian Day School, Inc., he has taught the past year at Edneyville High School. He is married to the former Miss Sarah Cantrell of this city. They have two children, a son, Timothy, age 2½ and a daughter, Tamea, 1 year.

The Rev. Earl H. Kilpatrick, pastor, states that Putnam has been called to the pastorate of the Tracy Grove Baptist Church. Rev. Kilpatrick further expressed appreciation for the work done with the youth of his church by Putnam. "It is with mixed emotions that we see Putnam leave our church. We regret to lose his services, but we rejoice in the wider door for ministering that has come to him in his call to the Tracy Grove Baptist Church," he stated.

In addition to the pastor, the following ministers are to take part in the services: the Reverends Cleo L. Winningham, Wade F. Sinclair, John Rymer, Arthur M. Parce, Z. V. Brookshire, Cecil A. Worsham, Paul Brooks and L. K. Holbert.

REV. H. A. PUTNAM

Rev. Putnam Is Named To Post At Church Here

The Rev. Herbert A. Putnam, former pastor of Tracy Grove Baptist Church, has been named assistant pastor at Calvary Baptist Church.

He will assist the Rev. J. Leland (Buddy) Mullinax, pastor.

Rev. Putnam served the Tracy Grove church for three years. Before taking the pastorate there, he was youth director at Grace Baptist Church, where he was ordained, for two years. He is a 1962 graduate of Bob Jones University in Greenville, S. C.

In addition to his work at Grace, the minister taught a year at Faith Christian Day School and three years at Edneyville; and since last September he has been a case worker with the Henderson County Welfare Department.

Rev. Putnam is a native of Rockford, Ill. He is married to the former Sarah Cantrell of Hendersonville. They have two children, Timothy, 5, and Tamela, 3.
