

FRENCH BROAD - 1807

FRENCH BROAD. Formed in 1807 by three churches (Little Ivy, Locust Old Fields, and New Found) from Holston Association and three (French Broad, Cane Creek, and Caney River) from Broad River. During the 1820's several churches, rejecting the French Broad belief in the doctrine of election, formed the Big Ivy. In 1849, however, French Broad accepted the Big Ivy view, and the two reunited as French Broad. By the mid-century the Tuckaseegee, Salem, Valley, Roan Mountain, New Found, and Three Forks had been formed by peaceful divisions of the French Broad. County associations later took additional territory until by 1954 only a part of Madison County remained. In 1954, 45 churches reported 257 baptisms, 8,364 members, $150,958 total gifts, $17,872 mission gifts, $744,100 property value, and $176,454 church debt.
