

Carolina CLIPPING SERVICE
1115 HILLSBORO
RALEIGH, NC 27603
TEL. (919) 833-2079

WARREN RECORD
WARRENTON, N.C.

Dr. Rudolph Tripp

AUG 5 98

291
Record, Warrenton, North Carolina, Wednesday, August 5, 1998 —Page 5

Joint Revival Services Slated By Two Warren Co. Churches

Joint revival services will be held Monday, Aug. 10-Friday, Aug. 14, beginning at 7:30 p.m. each night at Olive Grove, located on Eaton Ferry Road near Vaughan and Littleton.

The services are the joint effort of Olive Grove and Second Baptist, Macon.

The guest minister will be the Rev. Dr. Rudolph Tripp, pastor of New Hope Baptist Church in Wendell, who is also on the faculty of Shaw Divinity School in Raleigh. He also serves as coordinator of continuing Christian education and teaches biblical studies.

A native of Cordele, Ga. and a resident of Raleigh, Rev. Dr. Tripp formerly served as pastor of the Elizabeth Missionary Baptist Church in Autryville, the Falling Run Missionary Baptist Church in Fayetteville and as co-pastor of Trinity Missionary Baptist Church in Pearl City, Hawaii.

He has served over 12 years in the United States Air Force, as a personnel technician and as a race and human relations instructor. During those years, he was stationed on both stateside and overseas bases.

REV. DR. TRIPP

He served the State of North Carolina, Department of Correction as a staff developer and coordinator of training for 15 years.

A different choir will provide music for each night of the revival services.

The Rev. Charles Walton and the Olive Grove family invite the public to attend these services.