

Rev. Herman R. Orr

Rev. Orr To Take Over Pastorates

POWELLSVILLE — The Rev. Herman R. Orr, who came to Powellsville three years ago, to take over pastorates at the Powellsville and the Center Grove Baptist Churches in Bertie County, has resigned effective February 10 and will begin new duties on February 16.

He is going with the Fort Barnwell and the Spring Garden Baptist Churches in Craven County which have been without a pastor for many, many months.

The Rev. Orr's family will go with him. They include his wife and two children, Shirlene, 16, and Herman Orr Jr., 15, currently attending Bertie County schools. They will transfer to Vanceboro schools.

The family will make their home in Fort Barnwell, their new address to be Route 1, Dover 28526.

In announcing his resignation the Powellsville minister described himself as deeply grateful for the many courtesies he has received in the area and reluctant to leave the many friends he and his family have made.

His successor has not been named.
