He is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Page. Dr. Page is pastor of First Baptist Church in Charlotte.

Mr. Page was licensed to the gospel ministry on June 22, 1994, and ordained in September 1996 at First Baptist Church in Charlotte. He is a graduate of Clemson University with a Bachelor of Arts in history. In December 1996 he graduated from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, Wake Forest, earning a Master of Divinity with Biblical languages.

During seminary, Mr. Page served one year as minister of youth at First Baptist Church in Red Springs. Also, for two and one-half years he was assistant minister of youth and activities at Bay Leaf Baptist Church, Raleigh. Since December 1996 he has been doing supply ministry and revival preaching in Charlotte area churches.

Hebron Baptist Church celebrated 100 years of service in November 1997. The church is located at 175 Hebron Road, eight miles north of Statesville just off US 21.

The pastor and congregation extends an invitation to those seeking a place to worship.

Reception held to honor new pastor

Members of Hebron Baptist Church hosted a reception for their new pastor, Rev. Robert W. Page, wife Jennifer and son Greyson on Sunday, April 26, from 2 until 4 p.m. The pastor search committee, deacons and wives rotated serving time from guest register, receiving line, refreshment tables and saying goodbyes to guests.

During the afternoon 150 friends and guests were in attendance. Special out-of-town guests were Dr. and Mrs. Charles Page of Charlotte, parents of the new pastor, Mr. and Mrs. John Lowe of Belton, S.C., parents of Jennifer Page, and Robert and Virginia Groff of Reidsville, grandparents of Rev. Page.

The reception was held in the S.D. Baker Building which was decorated for the occasion. A picture collage of the honored couple and family was of special interest.

Mr. Page began his ministry at Hebron on March 29. They are making their home at 175 Hebron Road, in the church parsonage.
