Serving as Superintendent of Missions of Bladen Association has been one of the greatest experiences of my life.

It has given me an opportunity of working with and getting to know just how wonderful Baptists are; of planning and promoting the great Baptist work; of seeing people grow in Christian maturity as they study and work together for the advancement of the association and the world.

There are disappointments- times when people do not attend the meetings planned for them as I think they should- times when enthusiasm seems to wane, but I must say the joys have been far greater than the disappointments. I am thankful that I have been able to serve God in this capacity.
